

REAL LIVE SANTA TO BE IN SLATON MONDAY, NOVEMBER 7th

Slaton Legion To Collect Gifts For Disabled Vetrans Over Nation

The early campaign that is sponsored by the Slaton Luther Powers Post of the American Legion and the Luther Powers Post Auxiliary, for the collection of gift boxes to be sent to Disabled Veterans in the Hospitals over the nation, is now in progress.

The receptacles for the gifts have been placed at Anthony's Post Office, Slaton Pharmacy, O. Z. Ball & Co., Clay Oates Department Store and the Teague Drug Store.

The receptacles are marked "Gift Shop for Vets," and any kind of item that a man wears or uses may be placed in the gift packages or items that he may send his own family may be wrapped as many disabled veterans are married and have families. The gifts are sent to hospitals in Waco, Houston, Amarillo, Temple, Corpus Christi, McKinney and others over the state and nation.

Those who are in position to know report that the disabled veterans need the help of interested people now more than they have ever needed it before. Life in a hospital is depressing at best and especially so at the holiday season. A gift from you will add cheer and hope to the life of some one who has risked his or her life for the welfare of our nation.

As the gifts must be delivered to the hospitals by December 1st it is necessary that you make your donations as soon as possible.

The Question Of The Week

Well, the high school kids got a crack at the week's question. Most teen agers are beginning to think about what's going to happen to them when they get out of school, so the question we decided upon was, "Does the future look very bright to you, and what do you plan to do when you get out of school?"

Franklin Heinrich, high school senior, says he plans to grow up and be a farmer and he added, "As for the future, it looks pretty bright when the lights are on." Asked what kind of a farmer he wanted to be, his answer was, "Cotton farmer. What other kind is there?"

Dorthea Burks will probably one day be a speculative business woman. "I'm a business enthusiast," she says, "Yes, the future looks very bright. And I plan to attend Draughon's Business College when I graduate from High School."

Betty Childress chimed in with her friend Dorthea to say, "Sure the future looks bright. We're all going to do when I get out of school—that will probably be undecided until the right man comes along." That is probably a good honest answer for all the girls.

Cecil Bybee says that so far nothing has happened to make his future look anything but bright. Asked what he planned to do when he got out of school, he answered, "Go back to school, I guess.

Slaton Wins Over O'Donnell, 31-0

Keeping their conference rating perfect, the Slaton Tigers trounced O'Donnell's Eagles 31-0 last Friday night at Tiger Stadium before a crowd of some 1,000 fans.

Local football enthusiasts saw the Tigers jump to a 6-0 lead in the first quarter, and then watched the two teams battle on pretty even terms for the remainder of the first half.

O'Donnell took the opening kick off and was unable to move down field. A third down fumble on their own 26 yard line was recovered by the Tigers, and from there Fullback Ed Willis and Halfbacks Carl Lewis and Bob Lambert moved the ball down to around the ten yard line. Willis made the final plunge for the first score of the evening. Bob Taylor's try for extra point was blocked.

Slaton appeared to be on the way to three more touchdowns in the first half, but fumbles cost the team any possible scoring opportunity. O'Donnell managed to keep out of deep trouble by recovering fumbles and by keeping the Tigers in their own end of the field by long punts. The half ended with the score 6-0, in favor of Slaton.

Slaton received the opening kick off of the second half and marched from the 40 yard line to the 15 yard line in O'Donnell territory, where the drive ended in a fumble. The Eagles ran one or two plays and then fumbled the ball on the ten yard mark, where the Tigers recovered. Willis scored his second touchdown of the evening on a ten yard dash around the right end. Taylor's attempt at conversion was blocked again.

Late in the third period Quarterback Cecil Bybee scored on a one-yard plunge after a downfield drive that began on the Tiger 15. Taylor missed the extra point. Early in the fourth frame Bobby Thompson scored from the three after recovering an Eagle fumble on the ten. Taylor's conversion was good.

The final score of the night came on a pass interception by Halfback Lewis on the O'Donnell 30 yard line. He raced over the goal line untouched. Final score was 31-0.

Outstanding linemen for Slaton were Leon Moore, George Young and Harley Patterson. O'Donnell was led by Fullback Leroy Gass and End Carroll Pearson.

Mrs. J. J. Alcorn of Houston is visiting in Slaton with her daughter Mrs. E. F. Ray.

Genelle Bolding, Oklahoma Baptist University sophomore, was accepted as a member of Sigma Tau Delta, national English fraternity, at a meeting of the local chapter recently.

George Young simply says the future looks pretty bright as far as he can see, and he too plans to go on to college.

And of one very lively looking young man we asked—"what do you plan to be when you grow up?" And the answer came back, "I hope to grow up to be a man." Name attached to this revolutionary deduction is William Jones, a senior student. After all had mirthfully enjoyed the fun, we found out that William was seriously considering agriculture as his means of livelihood.

Despite some of the answers that the future doesn't look so bright, we are inclined to think that all the Slaton High School crowd is pretty happy in general, and the most important thing in the world to them is a good laugh. Perhaps more of the adults should take a few lessons from them.

Bonds And Gifts To Be Given In Third Slaton Trades Day Program

Calm Halloween Reports Police

Slaton's police department reported that this year's Halloween was very calm and that no reports of destruction within the city were made. All in all they were very pleased with the evening with the exception of some indecent language and remarks with soap in the business windows with soot. "Writing on the windows with soap is alright," city policeman Ernest Ward said, "We only objected to the language used."

For the past week police reported six drunks, four gamings, three traffic violations—all in the city court. One negro was caught attempting to pass a worthless check. He was sent to the county court for investigation.

Those elected were Leo Hensler, Henry Gore, Ralph Dickson, and Mr. Thomas. Charles Marriot was elected committee chairman.

Boys and parents who are interested in taking active parts in the scout activities may attend the pack meetings each fourth Thursday of every month or see Bland Tomlinson.

J. J. Maxey spent last week in Galveston where he was attending a municipalities convention.

Mrs. C. L. Pack returned last week from a visit with her daughter Mrs. Neal Hallmark and family in Oklahoma City.

The Slaton Trades Day set for Monday, November 7th promises to be the biggest and best of all the trades days yet staged by the merchants of the city. The program will start at 4:00 p. m. when thirty gifts and three savings bonds will be awarded to folks who have registered at the stores that are taking part in the program.

Old Santa Claus will be there with candy for the kiddies and a smile and a cheery word for everybody. He is a real live Santa who will start the Christmas season off with his official appearance. He will be glad to have the youngsters tell him what they will want for Christmas.

Those who wish to have opportunities to win prizes and bonds must register at the stores that are offering the prizes. The names of the stores are listed on the page advertising in this paper telling of the Trades Day.

Each person may register at all of the places listed once each day, there are no restrictions and any one wishing to register may do so. Nothing to buy, no blanks to fill out or questions to answer. Write your name and address on the slips and drop them in the boxes. You may register twice at each place, once for the gift that each store is giving and once for the Bonds.

There are three more days for registrations for the November 7 trades day. The registrations will be gathered up at the stores on Monday at 2:00 p. m. for drawings November 7th and all registrations turned in after that date will be for the December Trades Day Drawing.

If negative, showing no presence of tuberculosis, the individual will be notified directly. If results are questionable, the family physician will be notified and he will notify the individual.

Water Supply Is Ample Says Mayor

In discussing the water situation for Slaton Mayor Lee Wootton reported this week that the wells south of town are producing much more than they had hoped or expected for them to do and that the longer the wells are used the better they seem to be.

Grady Elder, City Water Department superintendent has had a crew of men cleaning the wells out and the results have been most gratifying said the Mayor.

While there is no doubt that this area needs some permanent source for water Slaton is in a better position to get water than most towns on the South Plains, said the Mayor and unless some most unusual situation arises Slaton will have plenty of water even in years when drouths comes.

Three - Fourths Of Cotton Crop Yet Remains To Be Gathered

"We Told You So"

Not long ago some one who was worried about the date when the first freeze would arrive, phoned the Slatonite and asked our weather expert as to when the first freeze could be expected.

On the 25th of October was the date set at first, but when the man on the telephone seemed terribly grieved the date was moved up for the first week in November, and this prediction was published in the Slatonite.

On Monday morning Oct. 31, at six thirty the phone rang at the home of the editor, A. M. Jackson, and Sam Phillips reported that the thermometer registered thirty degrees at his home and that the water in his chicken yard was frozen.

"You missed the big freeze one day," said Mr. Phillips, and the editor did not know whether he was getting blamed for missing one day on his prediction or getting credited with having almost hit the apple on the nose. He assumed that he was being credited with being one of the best weather men in the business and has been suffering from a swollen head ever since.

District Divided Into Two Halves; Slaton Still In South Half

Representatives from ten out of the eleven towns in District 4-A met at a district basketball meet Monday night, October 17 in Levelland.

The towns represented were Seagraves, O'Donnell, Post, Sundown, Levelland, Morton, Littlefield, Sudan, Muleshoe, and Slaton. Tahoka was not present.

Slaton was represented by P. L. Vardy, superintendent, J. H. Freeland, principal, Coach Clarence Tillery, and Coach Bill Barnett.

Vardy was elected chairman of the district and Freeland was elected secretary.

The district was divided into two halves placing Slaton in the South half with Post, O'Donnell, Seagraves, and Tahoka. It was voted by the South half to hold a double round robin which will give Slaton eight conference games.

The winner of the South half is to be decided Saturday, February 11, following which the top two teams from this half will meet the top two in the North half in a play off tournament Friday and Saturday, February 17 and 18. The winner of the playoffs will be to represent District 4-A at the regional tournament to be held later in the month.

Later this month or in early November the South half will hold a meeting to arrange the conference schedule. Games will be played on Tuesday and Friday nights of each week.

Slaton has entered one tournament at Seagraves, January 19, 20, and 21. Four non-conference games have also been scheduled and are as follows:

Tuesday, Nov. 29 — A and B teams at Levelland.

Friday, Dec. 2—Boys and girls teams at Littlefield.

Tuesday, Dec. 6—A and B teams —Levelland here.

Friday, Dec. 9—Boys and girls teams — Littlefield here. — The Tiger's Cage.

Juniors Split Twin Bill With Tahoka

Slaton's junior football teams split a "double header" Tuesday night with two junior teams from Tahoka Junior High School, while the girls' basketball team won its first game of the season from Wilson.

The 6th and 7th grades from Slaton lost to Tahoka's 6th and 7th by a score of 33-0. The eighth grade team nosed out the visiting team by a score of 25-14. The basketball team were 24-20 victors over a visiting Wilson team.

Mrs. W. L. Holloman visited her daughter Joy last week end in Albuquerque where she is attending the University of New Mexico. Joy is a pharmacy major.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hestand spent several days this week visiting their daughters Miss Jo Hestand at Breckenridge and Mrs. Van Stokes in Dallas.

It has been reported that approximately one-fourth of the cotton crop in this area has been gathered and brought in to be ginned. This is far below that gathered at this time last year when one-third of the crops had been brought in. No estimate has been made thus far as to how long it will be before the entire crop is harvested, although George Braswell at the West Texas Cottonoil Co. suggested that if the labor situation is not bettered it might be April before the crop is completed.

H. T. Swanner, vice president of the Citizens State Bank, reported that the bank's deposits are lagging behind last year's at this time by about thirty days due to the wet season and the slowness of gathering crops. However, Monday deposits started on an incline with a $60,000 jump. About $200,000 worth of cotton commodity credit notes have been taken in by the bank, and $50,000 in grain commodity credit notes.

A bumper cotton crop over the area may be reduced several thousand bales if the expected sub-freezing temperatures are reached, K. N. Clapp, Lubbock cotton man, indicated in his area cotton forecast Saturday.

Clapp estimated the South Plains cotton crop at 1,523,000 bales if a freeze did not come before the "normal" freeze date of about November 10. He said a freeze the second week of November would reduce his estimate by 40,000 to 70,000 bales, and that an earlier freeze would reduce the total figure even further.

As a result of the labor shortage in cotton fields, many farmers will resort to mechanical means of picking the cotton; however it will probably be three weeks before enough cotton foliage has fallen off to permit the use of the picking machines.

Slaton Man Is Hurt In Auto Accident

One Slaton man, Lewis Thomas (Chick) Garland, and a Reese Air Force sergeant, T/Sgt. Roy Dixon, were injured about 6 a. m. Tuesday on the west limits of Slaton when the two cars were in collision on a curve of the Slaton-Lubbock highway.

Garland, a 61 year old Slaton grocer, was treated at Mercy hospital for head injuries and bruises. His condition, after being released from the hospital Wednesday morning, was said to be beyond danger; however he will have to remain in bed for several days.

Sergeant Dixon, 33, was taken to the base hospital for treatment of injuries that were described as merely "painful." His condition was termed satisfactory.

Mrs. Garland explained that her husband was driving toward Lubbock and the sergeant toward Slaton. Dixon told investigators of the state highway patrol and of the sheriff's office here that he was blinded by the lights of a third car, which did not stop after the mishap.

Mayor and Mrs. L. B. Wootton and Mrs. Wootton's sister Miss Cora Sealy spent Sunday in Snyder where they were visiting with N. J. Sealy.

Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Sanders and daughters of Morton spent Sunday with Mrs. Sanders' parents Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Teague.

THIS WEEK'S SMILES

Imperfect Verdict
At a murder trial in Ohio last year the jury returned a verdict of not guilty despite the fact that the prosecuting attorney had proved beyond a doubt that the defendant was guilty.

For several seconds after the verdict was read everyone in court was too stunned to say anything. Then finally the judge found his voice.

"Mr. Foreman," he said sternly. "What ever made the jury think the defendant was not guilty?"

"Insanity, Your Honor?" answered the foreman.

"Insanity," exclaimed the judge. "Really, Mr. Foreman, not all twelve of you."

Having crossed the "front" safely, the U.N. observers at last encounter the unit holding this part of the line against Indians. They check its positions and hear its complaint that Indians are reinforcing positions on their side of the mountainous "cease-fire" line.

Inspections completed, observers find food and rest in tent of Indian commander, over-towered by mountains which lead into the Himalayas. They now know the positions of units on both sides and can start to write their reports to the U.N. Commission which is mediating the Kashmir conflict.

Foot, Mouth Disease

As one of the world's most contagious and devastating maladies foot-and-mouth disease is a serious threat to the livestock and food resources of all nations. It attacks mainly cattle, swine, sheep and goats, but also affects other cloven-footed animals. Except for nine outbreaks of limited duration, the United States successfully has maintained its freedom from this foreign plague. It has done so largely through preventive measures applied by the bureau of animal industry.

Modern Nurse

Before 1873, nurses kept no records of treatment and medication administered in their wards. No charts of patients' conditions were kept other than the doctors' notes. With the development of modern medicine, the professional nurse of today has become a specialist requiring years of education before she is qualified for her highly technical responsibilities.

Hadacol Now Nation's Best Selling Tonic

Sale of Hadacol, which is made with five of nature's B vitamins and four important minerals, has spread from a small section of Louisiana to more than 20 states, and is now the nation's largest selling tonic.

Dudley J. LeBlanc, President and founder of the LeBlanc Corp., Lafayette, La., makers of Hadacol, has announced plans to expand the sales of Hadacol to the entire nation within the next year.

Dudley J. LeBlanc

Mr. LeBlanc is directing the south's largest advertising campaign for Hadacol and newspapers, especially weekly newspapers, are playing an important part in this effort.

The LeBlanc Corp. is using every weekly and daily newspaper in Louisiana, Arkansas, Mississippi, Texas, Oklahoma, Tennessee and Alabama this week to tell the story of how Hadacol put the Chief of Detectives of Hot Springs, Ark., back on the job after all else failed. He had suffered from a deficiency of B vitamins and certain minerals, which Hadacol contains.

"You must use the newspapers, daily and weekly, if you want to bring your message to the grass roots of America, the towns and wonderful rural areas," said Mr. LeBlanc.

Besides being founder and President of LeBlanc Corp., Mr. LeBlanc has many other business interests, and is President Pro-tem of the Louisiana state senate. He is well known for his work for pensions for old folks and other social advances.

District 4-A South conference finally went into a two-way tie last week end with Slaton's convincing victory over O'Donnell's Eagles. Now local football followers await the November 11 game at Post, a game that will decide who will be South half champion.

While Slaton was winning 31-0, the Antelopes from Post were losing to Levelland's Lobos by a close score of 21-12. The Lobos are currently resting in third place, but that fact is probably not an indication as to which half of the conference is the strongest. The win by Levelland did add prestige to the 4-A (North), however. The coaches know that Slaton will have its hands full when they tackle the Post aggregation. But there may be some optimism here and there, because most folks figure that the Tigers will be all geared up to throw the Antelopes out of the running. Anyway, the annual game is, as we hear, something to witness. There's no telling who will win.

This week the Tigers are resting for the crucial game next week. They have been concentrating on offensive plays this week and next week they will work on defensive plays.

Tonight the team will journey to Post to see the Antelopes in action there against the powerful Crosbyton Chiefs of District 3-A.

—o—

The South half is fairly quiet this week end. Only Seagraves and Tahoka meet in conference play. Post goes out of the conference, and Slaton and O'Donnell have the week off. Both Seagraves and Tahoka will be seeking their first district win tonight in a game which will highlight Seagraves annual homecoming observance.

—o—

The Wilson Mustangs kept their perfect grid record in the District 4-B six-man football scramble last Friday night by barely beating Southland's Eagles 33-27. This is probably the lowest number of points that the Wilson team has scored all year. So far this season the team has gained a total of 247 points to the opponents 58, which is a good record for any team. This week Southland plays Flomont.

Given below is a list of Tiger scorers and the number of points that each man has acquired this season. The list is compiled through a total of eight games. Fullback Ed Willis leads the pack with a total of 36 points; Bob Lambert and Carl Lewis follow with 24 points each; Bobby Taylor has nine points after and one field goal for a grand total of 12 points; and Jerry Huckabay, Bob Thompson, and Cecil Bybee have gained six points each.

Careys Lose Race With Stork Thurs.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Carey lost the proverbial race with the stork early in the morning, October 27. Mr. and Mrs. Carey live several miles outside of Slaton, and while racing to Mercy hospital their 7 lb., 12 oz. boy was born before they reached their destination.

After arriving some minutes later at the Slaton hospital, 24 year old Mrs. Carey and the baby were assisted by the Sisters and Dr. John L. Cobb.

The Careys named their son Alvin Wayne, and they have one other child, a sixteen month old daughter named Linda. They reside near the Gordon community where Mr. Carey is engaged in farming.

Both the mother and baby are doing fine.

Had RHEUMATISM So BAD That He Had To Quit Working

Mr. Jerry Watkins, chief of detectives of the city of Hot Springs, Arkansas, suffered with rheumatism so much and the aches and pains were so terrible that he had to quit working in an effort to regain his health after he had tried everything which his friends recommended.

Detective Watkins is well known and his countless number of friends throughout the country will rejoice to know that he is now healthy, free of rheumatic aches and pains and now working hard.

"For several years," Mr. Watkins says, "I suffered from a rheumatic condition in the hip and leg. I was very nervous and finally developed migraine headaches. I tried all kinds of medicines but nothing seemed to do me any good. I seemed to be growing worse and worse and was finally advised to take a leave of absence from my work on the police force in an effort to recover my health."

"The pains in my head sometimes were unbearable. I suffered tortures and I was miserable. At night particularly I lay awake and could not sleep."

Mr. Watkins said that someone finally persuaded him to try HADACOL, and after taking the first bottle he said he could see an improvement in his general condition.

"On January 14th of this year," he said, "I felt so much better I decided to go back on the job. The examining doctor told me I was in perfect health. Now I am working from 8 to 12 hours daily and I am able to sleep as any normal person. I have taken six large size bottles of HADACOL and all my friends know I owe my good health to HADACOL."

Mr. Watkins is one of the many thousands of people who suffered from a deficiency of the B vitamins and the minerals that HADACOL contains and who, therefore, found relief in HADACOL.

It is a well-known scientific fact that the lack of only a small amount of the B vitamins and certain minerals in your system will cause certain bodily disorders such as nutritional neuritis, which causes the aches and pains commonly known as rheumatism, and there is no known cure for the ailment except the administration of the needed vitamins and minerals. This is why people who suffered for years and years never were able to obtain any relief until they took the vitamins and minerals the lack of which was causing the disorders.

HADACOL does not contain only one but has five of the B vitamins and four necessary minerals. It comes to you in liquid form so that it will be easily absorbed by the blood and, therefore, carried to the parts of the body which need them most.

So, it matters not where you live—no matter who you are—if you have tried all the medicines under the sun, you should be fair to yourself and give this wonderful preparation, HADACOL, a trial. And if your disease is caused by a lack of the B vitamins and minerals which HADACOL contains, then don't go on suffering—don't continue to make your life so miserable. Temporary relief for you is not enough. Take HADACOL.

Sold at all leading drugstores. Trial size only $1.25, but save money; buy the large family economy size, only $3.50. If your druggist does not handle HADACOL, order direct from The Le Blanc Corporation, Lafayette, La., and when the postman brings your package, just pay the amount plus the c.o.d. and postage. If you remit with the order we will pay the postage.

Then, if you don't feel perfectly satisfied after using HADACOL as directed, just return the empty carton and your money will be cheerfully refunded. Nothing could be fairer.—Adv.

Are YOU Going Thru CHANGE of LIFE?

causing you to suffer from HOT FLUSHES?
Does the functional "middle-age" period peculiar to women (38-52 yrs.) make you suffer from hot flushes, feel so nervous, high-strung, irritable, weak? Then try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms. It's famous for this!
Taken regularly—Pinkham's Compound helps build up resistance against such "middle-age" distress. It's what Doctors call a uterine sedative. It positively contains no opiates—no habit-forming drugs. Pinkham's Compound helps nature (you know what we mean). It's also a great stomachic tonic! Any drugstore.

What About Prices? . . .

Are prices going up or are they coming down? Should merchants stock up or wait a while? Most every one in the retail business has been losing sales because they do not have the kind and variety of merchandise that their customers are asking for.

Men in the ready-to-wear business say that repeat wholesale orders on merchandise are not being filled and that salesmen for the manufacturers tell them that the manufacturers are not making up clothing for open stock. Orders are being taken now on spring merchandise, when these orders are filled the factories will close down most of their operations.

John L. Lewis has started his yearly antics to have his fights with the coal dealers, some strikes have been settled but more will start and the unsettled battle between the manufacturers and the laborers is on again with the general public in the middle. Better figure on everything going to the moon. Coffee a dollar a pound, eggs a dollar or more a dozen, milk forty cents a quart and this advice free.

Its A Privilege To Live In Slaton . . .

Those of us who live in Slaton may believe that our world is in a mess and that we are on a flying ginney that rotates faster and faster, but it is probable that we are living a simple life compared to folks in the larger cities, particularly those where there is a large concentration of laborers and where strikes and continual bickering is going on.

We may have our sand storms, too much rain, not enough laborers and sinking spells in business but we do not have the super charged nerve strain that most folks must live under in the towns where the plants are closed down and in the towns where neurotics commit all kinds of gruesome crimes, where men and women jump off of tall buildings and where one cannot even for a minute of the day get more than a few feet away from some other human being or hundreds of other people who are charging the air with their frustrations and troubles. Let us appreciate our favors.

We Have Not Changed . . .

Some seventy years ago Robert Louis Stevenson wrote his essays and the logic of his thoughts is just as applicable now as it was then.

In an essay titled "An Apology for Idlers" he said: That is seem that to be classed as respectable, every one was at that time forced to enter into some lucrative profession and to labor therein with something not far short of enthusiasm, a cry for the opposite part, who are content with enough, and who like to look on and enjoy in the meanwhile, savored not a little of bravado.

Idleness so called, which does not consist of doing nothing, but in doing a great deal not recognized in the dogmatic formula, has as good a right to state its position as industry does.

It is admitted that those who refuse to enter into the handicap race for a few pennies is an insult to those who do. The plight of the one who enters the race is not hard to understand as he ploughs up the road. In his determination he passes the idler at the side of the road with a handkerchief laid over his face and a cool glass at his side.

It is a sore thing to have laboured and scaled the arduous hill top, and when it is done, find humanity indifferent to your achievements. Hence financiers have only superficial tolerance for those who know little of finance, literary persons despise the unlettered and people of all pursuits combine to disparage those who have none.

It is certain that much can be said for diligence but there is also something to be said against it and this is an apology for idlers.

It is surely beyond doubt that people should be a good deal idle in youth, for if a youth gets through school with all his wits about him he is lucky for if he has studied hard he has probably spent his effort and begins the world a bankrupt.

If you look back upon your own education I am sure it will not be the full vivid, instructive hours of truancy or idleness that you regret, you would rather cancel some lack-lustre periods between sleep and waking in class.

Extreme business, whether at school, at play or in industry, is a symptom of deficient vitality; and a faculty for idleness implies a catholic appetite and a strong sense of personal identity. There are a sort of dead-alive people about who are scarcely aware of living except in the exercise of some conventional occupation. Bring these fellows to the country, or put them aboard ship, and you will see that they pine for their desk or study. They have no curiosity and unless necessity lays about them with a stick they will even stand still. It is no use talking to such people, they cannot be idle, their nature is not generous enough, and they pass those hours in a sort of coma, which are not dedicated to furious mulling in the gold mill. It is not only the man himself who suffers but it is his wife, his children and his friends and quite often the man who has time to spare, though few coins to jingle, means more to the world than the high pressure millionaire.

What's Cooking For Tomorrow? . . .

It would seem that things are certainly going to pot if one takes the happenings of the day seriously. About a year ago the accusations of the man Chambers against some of the Government heads was the big noise in the newspapers and over the radio. It has taken nearly a year to try a flock of admitted Communists and the Russian man and the American woman who were arrested and charged with having secret papers stolen from the State Department has been shelved for the dim and distant future. A few of these scandals are finally settled but most of them seem to just fade out of the picture.

The big hullabaloo now going on about the Army, Navy and Air Force will soon be forgotten. What has happened to General Vaughn and the Five Percenters? Did those boys really do the things they were accused of doing or was the whole thing just hushed up and blown over.

Perhaps it is good for ones self respect, good for ones health and for the future of the world that there are places like Slaton, West Texas and the Good Old State of Texas. We may be rough, we may be sweaty and there are some crooks among us but at least there are not many of them where they can betray us to the world. Perhaps an honest man will get a chance some day.

Passport To Happiness . . .

We permit too many opportunities for happiness to slip by because we labor under two major delusions. One of these is that we shall be happy when—

- When we arrive at a certain destination;
- When we can be with a certain person;
- When our schooling is finished;
- When we get a better job;
- When we arrive at a certain income;
- When we are married;
- When the baby is born;
- When we recover from our illness;
- When our bills are paid;
- When we own a new car;
- When we move into a new home;
- When some disagreeable task is finished;
- When we are free from some encumbrance.

The second delusion is that we can buy a ticket, or pay admission, to happiness. We seem never to learn that, wherever we go, we take our happiness or unhappiness with us; and that whatever we do, it is how much of ourselves we put into the doing which influences our happiness—far more than what the outside world contributes.

The only way we can insure happiness is to train ourselves to be happy in spite of, not because of, what life does to us. When we succeed in doing this, we become wise and useful adults. — By Daniel Dunn.

Mississippi River

There probably has been no major investment made by the United States that is contributing so much to the development of the Mississippi valley and to Iowa as the system of locks and dams on the upper Mississippi river. It is now realized that when the government spent approximately $150,000,000 on the canalization of the Mississippi it made possible the utilization of a magnificent river which now is contributing to a central states prosperity that seems to have no bounds. There are 26 locks and dams.

Brightest Baseball Park

Briggs stadium, home of the Detroit Tigers, has become brightest-lighted major league baseball park, with 1,328 giant L-69 floodlights using 1500-watt lamps and 58 L-83 floodlights using 1000 watt lamps illuminating the field to a level of 200 foot candles. Eight steel towers holding the lights are anchored atop the stadium 120 feet above the field.

Animal Understanding

Many animals do understand words, and, to a degree, in the same way man does—through symbolism, according to Dr. Gustav Eckstein, associate professor of physiology in the college of medicine, University of Cincinnati, and noted author and expert on animal psychology.

Crotalaria is resistant to root-knot nematode, and this resistance is one of its big advantages as a soil-building crop. When grown in rotation with crops that are not resistant, crotalaria cuts down the nematode population and thereby reduces damage to the succeeding crop.

There are a few advantages in having cold weather but not many. The best I can think of is not having to cut the lawn, the slackening of hay fever and that women do not wear slacks or shorts out in the open on cold weather.

These mornings when I stop at the Post Office and am greeted by some red noses, shivering individual who says, "Isn't this a brisk, invigorating morning," I agree but I go my way mumbling that he or she, does not like the wind blowing up their legs any better than I do.

Gimme the birds singing, the bugs crawling, the sun shining hot, the baseball players playing and the sweat flowing and you can have your fur coats, long handled underwear, turkey dinners, chapped lips, runny noses and slippery sidewalks. I'm no eskimo and I don't care who knows it.

As an almost bald headed man I can sympathize with other men who are in my fix or a little worse off but I have often wondered how some of them would look if they had hair on their head. Personally I believe P. G. Meador looks better with his ears sticking out than he would if he had a lot of brush on his noggin. With his well polished cranium P. G. stands out in any crowd and I often notice well polished bald heads in a crowd when folks with hair are just people. Whether my head will shine like a light in the woods I don't know but there is nothing I can do about it.

It is just as easy now to pick out the wrong sizes in lingerie, the kind of ties that no man likes, the socks that won't fit anyone, then wonder what items that make ideal Christmas gifts. The stores are stocked to the ceilings right now with Christmas gift items and you'll never have a better opportunity than right now to pick out the items that you can be sure will not be appreciated.

Or in case you are a woman and wish to pick out the kind of gift you expect him to give you then by no means wait another second, go down and pick it out and tell him that you have found just what you want at a certain store. He won't go get it but you'll have a nearly two months to enjoy yourself and feel sure that he has.

Somewhere I saw that when a man says he understands women that what he means is that he hears well.

The way I have it figured out a woman would much prefer working for a month, six months or a year by hinting, suggesting and bringing up the shortcomings of some item in order to get a new one or get something that she does not have than to come right out and ask for whatever is on her mind. Such things give her something to work on like when a dog has fleas.

Now that the snuffle, cough and sneeze time of the year is here and when a lot of folks buy salves, sprays and stuff to rub on the chest it seems to me that if new developments in medicine are as good as one or two better magazines say the products are then the public should know about them. Of course the medical profession is too ethical to use the regular methods of advertising or direct methods to tell about the new drugs so it may take five or ten years for them to get into regular use but the secret is out, that is if the doctors who wrote the magazine articles know what they are talking about.

William Ellworth Craft, chief medical writer for a leading pharmaceutical manufacturer, writes in the November Mercury: Though the lowly cold is universally considered to be only a minor, annoying affliction, its cost in days lost from productive pursuits adds up to 100 million per year. The annual financial bill to the American people has been variously estimated at from one to three billion dollars. There is no need to count up the sleepless nights and clouded days, the racking coughs, the foggy brains; they are all too familiar to everyone.

This winter the story may be different. At the U. S. Naval Hospital, Great Lakes, Illinois, the Executive Officer, Captain John M. Brewster, Medical Corps, U. S. Navy, recently began a controlled study of the value of antihistaminic drugs in the treatment of the common cold. From his personal experience and the result of an earlier study, he has evolved the theory that the common colds began as an allergic reaction. He reasoned that, since the new drugs were effective against hay fever and perennial nasal congestion, they might also successfully combat the common cold. Acting on this theory, the doctor established clinics at three focal points of the Naval Station, exclusively for the study and treatment of colds. All personnel, including civilian employees and families of servicemen, were encouraged to report for treatment at the aries possible moment after the onset of a cold. From October to May, a total of 572 patients was treated, ranging from a child of six to a man of 67, and including both sexes. The results were nothing short of spectacular.

All signs and symptoms of cold promptly disappeared in 90 per cent of the patients who were given an antihistaminic drug within one hour after the cold first became evident. When treatment was delayed for two hours, colds were aborted in 87 per cent of the patients. In those who were not treated until six hours after their colds had taken hold, antihistaminic drugs brought relief to 74 per cent. Even when the drug was not given until eleven or twelve hours, colds were promptly knocked out.

As a criterion with which to compare the effectiveness of the antihistaminic drugs in this group of people, every sixth patient was given a combination of two other drugs, codeine and papaverine, a scheme of medication which has generally been accepted by doctors as the preferred medical treatment for the common cold. Immediate relief of colds in this group ranged from only 42 per cent among patients who received treatment within one hour, down to 7 per cent of those who were first treated twelve hours after development of a cold. No prompt cures were obtained among persons who received this medication more than 24 hours after the onset of their colds.

Resistant to 2,4-D
Sweet corn and asparagus are the only two crops tolerant enough of 2,4-D to allow its use as a weed control agent. Most other vegetables are injured by the concentrations of 2,4-D necessary to kill the weeds, according to Cornell's vegetable crops department.

Tung Nuts
Tung nut is the source of the valuable tung oil which is used as the base of most fine varnishes and paints. Most of the imported oil comes from China where it is customary to crush and press the nuts as soon as they are picked from the tung tree.

Your Home
By Frances Ainsworth

Have you visited Williamsburg, Virginia, and seen all the beautiful old Colonial houses, now restored to their original condition? We did this summer, and it was quite an experience! I was particularly taken with the really gorgeous wall colorings in the various buildings. In fact, in the old Governor's Palace, I found exactly the shade I've been wanting for my living room. So I asked if it were possible to obtain these shades in paints; and was elated to find out that many of these magnificent colorings are reproduced in Pittsburgh Wallhide Paints.

Called "Historic Wall Paints," the group consists of twelve rich colors—each of which may be "broken down" into three other shades by adding white, giving any shade the home-maker wishes. Every paint bears the Hallmark of the Williamsburg Restoration, Inc. along with a phrase stating that each color exactly matches those used in the restoration of Colonial Williamsburg. The shade I chose is called "Palace Ballroom Blue." Then there's the beautiful Raleigh Tavern Green—the cheerful Wythe House Yellow, Pitt-Dixon Rose, Powell-Hallam Blue—and many more!

I know that you, too, will be glad to know that these colors are available for use in home decorating. They're simply lovely—and just as smart in modern homes as they were in the old Colonial homes of yesterday!

THE SLATON SLATONITE

Slaton Women Give Their Favorite Tested Recipes

With the little cold spree which we have been having, we decided that a nice winter recipe was in order; so Mrs. Chester Williams came to our rescue with an unusual oatmeal cookie recipe which she says is simple, and served with hot chocolate or coffee or at any informal get-together.

The ingredients call for:

- 3/4 cup shortening
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 eggs
- 2 cups flour
- 1 teaspoon soda
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 2 cups dry oats
- 2 cups raisins
- 1 cup nuts
- 1 cup shredded coconut
- 4 tablespoons sour milk
- dash of salt

There is no particular way of mixing this recipe. Just cream the shortening with the sugar, add the eggs and milk, then mix in the dry ingredients. As Mrs. Williams says, "These cookies are so simple to mix that you just can't have a failure."

For baking, drop small amounts of the batter from spoon onto a greased cookie sheet and bake for about ten minutes in a moderate oven. Mrs. Williams tells us that the recipe makes about four dozen cookies. When cooking, the cookies should not be crowded too much in the pan as they are much larger after baked.

Another nice thing about this particular cookie recipe is that there is enough moisture in them from the raisins and coconut that they will keep nicely in a tight place or tight cookie jar for several days, however for fewer cookies just cut the recipe in half.

This recipe is one that Mrs. Williams has in her own personal recipe file. She couldn't remember exactly where she got it, but she feels sure it must have been from her mother as she used to make oatmeal cookies quite frequently.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Williams and their "almost" two year old son live at 655 South Eleventh St. here in Slaton.

Home Town Builder!

From groceries to gasoline. For the past two years Mr. H. G. Schuette has been running the Schuette Service Conoco Station. Prior to that time, he had spent seven and a half years in the grocery business.

"I don't like to brag," says Mr. Schuette, "I simply run my station and I appreciate the business from my customers. But as for soliciting for customers and bragging about having the best service station in town, I just don't do it," he explained. "I don't like to talk people into anything."

The Schuette Station specializes in wheel balancing, batteries, tires, wash and lubrication jobs; and he handles all kinds of oils. If it's accessories you want on your car, the people at the Schuette establishment will be glad to help you. They will install heaters, spot lights, fit your car for seat covers, etc.

Besides the general stock carried by filling station operators, Mr. Schuette handles tires for automobiles, trucks and tractors. Special interest to farmers will be the special price which Mr. Schuette is now carrying on tractor tires. From now on until their present stock in tractor tires has exhausted, which will be about forty or fifty sets more, you will be able to buy "Two for the Price of One." The Fisk Tire and Rubber Company has made it possible for them to have this bargain in first grade tires. The special offer will include tractor tires in the following sizes:

Other full-time employees at the Schuette Service Station besides the owner are Tony Angerer and Alfred Reissig. The station is located on the Lubbock highway at 235 North Ninth, and Mr. Schuette resides at 510 West Lynn.

"Task Force" Gives Story Of Naval Aviation; Comes To Slaton Nov. 6

"Task Force," one of Warner Bros.' greatest productions of the post-war period, has been booked by the management of the Slaton Theatre and will begin its engagement here on Sunday, Nov. 6th.

Starring Gary Cooper, the long-heralded "Task Force" is the thrilling story of naval aviation with emphasis on the aircraft carriers which helped achieve the recent victory in the Pacific and over which there is much controversy in defense circles even today.

A tender love story forms a great part of the film as Jane Wyatt, sweetheart and then wife of the stalwart but impetuous Lt. Scott, waits at Pearl Harbor for him to return from a cruise on the famed Enterprise when the Japs strike. Scott had earlier been one of the original intrepid pilots on the Langley, a small, reconvered standard ship, the Navy's first carrier.

How he goes on, fighting first apathy on the part of some Congressmen to the use of the carrier as an offensive weapon, and later as skipper of one of the Navy's greatest carriers fighting against the enemy, forms the exciting subject matter of the film's background. In the climactic scenes the picture employs Technicolor to depict the graphic action.

with Jane Wyatt, Wayne Morris, Walter Brennan. Color sequences by TECHNICOLOR.

West Texas Roundup

Andrews is experiencing a building boom as three new projects are started, with two others in the process of being completed.

Cotton ginnings at the Farmers Co-op gin up to Thursday totaled 121 bales.

Up until Thursday, (Oct. 20) at noon a little over 1500 bales had been ginned in Petersburg.

Seats for the school auditorium arrived the first of the week and the installation work was completed Wednesday.

A permanent United States Army and Air Force recruiting office opened Saturday in offices on the fourth floor of the County Court House.

The Lion Oil Company No. 1 Masten, three-quarters of a mile southwest of the nearest producers from the San Andres on the south side of the field in central Cochran County, drilling at 5,010 feet drilled with oil and blew out the top Thursday.

A survey will likely be completed during the next week, but already the well has shown for an important extension to that producing area.

What appears to be a new oil well in the Pennsylvania reef formation, seems to be in process of bringing in as a producer about ten miles a bit south east of Brownfield, and fairly close to the Lamessa highway.

Work will begin immediately on the new high school to be built on the school property at Broadway and South D Streets, according to C. G. Griffith, president of the school board.

The building will be 374 feet long and will contain about 50,000 square feet of floor space.

Clearing of lots immediately to the east of Hawkins Oldsmobile Company and Wallace Theatre was begun yesterday in preparation for construction of sanitary facilities for a migratory labor camp.

With the pouring of the last batch of concrete last Thursday and all the materials on hand, with the exception of one pump, the city's new water storage reservoir is expected to be completed not later than the middle of November.
