Lions Whip League-Leading Oilers Sunday, 7-4 On Earsleys Double

A sixth inning double by Catcher Melvin Earsley with a mate on base gave the Slaton Lions a 7-4 win over league leading Seagraves last Sunday afternoon at Lions Park.

Jack Cornell scattered eight Oilers hits to take the win, while Spinks of Seagraves was charged with the loss. Seagraves jumped to a 1-0 lead in the second inning, but Slaton rallied in the bottom of the third frame to knock a cross four runs. The Oilers came back with three in the top of the sixth to tie the count at 4-4.

The Lions moved ahead for keeps in the last of the sixth on Roy Kahlich's single and the double by Earsley. They added another pair in the seventh for good measure.

The game was played under lights in the seventh inning. Alton Perry raced home for Slaton, but was called out by Plate Umpire Otis Gunter. While an argument raged over the decision, Cornell circled the bases from the initial sack and scored. Manager Patsy Gentry of Seagraves claimed time had been called, and Cornell could not score.

Jay Gray, Earsley, Perry, and Cornell collaborated to collect eight of Slaton's hits to lead the streakwork for the winners. Charles Galey and Nutt each had a pair of safeties for the losers.

Thursday night the Lions lost ground in the Oil Belt race by suffering a 115 defeat at the hands of Sundown's Oilers. Slaton took a 3-2 lead in the first inning, but Sundown forged ahead with two runs in the second frame and were never threatened after that.

The Lions have a busy week ahead. Thursday, they play host to Levelland, and Sundown comes to town Friday. Sunday, Denver City invades Lions park for a contest with the Slaton crew.

Newcomers Must Have Vaccination

When school starting Sept. 4, it is time for new students to get the required vaccination against small pox. Even if the child has had a vaccination when he was small, he should receive a booster shot. If vaccinations are received now, the place will heal before school starts. It takes from one to two weeks for the vaccinations to take effect. The school law requires every child who is just beginning school to have a certificate from a physician showing that he has been vaccinated.

Contract Is Let Building Starts On Newest Store

Announcement was made this week that Slaton is to have another new business building, when the management of the Home Furniture Company broke ground for their new $31,000 building at the corner of S. 9th and W. Lubbock streets.

The building, to be constructed of Hadite tile walls, with solid slab cement floor covered in asphalt tile, will have two fronts, a forty foot front facing on West Lubbock street and a fifty foot front facing on South 9th. The single story building will have about 6500 square feet of floor space. The contract for the building was let to Mr. Charlie Lewis, general contractor of Slaton.

In commenting on the new building, Mr. Tomlinson said, "We will be proud as punch to get into the new, better lighted, and cleaner surroundings, where we can more effectively display a broader line of both case goods and upholstered furniture, but we are not forgetting that it is the friendship and patronage of the local people that has made this fine new building possible and we will continue to make every effort to merit their friendship and confidence. In fact, we will renew our pledge to the people of the Slaton trade area that we will give them the best value for their money it is possible for us to get. We will continue to make satisfactory adjustments where they are necessary and try always to make our service better."

"We believe in the future of Slaton. We feel there isn't a better town or better people anywhere than right here in Slaton. With that in mind we are using all materials and labor that is possible to get right here at home."

"We, of course, plan a formal opening but it is far too early to set a date for that yet."

The business activities of the Home Furniture Company will not be broadened particularly, according to Mr. Tomlinson. They will continue to offer a wide selection of living room, bedroom, and dining room furniture with the many items that go with these groupings. Floor covering will continue to receive a great deal of attention, as will appliances.

The building is expected to be ready for occupancy in about ninety days.

REST FOR THE WARRIOR—During a lull in the bitter exchange of blood and bullets for Korean ground, an exhausted U. S. soldier stretches out on the muddy battlefield upon a makeshift mattress of straw. He'll sleep, with rifle ready for instant use, until the next call to combat against the relentless armored foe.

Cotton Classing School Aug. 14

Farmers have only ten more days to file their applications for free government classing and market news services, announces Leil O. Buchanan.

The service is free to all farmers who belong to organized cotton improvement groups under the Smith-Doxey Act. Applications should be mailed to your local County Agent or to Mr. Buchanan, 1701 Ave. E, Lubbock.

The dates for the second Annual Farmers' Cotton Classing School are August 14 through August 25 at the Government Classing Office. The classes will be held daily from 9:00 a. m. to 3:00 p. m.

Purpose of the school is to better acquaint farmers with the classification of cotton as well as the marketing of their product.

Spraying Pays Off Polio Cases Cease Weather A Factor

There have been no polio cases reported in Slaton since July 10, when little Consuela Cardenas was attacked by the disease.

The sudden decrease and halt in the polio cases reported can be credited to the spraying of streets and alleys by the city to get rid of flies and other insects that might help spread the paralyzing attacker. Some medical men believe that cool weather helps cut down the disease, so the cool weather Slaton has been having the past few weeks may have helped to cut down on the cases of polio in this area.

Santa Fe Box Is Late Mail Deposit

In order to get your letter off on the 8:00 train in the morning, it must be in the post office by 7:30, announces Postmaster Scudder. The letter is then post marked on the train rather than at the post office.

The evening train at 7:20 does the same thing. If you cannot get your letter to the post office by 6:30 to go out on the evening train, take it to the Santa Fe box any time before the train gets in, and it will be picked up and put on the train just like the mail from the post office.

Strong Vote Expected On Election To Be Held Tomorrow, August 5th

H-Bomb Radiation Can Be Deflected By Shadows, Smog

We have seen pictures and heard about the results of an atomic bomb explosion, but what about the new hydrogen bomb? It has been said it will cause much more damage than even the atomic bomb did.

According to a speech made by Dr. Robert F. Bacher, California Institute of Technology, at Town Hall, Los Angeles, on March 27, 1950, here is what we can expect from a hydrogen bomb.

It is commonly thought that the hydrogen bomb will be 1,000 times more powerful than the atomic bomb. This means that it would be equivalent to an explosion of 20,000,000 tons of TNT.

"Now it happens that the radius of damage from a big explosion increases as the cube root of the energy is released. With a bomb a thousand times more powerful than the Hiroshima bomb, the radius of damage will be 10 times greater. Since the radius for all-most complete destruction from blast was approximately 1 mile in Hiroshima, the corresponding radius for a hydrogen bomb 1,000 times as large would be approximately ten miles.

Such a bomb would be sufficiently great to cause almost complete destruction of any metropolitan area known today. In Los Angeles, for example, a circle of 10 miles' radius would cover most of the city. Outlying communities would not be included but would still suffer damage."

Where people were exposed to the light of an atomic bomb explosion, they were burned. When a hydrogen bomb explodes, the effects will be much greater and will probably extend to a greater area.

Flash burns from an H-bomb can be prevented if the bomb explodes out of view and shadows or smog are around to absorb part of the radiation.

"Atomic bombs, and hydrogen bombs as well, may be expected to release neutrons and penetrating gamma radiation. These particles and rays, however, are absorbed fairly easily in air and will not have an appreciably greater radius of action for a hydrogen bomb than for an ordinary atomic bomb."

It is not known exactly what materials would become radioactive after an H-bomb explosion, but the elements in many things, such as the sky and the sea would render the radioactive waves harmless.

Exactly what damage an H-bomb would do is not known, it is only guessed, but the weapon though extremely dangerous, is not unconquerable.

Judge Smith Sells Black-eyed Peas To Lub. Cannery

Judge Smith, who lives on the Lubbock highway, is gathering his crop of black-eyed peas now. He has forty acres of dry land and forty acres of irrigated land on which he has planted the peas.

Last spring, he contracted the peas to a canning company in Lubbock.

It is estimated that his crop may yield 5,000 pounds per acre.

Mr. J. H. Brewer is the only other farmer around Slaton who is growing the peas.

Slaton Businessmen Guests Of Theatre

Slaton businessmen, members of the Rotary Club and the Lions Club, and their wives were guests of the Slaton Theatre Thursday afternoon at the first South Plains' showing of the latest MGM production, "Stars In My Crown."

An original Sunday Evening Post story, the movie features Joel McCrea, Ellen Drew, and Dean Stockwell in title roles. The story concerns a two-fisted parson whose action spoke louder than guns.

McCrea portrays the parson, a Civil War cavalryman turned preacher, who brings law and order to a small Southern community.

"Stars In My Crown" comes to the Slaton Theatre this coming Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Tudor have returned from Ruidoso, N. M., where they spent a week visiting with Mr. Tudor's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Tudor.

Considerable activity concerning the election to be held tomorrow, Saturday, August 5, has been demonstrated in Slaton by the local organization in favor of keeping the county dry, with parades, letters and other means of publicity.

Voting by precincts will take place at the City Hall in the same manner as the recent Democratic primary election was held with duplicate numbers on each ballot.

Some votes were mutilated in the last election because some of the voters did not seem to understand how to mark the ballots. The ballot will show two lines one "For" legalizing the sale of liquor and one "Against" legalizing the sale of liquor. Voters should mark through the proposition they are not in favor of and leave the one which they wish to vote for; it is also important that the new arrangements of the ballots be carefully marked. After marking the ballot each voter should write his or her name on the back of the small perforated square in the left hand corner. The name should be written so that the full name is written within the limits of the small square. Two boxes are provided for depositing the two different parts of the ballot, one for the small square and the other for the part that has been marked "For" or "Against."

To call attention to that is important that every one take advantage of his, or her, privilege to vote should not be necessary in the face of world conditions and the danger that faces free people to decide questions that affect their welfare, liberty and actions. There should be the biggest vote tallied on this election that has ever been on this question in the county.

Liquor Violations Arrests Increase

Lately there has been an increase in liquor law violations that have been reported, according to police chief Ward. Last week end, three liquor law violations were brought to the attention of the Liquor Control Board.

Another Negro, Herman King, pleaded not guilty to charges of liquor possession in his home. His bond was set at $500.

Ruebin Williams was arrested for driving a pick-up truck which contained liquor. He had not been charged.

Other cases filed with the city court were one simple assault, one drunk, five traffic cases, and one plumbing violation.

Weeds On Vacant Lots, Dirty Alleys Extract From City's Appearance

Hear many slogans these days that declare "cleanest city," and "most beautiful city," and we are not looking for a better Slaton, we did wonder what people here would do to improve the city's appearance if we were given to them.

The question of the week "ask what do you think can be done to improve the appearance of Slaton." The following answers were given.

Bill Campbell, 210 S. 16th, has a rose garden in the park. Campbell was one of only two who suggested flowers for the city when asked for their ideas regarding Slaton.

C. Odum, who lives at Lubbock, also suggested flowers, but she thought it would be nice to plant them in planters on Texas Ave. between Slatonite and the train tracks to settle for either flowers on the boulevard.

W. H. L. suggested, "If everyone beautify his own premises around his lawn, the city will be much better."

There is no doubt that vacant lots in most cities are an eyesore. Owners should be required to keep them as clean as possible, for health reasons if for none other. Perhaps the city should cut the weeds in alleys occasionally. The alleys should not be allowed to become dump grounds full of rubbish and weeds.

Of course, flowers and trees can add more to a city than anything else. People just like to come to a city if it has a beautiful approach. Wouldn't it be nice if flowers and grass could be planted on all the many boulevards in the city. Is there something you personally can do to help make Slaton a more attractive place to live?

Adams thinks that the alleys should be cleaned and vacant lots should be kept up their property would keep up the alleys.

Pettigrew, 250 W. Adams, remodel her home and is planning to have a flower garden around her own house.

Wilson, 425 W. Lynn, remodel her home and is planning to have a flower garden around her own house.

Contending Earnestly for the Faith

Although God and his word remain the same, there have been some radical changes in religious practices in the last few centuries. One thing that has experienced the incredible change is the way God saves alien sinners who were penitent believers guidance of apostles and God's pure word, alien sinners who were penitent believers were baptized (buried in water, Rom. 6:4) to be saved from their sins (Mk. 16:16; Acts 2:38; Acts 8:36-39; Acts 10:48; I Pet. 2:21). In the sixth century the change was to a semi dry cleaning: sprinkling water on the head of the candidate, but in this century the change is to dry cleaning exclusively. No baptism in water is necessary now regardless of the primitive way or how the Bible reads.

We must remember that this drastic change was not made or even allowed by God but by mere man. Authority for such practice cannot be found in His word. Rejecting baptism in water, judge yourselves, is departing from the faith. It is beyond any sound question unfaithfulness to God.

The church invites you to faithful worship.

What They Write-

Mr. Link Robinson, 519 Lindsey is the most content and satisfied man in Newport, Ky. In fact, he says there isn't a thing in the world that can irritate or upset him now that he is on the HADACOL band wagon. If there ever was a man who thought HADACOL is the most wonderful thing in the world, it is Link Robinson, since he learned that his system lacked Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron, and Niacin.

Here is what Mr. Robinson has to say about HADACOL, which is now supplying liberal quantities of these essential elements: "I've been a steel worker for over twenty years. When you are a steel worker, you have to do plenty of good, hard work, and you need lots of good, substantial food. But when a stomach is in as bad a shape as mine was . . . I couldn't eat, I had gas pains, stomach bloating and nervousness well, I just couldn't eat the proper foods I needed. My boss told me about HADACOL and I started taking it immediately. After the second bottle I could tell a definite improvement. Now I can eat the foods I need to eat to really be on the job. In fact, I can eat anything I want to. I am not nervous anymore, either. Best of all, I haven't got those terrific gas pains and no more stomach bloating. HADACOL is the best ever. I recommend HADACOL to everyone."

FAIREY TALES

By Norma Fairey

Well I heard about some remodeling the other day. Someone told me that the W. T. Cherry's have enclosed their front porch in knotty pine. The same birds told me that Mrs. Cherry and the two boys did most of the work, but Mr. Cherry did an outstanding job as foreman of the project. The porch now has two big picture windows and leather upholstered furniture.

Now I think the Cherry family had the right idea concerning big front porches. A large, screened-in porch is ideal in cities where it is hot or warm most of the year, but in West Texas, where the summers come late and the winters come early, an enclosed porch is much more practical. Now the Cherry's can enjoy their porch more months out of the year.

There is something about knotty pine that is homey and American, and I really like it. Pardon me but I just can't get away from the new Fall fashions. The thing that pleases me most right now is the fact that calf is going to be the most important shoe this year... and not just calf, but black calf. Black is my favorite color for shoes, and I've been feeling mighty low because everyone else has been wearing brown shoes in the cooler months.

It seems you can go the limit on decorative clothes this year. Even hose will have rhinestone trim. Dresses and shoes will be more decorative this year than last year too. Hats will be small and simple to tone down the ornateness of the rest of milady's wardrobe. Toques and beret shapes are prominent in the Lilly Dache collections for Fall.

It's too bad that every city cannot afford a fashion show. You can tell so much more about new creations when you can see them in person than when you can merely read about them.

College fashions in themselves are so varied that most large department stores hire college coeds during the late summer shopping season to advise new students on what they should take away in school. Usually, there are representatives of the large universities and the smaller, well-known girls' schools. These advisors are an invaluable help to the new college girl.

And, more and more, stores are beginning to emphasize styles in children's clothes. There was a time when only the women were interested in styles, but now every age is represented in the fashion parade.

Completes Course In Meat Cutting

Pfc. Jerry D. Holt, 105 North 4th St., Slaton, Texas, Service Battery, National Guard, Lubbock, Texas, has completed an eight-week course for Army Meat-Cutters at Food Service School, Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

Army Meat-cutters learn exactly where to plunge a boning knife to remove every bone and leave no ragged edges on roasts or chops.

Students have several days training on each job in a Central Meat-cutting plant. Here they turn out pan-ready meat for a whole Army Post.

Army instructors teach them how to trim fat, then render and whip it into fluffy white shortening to use in Army pastry bakeries.

Meat-cutting is one of the specialist phases of Food Service career program by which competent soldiers can earn promotions up to the grade of warrant officer.

Slaton Women Give Their Favorite Tested Recipes

We've been talking a lot lately about summer dishes, but now that Fall is near at hand, maybe we had better start thinking about some good hot foods.

Mrs. R. L. Smith, who has a family of men to cook for, likes to prepare one-dish meals. The following recipe has been tried and heartily approved by her family, which affectionately dubbed the casserole, "Drooling Dish."

Here are the ingredients:
1/2 lb. pork, which has been ground
2 lbs. beef, which has been ground. (Do not get the ready-ground kind.)
2 eggs
1 cup sweet milk
1 cup Post Toasties, or some other corn flakes.
4 large peppers
4 potatoes

grated cheese to sprinkle over top.

To the ground meat, add the two eggs, cup of milk, and cup of corn flakes. Then season to your taste with salt, pepper, bayleaf, and any other seasoning you desire. Cut the tops from four peppers and core the seeds. Place in salt water and par boil until the water begins to turn a green color. Remove from heat and stuff with the meat mixture. Place in a baking dish; lay four potatoes which have been quartered lengthwise over the top, and add about one-fourth cup water. Cook for about two hours over a low flame. When done, sprinkle cheese over top and place in oven to brown. Take out and serve. Makes four generous servings.

Mrs. Smith usually serves hot rolls with this dish.

PROHIBITION IN LUBBOCK
.. It's Phony

WE, the undersigned citizens and business men of Lubbock, are confident the time has come to end a long era of a phony, make-believe prohibition that has served only to produce an ever growing gang of bootleggers and the crime and lawlessness that they breed.

An opportunity knocks on the door of Lubbock and Lubbock County in the election Saturday, August 5, to rid our community of its shocking and deplorable conditions—shameful conditions for which prohibition and bootleggers must take the blame.

There is only one issue in the coming election—it's simply LEGAL CONTROL vs. NO CONTROL.

Alcoholic beverages are here now! But they are underground—behind a despicable iron curtain. We want them brought out into the open where they can be WATCHED... where they can be CONTROLLED... and where they can be REGULATED. That is the LEGAL way... that is the common sense way... that is the decent way... and above all, that is the American way.

Therefore, we urge every voter who is sincerely concerned with the welfare of Lubbock and Lubbock County, to join us in bringing about repeal of a prohibition that has failed to work and never will work!

Ticks of nearly all important species can be controlled with toxaphene sprays. These parasites are among the most difficult to control of all livestock pests. Toxaphene will protect animals from infestation by ticks for two to three weeks or longer.

Theory About Sun
Some thought has been given as to what goes on to keep the sun an eternal ball of fire. The theory has been advanced that heat of the sun is caused by a cycle of atomic fission reactions leading from one stage to another until it returns to its original stage and starts all over again.

YOUR SECRET WEAPON... IS YOUR NEW SECRET BALLOT

Yes, the voters of Lubbock County . . . in fact, every voter in Texas has a SECRET WEAPON. That SECRET WEAPON is the New Secret ballot. The State designed it that way and the State will make it stick.

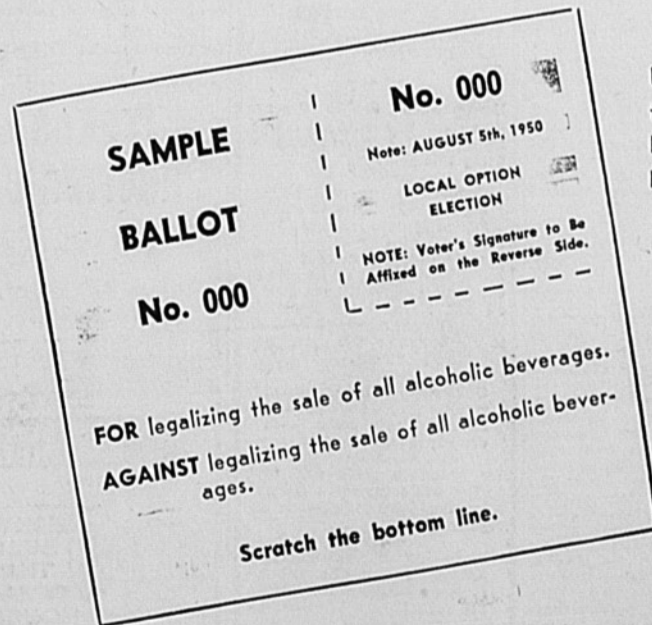

So when the voters of Lubbock County go to the polls Saturday and use that SECRET WEAPON to rid the County of a long era of make-believe prohibition, they can do it with supreme confidence and the guarantee of the State that only themselves and their conscience know how they voted. It is the one secret that will be kept.

As provided by the new SECRET BALLOT law, voting is done in this way:

- 1—The voter presents himself with poll tax or exemption certificate at the proper polling place in the regular manner.
- 2—The voter has the right to select the ballot from any part of the stack—top, bottom or middle—scrambled and face down.
- 3—The ballot is then marked (scratching the bottom line for LEGAL CONTROL.)
- 4—The voter then turns over the ballot and writes his name on the two inch perforated square.
- 5—Next, the square is torn off, folded and placed into a sealed box marked for it.
- 6—Then the ballot is folded and dropped into another sealed box marked for it.

That sealed box containing the perforated squares on which the voter has written his name will never be opened--it will be burned in the presence of County officials 60 days after the election--unless the election is contested.

Who can vote in Saturday's election? Anyone who has paid the current (1949) poll tax and those who have exemption certificates. A lost certificate is not a lost vote--the County Tax Collector or the County Clerk can fix that if called without delay.

Exercise your privilege to vote—use that SECRET WEAPON to outlaw the bootleggers and racketeers that prohibition has produced and supported in Lubbock County. Vote for LEGAL CONTROL . . . SCRATCH THAT BOTTOM LINE.

West Texas Roundup

Does it sound fantastic that Herford Water should be exported to foreign countries where drinking water is poor and children's teeth suffer as a result? Don't say yes, because the Herford Chamber of Commerce received a letter this week to that effect. The idea of the organization is to ship the water by rail to Galveston and then load it on tankers for the trip abroad. They'll use it 100,000 gallons at a time. The letter also asked for an exclusive agency to offer Herford Water in the New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New England area. Both prospects were said to be reputable, and one already in the water business but interested in a new publicity valuable product. —The Sunday Brand

As the result of the rains coming too late for dayland cotton, Lamb county is expected to have the largest grain sorghum acreage of any county on the South Plains this year, close to 290,000 acres as compared with 190,000 in 1949. This is expected to add up to the county's largest grain sorghum crop in history. —County Wide News

Canyon has made a big step in the field of recreation during the month of June. It was on June 12 that the newly-created recreation department began. During the first month 2,046 young people participated in one of the activities that have been created to help them solve their leisure time problems — the two parks, swimming pool, baseball and various other phases. Along with the young people came 357 parents either to take part in the program or to watch their children. —The Canyon News

The City of Lorenzo has at last decided to spray the town with DDT, but they found that it was impossible to spray the alleys in certain sections of the town because of some of them being fenced up and blocked in various other manners. We heard several people remark this week that proceedings should be instituted to force the opening of all alleys in the town. Those hauling off trash have difficulty in reaching the trash piles and in some instances have to pass them up. —The Lorenzo Tribune

Junk Car Racing sponsored by the Levelland Junior Chamber of Commerce at the rodeo arena here Saturday night, July 29, J. W. O'Conner, committee chairman, has announced. O'Conner says that some fifteen cars from Levelland, Slaton, Morton, Littlefield and Lubbock are expected to enter in the contest. —The Hockly Co. Herald

Directors of the Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative met last Thursday night with officials of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company here to discuss means of speeding up the current installation program for rural areas. Members in the Looney area should have service restored at an early date, officials declared. Those living along the new Farm-to-Market road to Cuthbert and the Dunn Ranch areas should be serviced in the near future. —Colorado City Record

Authorization was given the Sam Sanders Construction Co. of Artesia, N. M., by the Tahoka City Council in meeting Monday night to go ahead with its proposed extensions to the current paving program in Tahoka. Plans have been completed by the engineers for 17 1/2 blocks of additional paving in the town, which will bring a total of 125 or 130 blocks within the city limits, about 40 blocks of which paving is now being completed. —The Lynn Co. News

Hail and rain Sunday afternoon caused heavy damage to cotton and feed crops in the Sligo and Pleasant Hill communities in southeast Yokum County. The hail moved east from the Sligo school on a four or five mile path extending into Terry County. D. C. McDaniel reported the loss of 65 acres of cotton. Other losses reported included Joe A. Green, with 100 acres heavily damaged, Harding Connor with 240 acres of cotton heavily damaged, Vance Brown with damage to two cotton fields. Area covered by the hail was estimated up to 50 sections, with losses from light to heavy. Feed crops were affected less than cotton, it was reported. —Gaines County News

Colorado City's downtown parking problem has been eased considerably, city officials report, with the operation of the public parking lot located adjacent to the T. & P. railroad depot. City officials are presently studying off street parking problems. It is estimated that it would cost approximately $1,300.00 to pave the city's T. & P. parking lot. —Colorado City Record

Quick passage of a city request for federal aid in construction of a paved taxi area and runway for the county owned Municipal airport is the only hope for immediate improvement of the field. City Manager Ray Drain said Thursday.

He said the request for federal government and local government groups to share jointly in the $30,000 cost of the project was mailed to the CAA regional office in San Angelo Wednesday after city council approval Monday night. —The Sun News

AT SELF'S SERVICE STATION
Howdy Folks; People who are in a habit of saving up money for a rainy day should have good going this year. Pardon us for paraphrasing the old wheeze to read, "when it rains, it bores." One of our customers said he had a barrel lying on its side in the yard with both ends knocked out. He said the bung hole was up and it rained so hard into the bung hole, the open ends wouldn't let it out. Of course, with every thing else up perhaps it's good to have the rain come down even if it does soak us. We heard a party say that spring was formerly a delightful season but now obsolete except in poetry. Well, just think back. It always has quit raining before, so what are you kicking about? Another thing you'll never have any kick about is our lubrication service. Try it out and see what we mean.

You Cannot Run Away From Atomic War

A traveler who recently returned from the east reports that he met an instructor for an eastern college and the easterner was greatly excited about coming events. Atomic warfare had him in a high state of excitement and he had gone to considerable expense to buy property in a South American country. He and his family are all set to move.

That any one, especially a college instructor, should think that he would be safe from Communism in a South American country seems absurd. It is said that a good many people in the Eastern states and in Washington D. C. are very jittery about atomic warfare and that many people are endeavoring to find some place to go in case atomic warfare breaks out.

That the scientists and officials responsible for the general welfare should devise some defense against any possible kind of warfare is imperative but those who think they can run away from the United States and find safer countries are greatly mistaken. If the terrible calamity of communism should conquer the United States, the strongest country in the world, then there is no chance whatever for it to skip over little South American countries. In fact it would probably be easier for the Communists to invade the weak South American countries, if invasion should come, than it would to come into the United States. There are one or two South American countries that are considered leaning toward Communism now and none of them are in strong positions to put up much defense against any military force of great magnitude.

If war comes to this country we will have to take it where we are for there will be no place on earth to run to.

It is said that there are a number of rich men who have built big retreats in isolated places in the United States that have all kinds of conveniences, bomb shelters, food stocks, water supplies and planned to make it possible to hide away for a considerable length of time, but would not such defense turn out about like the Maginot Line in France, a place in which the defenders could be cornered like rats.

Our Leaders Are Too Timid

Even in critical times like we are now experiencing the Democrats and the Republicans do not seem to be able to get together on many problems.

The Republicans want to put restrictions in effect immediately, but the Democrats seem to want to postpone the draft, price controls and tax regulations. As in the beginning of the last war the men at the head of the Government seem to be far more timid than the people in the streets. Most everyone expects and feels that controls should be put into effect at once if such action seems necessary, in fact most people feel that controls should be put into effect at once, regardless of the fact that the war might not become more serious than it is at the present time.

Some of the officials in Washington seem to feel that the average person wants to be sure that a general war is in effect before general mobilization should be undertaken, but this is not true, the people are ready and most of the young men would prefer to be trained than untrained if it is a possibility that they must go up against the Commies.

And as for food and price controls the public is ready to take that on too. Most folks feel that if there is going to be shortages when the present supply is exhausted, that if they have money to buy merchandise that they might as well get their share. If the government is not going to control the distribution that there will not be any controls until the scarcity has forced controls.

This kind of action may come under the off color title of hoarding but it is something that the average person is doing regardless of what it may be called, if the Government passes regulations to control present stocks most folks will comply with the rules.

Help Make Slaton More Attractive

Slaton is fast building up a reputation for being one of the most attractive looking small towns in West Texas. Our Club House park, with its well kept lawn and many trees, would be a credit to many towns much larger than Slaton. This park is a boon to many folks at home and to those who live in this area. In fact a lot of folks instead of going to the country to have a picnic, are coming to town from the country to spread their lunches under the spreading trees and where convenient tables, chairs and ants are supplied at no cost.

But Slaton could be made so much more attractive with a little planned beautification and with some planned way of doing it. There are plots of flowers blooming in out of the way spots around town that make startling and outstanding eye catchers, only there are not nearly as many of them as could be. A good many years ago a group of women, sponsored a plant exchange and many folks who had shrubs, bulbs and things growing around their premises, that needed thinning, would bring them down to the City Hall lawn and leave them for other people to take home. This was an excellent idea and was the source of many pretty gardens over town. Such a plan would be mighty fine if it could be inaugurated again.

During times like we are now experiencing, when nerves are at high tension, there is little enough to enjoy and pretty flowers do bring smiles to the faces of people everywhere whether they are flower fanciers or not. The future promises to be even more severe than the present and flower planting will be too frivolous a pastime for the average person before long. This fall would be a mighty fine time to have a plant exchange on the city hall lawn.

There's A Lot In Co-Operation

There are many civic and social clubs in Slaton, some of them have been active in promoting activities that have been of help to the community, but mighty little has been done compared to what could be done if all of these organizations would give serious attention to the many activities that could be worked out that would help build up the social welfare of Slaton.

It would seem that most of these organizations would have some purposes besides quoting some high sounding slogans, going through set rituals and proclaiming the clubs in favor of some activity that some other organization has started. Several of the local organizations at one time or another have sponsored Boy Scout activities, girl scouts and youth center work, but about all most of them have done is to sponsor it and that is all. Most of the work, if any is done, is left in the hands of one or two members. Usually there is a great deal more work dumped into the hands of these few people than they can properly take care of and it soon gets to be a great big burden. They sometimes call for help but it is usually not forthcoming and many good things go by the wayside because of indifference.

It takes cooperation to win a war, to build a nation, to make a community progressive and to accomplish a task and build a business.

The people of Slaton have done many worthwhile things in the past, and in the face of what might be a very uncertain future, it would likely be most advantageous for every one in the town to belong to some kind or organization where concerted action could be taken should any occasion demand it.

QUOTES

A young mother was changing her baby while her four-year-old looked on. When she neglected to sprinkle the tot with talcum powder before dressing him, the Four was quite indignant. "Aren't you going to salt him this time?" he asked.—This Week.

After preaching a powerful sermon against betting, the vicar was dismayed to learn that one of his wardens was a heavy gambler, and at once hurried around to apologize.

"Oh, don't worry about it," said the warden. "After all, it's a poor sermon that doesn't hit me somewhere."—TIT-BITS.

Cynicism is the easy retreat of a small and faithless mind.—Toledo Blade.

Freight Cars

Since the advent of the use of high strength steel in railroad cars, about 15 years ago, over 78,700 new freight cars have been built in whole or in part of this material, while 635 freight cars have been built with the use of varying amounts of light metals.

Trees are worth remembering. They are landmarks and memorials. The apple tree he climbed as a little boy becomes a bosom friend in old age when reminiscence is golden. The oak the bride planted by her door the day after her wedding is a comfort and symbol of a sturdy life. The trees along your street and in the neighborhood park are friends and neighbors too.

Ramsey Thanks Texas Voters

BEN RAMSEY, run-off candidate for Lieutenant Governor, thanked Texas voters this week for the vote they gave him in the July 22 primary election. Ramsey, show here in his San Augustine law office, said his heart was "filled with humble gratitude," and asked his supporters to continue the fight and elect him Lieutenant Governor in the Aug. 26 second primary. Ramsey is the only experienced candidate in the race.

First of the Fine Cars in Value

Even Wiser than He Seems

PLAINLY, here travels a man wise in the ways of fine motorears.

You know that, by the four Ventiports and the rich sweep of chrome which mark his car as a ROADMASTER.

You know it, should you trail him on the highway, by the smooth lift of the big Fireball power plant at his toe's command, by the obvious levelness of the ride he enjoys, the swift ease with which Dynaflo Drive solves his traffic problems.

What is not so plain from what you see is that here also is a man very wise in what today's dollar should buy!

For this man has all that a fine-car owner can ask for—brilliant performance, a ride without equal for gentle softness, finger-easy handling, abundant room all around him, styling that is easily the most distinguished on the highway.

Yet he paid considerably less than comparable merit costs elsewhere.

He found fewer extra charges in his delivered price, with such things as Dynaflo Drive, foam rubber cushions, windshield washers, electric clock, even non-glare rear-view mirror included in the price.

If you know fine cars, it won't take fifteen minutes behind a ROADMASTER wheel to see that here is one of the finest.

If you have inquired about prices, a single glance at the delivered figures establishes this as the big buy of the field.

Why not make both checks—especially since your Buick dealer will be glad to arrange a trial run in a ROADMASTER any time you care to call on him?

THE SLATON SLATONITE

"HELLO JOE? NO? OH!"—William R. Solons, anxious to hear the Soviet side of the Korean story, called the Kremlin from his Los Angeles home and asked for Joe Stalin. When the Kremlin answered, things looked promising for the 83-year-old writer. But it turned out that neither Joe or Andrei Vishinsky would accept Mr. Solons's call. Peggy, the pigeon, was just as disappointed as her master about getting the bird from Moscow.

JUST TALK

by A.M.J.

After making a close galloping poll of men who have at one time or another smoked but have quit I find that most of them claim that they never have any desire to smoke now but I believe most of them are fakers. If a person ever really gets the habit of smoking the desire remains until the bell rings. It has been about eight years since I quit smoking but I believe I'd still like to smoke. I'd lose about twenty pounds in weight, everybody would ask what kind of disease I would be suffering from and I'd have to buy an entirely new set of clothing. That would probably put me in the lend lease classification.

When I get in the mood to start smoking again and stop and think about how I used to cough up pieces of boot heel, slugs of gravel and half choke to death every morning before I could get a good breath, I hesitate, then forget my desire until someone comes along trailing a fog of smoke like the Santa Fe Chief going up grade. I whiff around like an Irish Setter on the trail of a rabbit and I feel sorry for myself. I do not have any bad habits any more to enjoy and I wonder why in the world I ever quit smoking. Of course it was because so many folks told so many wonderful stories about how much better they felt after quitting smoking and how they never miss it now and I grit my teeth, look down at my protruding waist line, take on a pious look and berate every one who comes around me smoking dirty old cigarettes or cigars that drip ashes all over my wife's carpet. I watch them as they drink in the smoke clear down to their heels and I think back to when I used to do the same thing and start wondering all over again why I have become such a pokey old dodder anyway.

Not long ago my wife wangled me into a tea room and I felt like I'd been caught with my hand in the till. It was a very dainty place with fawn colored curtains, one gravy drip size napkin that dropped off my left knee every time a new customer came in the front door, and food that was all cold. Practically every bit of it was in little wads of stuff under lettuce leaves. It was like hunting Easter eggs only the stuff did not taste as good to me as Easter Eggs used to taste when I was at the age to hunt Easter Eggs.

There was one other man who was trying to slide down under the table and about thirty or forty women all dressed up like Aunt Mary at Christmas time, hair frizzed, plastered and twisted until it looked like everything except human hair, they were all googling about how "beeautiful" the place was and I sat down at a table where I had to spraddle out my knees in order to get my feet under the table; I tried to listen to some of the high pitched twaddle that was going on around me but there was such a contest that I never did get to hear about what happened way after twelve o'clock at the next door neighbor's house of the woman who sat at the table next to me. It sounded right interesting, too. Perhaps I will find out the next time I go, which will be in 1954.

There is one man in Slaton who is looking for trouble either from tornadoes or from atomic bombs. He has just completed an underground room that has a twelve inch top on it reinforced with railroad iron. He is a good friend of mine and I have arranged for the use of the left hand corner. I've got a letter out trying to find out whether it's a good idea to burrow in the ground in case of atomic warfare or get on the highest place available because it is probable that if a real war breaks out and atomic bombs go to flopping around the United States, it's not going to be very safe around a railroad division.

Up to now I've been very proud of the fact that Slaton is the division headquarters for the longest division on the Santa Fe lines. From now on I'm going to try to leave the impression that Slaton is just a suburb of Lubbock and if there are any bombs to be dropped they would do a lot more good if dropped on that important city.

Romance has certainly gone to pot in this part of the country. The girls are letting their opportunities slip through their fingers and it looks as if the census is going to show a drop in population if conditions don't improve.

We used to report stuff about the way the bride's dress was decorated and who walked down the aisle, at the rate of two or three every week, and we used to get our dip in on the big fuss with the sale of wedding invitations but it is not so any longer. It must be that the boys are getting harder to convince. We certainly do miss the mothers coming in with their daughters who have just got the ring on the finger and the consent of the groom. Love's old sweet song don't sound so good any longer.

The papers say that 800,000 more men will be pushed into the army right away and I've been counting up on the men who are working for me. Of the five every one is a world war II veteran and I believe most of the other business firms are in nearly as bad a fix. During the war we had one dope head printer and a lot of women working to get the Slatonite out and I don't know whether I could go through such a strain again. Women as a rule do not care for my type of chivalry but by bowing and scraping low every morning when I came down to work I managed to get along with them. The dopey printer was my big hurdle and I used to have bad dreams about strangling him to death. If I were young enough and the Government would have me again I'd prefer to be pushed around by a corporal than to try to get out a paper again under the same circumstances. I'm limbering up my knees and trying to bring back my old Chesterfieldian manner so that I can go through the ordeal again with the women. It's a black and dismal future.

Robert Huser, who operates the Huser Hatchery and in the summer time has a few minutes off to read, found the following in one of his poultry journals and says that he cut it out in order to help live up "Just Talk." It was originally written by some one who styles himself as "the Elmore Elf." And if you can't get a chuckle from it, then try to imagine what A. Lincoln would say if he could read it.

VERSION OF IMMORTAL WORDS
One score and 16 years ago, our fathers brought forth upon this nation a new tax, conceived in desperation and dedicated to the proposition that all men are fair game.

Now we are engaged in a great mass of calculations, testing whether that taxpayer or any taxpayer so confused and so impoverished can long endure. We are met on Form 1040. We have come to dedicate a large portion of our income to a final resting place with men who here spend their lives that they may spend our money.

It is altogether anguish and torture that we should do this. But in a legal sense, we cannot underestimate this tax. The collectors, sly and clever, have gone far beyond our powers to add and subtract.

Our creditors will little note nor long remember what we pay here, but the Bureau of Internal Revenue can never forget what we re-pent here. It is rather for us to be

SCARED SOUSAPHONIST—Little ladies and giant sousaphones seldom make harmonious companions as two-year-old Korolyn Low proved at the 48th annual Music Industry Trade show in Chicago. Unable to extricate herself from the mammoth instrument after an ear-shattering solo passage, Miss Low let loose with a scream that brought music dealers racing to the scene of discord.

THIS And THAT
—FROM—
HERE And THERE

POLITICS — "Some years ago I was visiting in a country home in the deep South and picked up a very old, worn book from the table, and my eye caught the brief dramatic story of the experience of a man in Arkansas who was defeated in his candidacy for sheriff. I quote it below exactly as I copied it out of the record:

"Lost four months and twenty days canvassing; lost 1,360 hours of sleep thinking about the election; lost 40 acres of corn and a whole lot of sweet potatoes; lost two front teeth and a lot of hair in a personal encounter with an opponent; donated one beef, four shoats, and five sheep to barbecue; gave away two pairs of suspenders, five calico dresses, five dolls and fifteen baby rattlers; kissed 126 babies; kindled 14 kitchen fires; put up eight stoves; cut 14 cords of wood; carried 24 buckets of water; gathered seven wag- on loads of corn; pulled 475 bundles of fodder; walked 4,060 miles; shook hands 9,080 times; told 10,001 lies; talked enough to make 10,000 volumes; attended 26 revivals; was baptized four times by immersion and twice some other way; contributed to foreign missions, made love to nine grass widows; got dog bit 39 times, and then got defeated." — Wink Bulletin.

ODDS AND ENDS — The worst trouble with the crops in this area is that farmers are trying to raise too many kinds of crops at the same time on the same land; corn and Johnson grass, for instance, or in many instances cotton and Johnson grass. They have already harvested a pretty good crop of oats and Johnson grass, mixed. This objection does not apply to all of the fields, however—in some of them they are raising nothing but Johnson grass, and the cows are doing the harvesting. They find that to be more satisfactory than the use of Mexicans or of costly harvesting machines. Besides, it gives the farmers more time to enjoy their daily sestas and the frequent holidays. And in the meantime, the cows grow slick and fat. —The Lynn Co. News.

GETTING OUT ON A LINE — Sometimes, I think people vote about like they bet on horses. Some gamblers buy all kinds of dope sheets, check the condition of the track, the weight slated for the race, past performances, jockey and one hundred other considerations. Others take the 100-to-1 shots or bet on Lizzie Mae because that is their mother-in-law's name and they figure by the law of averages they ought to come lucky sometimes.

It seems to me that some people vote just like the latter better. They pick out somebody with the same name as Rich Uncle Tom. Sometimes they do use dope sheets to vote by but are they strange ones. All ex-Bell countians vote for all other ex-Bell countians, I think. I've often wondered if Methodists vote for Methodists and Baptists for Baptists, in case voters know the candidate's church affiliation. I think Mr. Gallup would do well to make a survey and see what the value of names has in preferen-es. I mean, will a candidate named Jesse out pull one named Ezequiel? They say certain movie titles outpull others and certain short story titles have more reader interest. I wonder if Lancelot might get more votes than just plain George, or vice versa. —The Post Dispatch.

HEREFORD BULL — The intuition of women and not the analytical ability of men is the greatest safeguard the country possesses for resisting propaganda, according to William S. Rosecrans, vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, who adds that the intuition of women "is generally sound."

This declaration ought to get Mr. Rosecrans the woman-vote of the United States, but since he is not running for office, the women will know, no doubt, intuitively, what he has in mind.

We are quite willing to believe that intuition is a valuable attribute of human personality but, somehow, we like to have the resulting decision carefully analyzed in the light of all the reason-that the race possesses. —The Sunday Brand.

TOUGH TO TAKE — About 1 1/2 million Federal civilian employees are given 26 working days of vacation leave each year. They are also entitled to 15 working days of sick leave. These add up to 8-1/2 work-weeks of time off with pay. In addition, they receive eight regular holidays a year. —The Floyd Co. Hesperian.

IT SEZ HERE — Our faith in the fundamental goodness of Mother Nature got a boost last week when a 100-pound buck deer treed two women hunters in a California game refuge and kept the pair up the tree nine hours. When two game wardens tried to remove the buck, the animal gored one and stood his ground until shot by the man's partner. It's about time deer started taking up for their right to live. In our opinion, this was a fair fight, and done in finest traditions of sportsmanship. Unfortunately, a lethal weapon had to be brought into play to settle the issue in favor of the human race. If hunters, who prate loudly of sportsmanship, will meet a buck on equal terms, we'll call them real sports. But we see nothing sportsmanlike, just or honest, in arming a man to the teeth with knives, rifles, telescopic sights, poison gas, radar, howitzers, grenades and a pack of hounds—all to be used on a buck with only his natural endowments to protect him. Killing for fun is an American institution.

I help build Sub Stations?

THAT'S RIGHT... many a housewife has a lot to say about building your Public Service Company.

How? Through her investments, of course. Whether it be a sub station or a service car, our company is truly "owned" by the stockholders—ministers, doctors, lawyers, teachers—yes, even you or your neighbor... and no one of them owns more than 2% of the total stock.

Perhaps you have a savings account—or a life insurance policy—it's pretty certain that some of those funds have been re-invested in your Public Service Company.

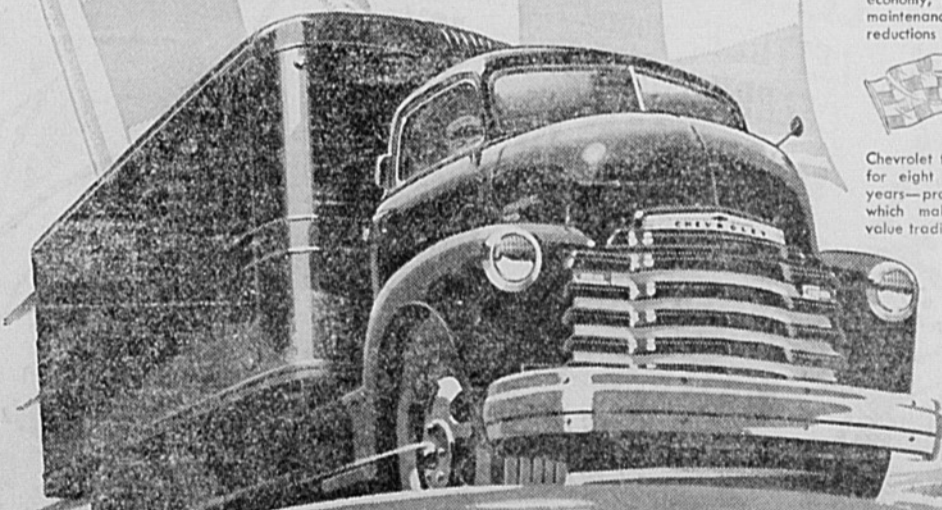

And so, you see, we really belong to the people. It's a working example of free enterprise... the system that has made America great and strong.
