

Mayor Wootton Says He Enjoys Job And Plans On Helping Do Things

Mayor Lee Wootton, who announced his candidacy for reelection this last week, says he plans to put some important suggestions before the commissioners at an early date.

The Mayor considers the traffic problem still one of the biggest the people of Slaton face, although some of the difficulties that were present last year, have been worked out. The new stop signs and the method of parking cars in the business district have helped considerably, but in making these improvements several new problems have developed and the Mayor says that double parking and congestion of trucks on the streets has become quite a menace.

It is planned to start enforcing the laws against double parking, and to regulate the parking of trucks in the middle of the streets, the Mayor also said that the police force will crack down on speeders. Mr. Wootton says the traffic problem is in for some close study.

Another water well will be dug in the near future in the area Southwest of town where the two best wells the city has are in operation. It is hoped that one more good well will give Slaton ample water for a considerable time.

Mayor Wootton says he enjoys the job of being Mayor. He has no other pressing business duties and can give most of his time to being Mayor. "Of course I get a lot of complaints and quite a few problems," said Mr. Wootton, "but I know enough about the work now so that it does not bother me too much."

V.F.W. Gives $100 Check To Caprock Scouting District

The V.F.W. this week handed a check for $100.00 to Lewis Hollingsworth, chairman of the newly organized "Caprock" district of the Boy Scouts of America. Jack Clark, commander of the V.F.W., expressed the interest of his organization in scouting and said they felt sure that the local scout groups would greatly benefit under the new district organized last week.

The V.F.W. mailed a check in the amount of $225.00 to the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation for infantile paralysis.

Mr. Hollingsworth said, "The keen interest shown in local events and in welfare work by the V.F.W. is something for the people to be proud of."

Business Organized Here By Local Men

Jack Clark and W. T. Wright have announced the opening of the Slaton Dura-Cleaners at 910 S. 11th St. Dura-cleaning is an economical and convenient way to have your upholstery and floor coverings cleaned by experts, right in your home town.

Dura-cleaning means your fabric lasts longer because this modern, safe cleaning process avoids strong soaps and chemicals which so often harm the dyes or fabric. It means longer life, too, because there is no wear, no breaking of fibers caused by machine scrubbing.

This patent protected service is recommended by America's leading furniture and department stores. It cleans by absorption.

Clark and Wright invite you to come to see them or call 741-W if you want your upholstery or floor coverings Duracleaned.

Week's Question

Friendliness Named Outstanding Feature Of Slaton By Slatonites

A couple of weeks ago we asked for our question of the week, "What improvements do you think should be made in Slaton?" In that survey we found out what people dislike about Slaton, and in contrast this week we asked "What do you think is Slaton's most outstanding feature?" to get both sides of the picture. Judging from the answers received to both questions, the good features outnumber the bad in our fair city. Following are some of the answers to this week's question:

Mrs. Cecil Scott, after giving the question some serious thought, came to the conclusion that one of the outstanding things about Slaton is the many pretty homes here. She believes that it has an unusual number of fine homes for a town of this size. But the number one feature of Slaton is the friendliness of its people, she says. Mrs. Donald W. Polk lists friendliness also, as the number one

Griffiths Attend Store Convention In Oklahoma City

OLAN GRIFFITH

Mr. and Mrs. Olan Griffith returned March 3 from a trip to the general headquarters of the C. R. Anthony Company, where discussions were held on the previous years of business and the outlook for 1951. They also attended the annual banquet for high sales people. Two ladies from the Slaton store won places. They were Mrs. Estelle Alderson and Mrs. Lois Conner. The Slaton store won honorable mention for two times in succession as being the most efficiently operated store for that month.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffith previewed the new spring and summer fashions in men's and ladies' wear. The ladies will be wearing short or dresses and will have more color in their clothing for this spring and summer. Cottons in both suits and dresses will be the big fashion fabric. The men will find that they, too, will be wearing more color this year. The "loud" sport shirts of last year are "plain" compared to the ones being shown this year.

All types of wool and part wool blankets will be at a premium this fall since woollens are very scarce. Wool sweaters, trousers, suits, and anything containing wool will be in short supply. Sheets and muslins are fast becoming critical. Most stores have more sheets than any year previous, but the demand soon takes them from the shelves. As a whole, the merchandise situation for this fall will be sufficient to cover everyone's needs. Because of the tremendous buying power of C. R. Anthony Co., their customers are assured of the best merchandise possible.

While in Oklahoma City, Mr. Griffith helped open stock for the 100th Anthony Store. The completely modern, new store is 100 feet wide and 100 feet long.

Mr. and Mrs. Bland Tomlinson had as their guests on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Greaves and daughters, Margaret and Nancy of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Thompson of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Coy Hester of Brownfield spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gaither.

New, spring wall paper now on display at Wayne's Paint and Paper Company, 206 Texas Ave.

Mrs. Morcombe Is Named Winner Of Weather Contest

If you are still contemplating putting a guess in the first inch rain prediction at the Slatonite office—you're too late! Charlie Austin, who farms about 4½ miles southeast of Slaton, reported over an inch of rain on his farm, beginning early March 10. The nearest prediction in the contest box at the Slatonite came from Mrs. John Morcombe, 715 S. 9th., who predicted that the rain would start at 11 a.m. March 9.

As a result of her efforts in predicting "unpredictable" West Texas weather, Mrs. Morcombe will receive a five dollar bill, 6 months subscription to the Slatonite, a pair of galoshes from the C. R. Anthony Co., a rain hat from Clay Oates Dept. Store, a pass to the Slaton Theatre for one month, $1.50 worth of laundry by the Wilson Laundry, and an installation for Culligan's Soft Water Service or a month's supply of Culligan's Soft Water, by the Culligan's Soft Water Service, operated here by F. D. Bostick.

C. Of C. To Bid On Show Stock

It is hoped this will encourage the boys to make greater efforts to show at the Lubbock County Stock Shows that are held each March in Slaton.

Rev. and Mrs. O. B. Herring went to Dickens Monday to visit a friend who is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Fields returned last week from Dallas. Mrs. Fields had been in Dallas about six weeks.

Tomorrow the Explorer Scouts of Troop 29, will conduct a Scrap Metal Drive in Slaton. W. C. Gattis, in charge of the drive, solicits the co-operation of the citizens of the city in making the drive a success. The boys will call at the homes in town all day Saturday with trucks and trailers, and will gather the metal themselves. All that you will be requested to do is show them where it is.

Aluminum, brass, copper, and iron will be collected. Scout Master, Bob Burnett asks that "we all help in the cause of liberty. Our country needs scrap metal."

Wilderness Road

The development of the United States west of the Alleghenies did not begin until the Wilderness road was opened in 1795. Prior to that time there was no road westward to accommodate vehicles. With the opening of the Wilderness road mountains were crossed and exploration westward began. Pioneers opened the trails. The army followed close behind constructing forts to protect against Indian raids.

Dr. and Mrs. M. Jay McSweeney, Jr., had as their guests last week end, the doctor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. McSweeney, and cousins, Dr. and Mrs. Scott T. McGuire, all of Austin.

New Nancy Warren Wallpaper Shown At Lumber Co.

Homemakers who are planning to buy wallpaper can now make their selections with new confidence. The perennial worry about how it will look on the wall or whether it will harmonize with other furnishings has been eliminated by Forrest Lumber Co. with Nancy Warren Wallpapers which they are featuring this season.

This decorator styled wallpaper collection carries with it a Gold Seal Guarantee designed for the multitude of women who find it difficult to look at a roll of wallpaper and visualize the pattern in a room.

It assures the housewife that, even after it is hung, if the pattern is too large for the room or the colors clash with the sofa or if she is dissatisfied in any way with the styling or quality, by notifying her dealer within ten days after purchase, she can, without charge, select another Nancy Warren pattern to equal cost to replace the first one.

Almost one quarter of the nation's farm land lies in the ten states that contain the Missouri river valley.

It's Good, Says Bill McDavid

Bill McDavid, the hustling manager of the Childress Theatres, has his blood pressure to nearly two hundred over the prospects of getting to show "King Solomon's Mines" next Saturday at the preview and on Sunday and Monday at the Slaton Theatre.

Stupendous, colossal, magnificent are words he is throwing right and left and if the folks here do not like "King Solomon's Mines" it is likely that Bill will blow his top, mistreat his wife and maybe join the marines.

Bill has been reading all of the press sheets about "King Solomon's Mines" and although he has not seen the picture himself, he has gone all out for it and if he button-holes you and goes into his spell don't interrupt him for he will finish it if he has to put a lasso on you.

By 1940, motor vehicles in the U. S. accounted for nearly nine out of ten passenger-miles of travel outside of cities.

Cleaning Bill
The American public spends over one billion dollars annually for dry-cleaning services to preserve wardrobes and household effects that cost many many times this amount.

Two-thirds of the meat for America's dining room table is produced west of the Mississippi River, while two-thirds of the meat is consumed east of the Mississippi.

More Beautiful to live with ...

after Duracleaning

For economy and convenience... have your upholstery and floor coverings Duracleaned by experts, right in your home. Watch the unusual care with which these craftsmen beautify your furnishings.

Duraclean means your fabric lasts longer because this modern, safe cleaning process avoids strong soaps and chemicals which so often harm the dyes or fabric. Longer life too, because there is no wear, no breaking of fibers caused by machine scrubbing.

This patent protected service is recommended by America's leading furniture and department stores.

What Makes Duraclean "Different"

It cleans by absorption! Embedded dirt and grit are first removed by "deep suction." Many cleaning methods leave enough dirt-laden soap in your rugs and upholstery to cause "matting" or "rapid resoiling." Duracleaning avoids this.

The mild aerated Duraclean foam loosens and absorbs sticky soil and stains, holding this grime in suspension above the surface until removed.

No inconvenience! Duracleaned fabrics are dry in just a few hours. Special ingredients re-enrich wool fibers. Rug pile remains soft and pliable. Colors revive. Your fabrics are left clean, fresh, enlivened... your home is more beautiful to live with.

Duraproof—If you wish, you may at the same time have your floor coverings, upholstery, clothing or furs Duraproofed. You have 4 years protection against damage from moths and carpet beetles. Also protects against mildew. The annual cost is lower than applying less effective moth solutions yourself. Have your fabrics Duraproofed today—before damage develops.

Watch Out For The "Blind-Spots"

Stopped by Squint Miller's farm the other day and saw a vinegar bottle in his kitchen with an oversized cucumber inside it. The cucumber filled the whole bottle.

"What's a cucumber doing in there?" I asked him. "That's my 'blind-spot' reminder," says Squint. "My grandmother kept one in her kitchen to remind her to take stock of herself now and then."

"I slipped that bottle over the cucumber when it was just starting to grow on the vine," he went on. "And like certain viewpoints, not noticed, it just grow and grew—now it's there to stay."

From where I sit, we could take a cue from Squint and watch for our own "blind-spots" and prejudices before they grow too big to get rid of. We've got to respect our neighbor's right to his preferences... preferences for a certain make of car, a favorite movie star, or a temperate glass of beer after work. We won't be tripped by any blind spots if we keep our eyes—and minds—open!

Slaton Women Give Their Favorite Tested Recipes

It's time to start thinking about that Easter dinner, and maybe you'd like a new, delicious way to prepare your ham. This week Mrs. Tommy Davis graciously gave us her method of preparation for baked ham. Just thinking about it makes my mouth water. Just follow Mrs. Davis's instructions and you should have a wonderfully tender ham to serve your family on Easter.

Put a 10 or 12 pound ham in a large pan and brown it on both sides in about a 300 degree oven. While it is browning, mix one box of brown sugar with juice from a no. 2 can of sliced pineapple. Turn fat side of browned ham up and pour the sugar and pineapple juice mixture over it. Let it cook very slowly basting it periodically. When it is tender put the sliced pineapple and whole cloves over it and continue to bake for about 45 minutes, basting as often as you think about it. The more you baste it, the better it will be, says Mrs. Davis. She always has great success using this method for preparing baked ham, and feels sure you will like it, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis, married about two years, have a seven month old son, Tom. They live at 805 S. 15th Street. Mr. Davis is employed at the Slaton Lumber Co. He has lived in Slaton all of his life.

Mrs. Davis spends her spare time sewing, and at the present time is making an Easter suit for her young son.

She is a member of the First Christian Church. Also, she is corresponding secretary for the Athenian Study Club.

Mrs. Davis was born in Haskell, Texas, and is not from the "deep south" as her charming southern voice might indicate. She says she doesn't know where she acquired her drawl, but is sure it isn't "put on", because she has talked that way since she was a small child.

The book gives a bird's-eye-view of all the countries that comprise Asia, dealing with their politics, their religions and their peculiarities. Asia is a nation of complexities and yet it is inextricably dove-tailed with the rest of the world. For at least 100 years Asia has been devoured by Imperialist western powers, Great Britain being the chief. Asia is the birth place of all the world's great religions—Judaism, Christianity, Buddhism, Hinduism, and Mohammedism. The great handi-caps of Asia have been the religions, the cost system, the extreme heat, and the wide use of opium.

West Texas Gas Co. Announces Advancement For Officers

R. F. HINCHEY

R. M. CURRY

J. J. WILEY

R. F. Hinchey, West Texas Gas Company president, was named chairman of the board of directors at a meeting in Kansas City Tuesday afternoon. C. I. "Stony" Wall was named to succeed Mr. Hinchey as president.

Simultaneous announcements were also made about four other promotions within the company: T. S. Whitis was named vice president, transmission; H. F. Heath, vice president, distribution; J. J. Wiley, vice president, accounting and budget control; and R. M. Curry, assistant to the president.

These six men have a total of more than 100 years service with West Texas Gas Company. Mr. Hinchey came to West Texas Gas Company from Okmulgee, Okla., June 1, 1927, as vice president and general manager.

Known as "Ray" to his many friends, he has been actively identified with the progress of West Texas. His work with the Lubbock Airport Board, Lubbock Cerebral Palsy Treatment Center, Lubbock Rotary Club and many other civic organizations has been noteworthy.

Stony Wall, new company president, has a background in the industry that almost parallels that of Mr. Hinchey except that practically all his working life has been spent with West Texas Gas Company.

Except for a "slow arm" Stony might today be with one of the major league baseball teams. Failing to get the nod from Branch Rickey of the St. Louis Cardinals during a summer training school—Stony was told that he might obtain a job with West Texas Gas Company which had just been organized.

T. S. "Thurman" Whitis, new vice president, transmission, began his career with West Texas Gas Company in 1930 as rod man and instrument man on construction of Littlefield city distribution plant. His other work with the company has included service as a surveyor and draftsman in the engineering department on city plant and main line construction, clerk in Lubbock city office, clerk in Plainview city office, superintendent of the gas measurement department in Lubbock, engineer, and general superintendent transmission.

H. F. "Herman" Heath, new vice president, distribution, started to work for the company in 1928 as clerk in Lubbock city office. In 1930 he was appointed Brownfield district manager and remained in Brownfield until 1945, at which time he transferred to Midland as Midland district manager. He returned to Lubbock as superintendent of city plans in 1948. He was made general superintendent distribution in 1950, the job he held at the time of his recent promotion.

J. J. "Bill" Wiley, new vice president, accounting and budget control, started to work for the company in 1937 as clerk in Lubbock city office. He was transferred to the company's general offices in 1940 to assume more responsible positions.

Bill was called back to active duty with the Navy in 1941. As supply officer of the USS Corregidor, he participated in five invasions in the Pacific theater of war, which included Gilbert Islands, Marshall Islands, New Guinea.

R. M. "Rod" Wiley, new vice president, drafting, joined the company in 1927 as a draftsman. Rod is well known in the industry for several of his regulator installations. Executives of the company give him credit for having designed distribution systems, buildings and regulators now used in West Texas Gas Company's operations.

All six men will continue to make their headquarters in Lubbock. Mrs. Lee Green attended the District Number 2 Convention in Big Spring last week end. She reports that 208 attended from the district. Good reports were given on the activities of the girls.

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Lux of Austin were here Wednesday visiting with the local association. Mr. Lux is the Executive Secretary of the Retail Merchants of Texas, with headquarters at Austin.

"I got the story on 50,000 Miles-No Wear

and changed to New Conoco Super Motor Oil"

says Billie Smith, Photographer,
San Antonio, Texas.

"WHEN A MAN BUYS A USED CAR from us, we want him to get his money's worth in performance and operating cost. That's why we put new Conoco Super Motor Oil in all our cars and tell the buyer to use nothing else," says H. C. Wheeler, Wheeler Motor Company, Denver, Colorado.

"I RECENTLY CHECKED A CAR that had gone 39,000 miles on Conoco Super Motor Oil," reports Joe Prestidge, Chief Garage Mechanic, St. Paul, Minnesota. "I found the connecting-rod journals were within five ten-thousandths of an inch of the original factory specifications. I've never seen so little wear!"

"50,000 MILES-NO WEAR!"—PROVED HERE:

After a punishing 50,000-mile road test, with proper crankcase drains and regular care, engines lubricated with new Conoco Super Motor Oil showed no wear of any consequence... in fact, an average of less than one one-thousandth inch on cylinders and crankshafts.

AND gasoline mileage for the last 5,000 miles was actually 99.77% as good as for the first 5,000! This test proved that new Conoco Super, with OIL-PLATING, can make your car last longer, perform better, use less gasoline and oil.

Mrs. Morris and two daughters, of the W. A. Wilke farm, are new Sunday School members.

M. P. Gentry and Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Johnson were at the W. W. Gentry home near Southland Sunday for a celebration of the W. W. Gentry birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Boyd were visiting Billy Boyd at Kileen over the week end.

A speaker will be present next Sunday for third Sunday services. George Hayes, J. C. Gentry and Wesley Gentry have been listing land for Sam Gentry.

Mr. and Mrs. Richardson were Sunday afternoon visitors of K. Boyd.

The G.M.A.A. Insurance Association met Friday evening at the school house. Louis Droemer and W. A. Wilke are president and secretary, respectively, of the association. The two officers have been named delegates to a district meeting on the North Plains.

A Lubbock company which recently bought the Hobbs farm, is making plans to use part of the land as feeding pens for cattle.

A school census is soon to be made of the pupils in the district near Posey.

F. B. Tudor has returned from a trip to Central Texas.

J. H. Slone served as superintendent and Mrs. Howard Johnson was secretary of the Sunday School due to the absence of the regular officers.

Famous Bells

Among renowned bells are the Savoyarde, cast in 1895 for the Church of the Sacred Heart at Montmartre, Paris, and the Jeanne d'Arc, cast in 1919 for Rouen Cathedral. The former, said to be the largest in France, weighs nearly 18 tons; the latter, two tons less.

Largest Hallstone

According to the U. S. weather bureau, the largest recorded hallstone was one that fell at Potter, Nebraska, on July 6, 1928. Its weight, measured immediately after falling, was 1-1/4 pounds.

An Old Friendship

The tie between men and dogs—shown by canine devotion in war and peace, in the saving of human lives, the guiding of the blind, the tracking down of man's game, and the guarding of his home and possessions—can be traced back to cave-dweller days.

SLATON FARMER RECEIVES HELP FROM NEIGHBORS

Sam N. Gentry, who farms five miles northwest of Slaton, has been given help by a group of neighbors.

Gentry, who has been incapacitated since an operation last December, said his neighbors have completed listing 250 acres for him. He plans to plant part of the land in grain sorghum, the remainder in cotton.

Notice To Bidders

Sealed proposals addressed to the Honorable Mayor and City Commission of Slaton, Texas, will be received at the office of the City Secretary, City Hall, Slaton, Texas, until 3:00 P.M. March 31, 1951, for furnishing all necessary materials, machinery, equipment, superintendence and labor for constructing certain street improvements consisting of approximately 1,465 feet of curb and gutter, 3,424 square yards of Street Paving, and other incidental items of work for the City of Slaton, Texas, Owner. The project consists of approximately two (2) blocks of street paving.

Bidders must submit a Cashier's or Certified Check issued by a bank satisfactory to the Owner, or a Proposal Bond from a reliable Surety Company, payable without recourse to the order of The City of Slaton, Texas, in an amount not less than five per cent (5%) of the largest possible bid submitted as a guaranty that the Bidder will enter into a contract and execute bond and guaranty in the forms provided within ten (10) days after notice of award of contract to him. Bids without the required Check or Proposal Bond will not be considered.

The Successful Bidder must furnish bond on the form provided in the amount of 100% of the total contract price from a Surety Company holding a permit from the State of Texas to act as Surety, or other Sureties acceptable to the Owner. All lump sum and unit prices must be stated in both script and figures. In case of ambiguity or lack of clearness in stating the prices in the bids, the Owner reserves the right to consider the most advantageous construction thereof, or to reject the bid. Unreasonable (or "unbalanced") unit prices will authorize the Owner to reject the bid. The Owner reserves the right to reject any or all bids, to waive formalities, and to accept the bid which seems most advantageous to the City's interest.

Bidders are expected to inspect the site of the work and to inform themselves regarding all local conditions under which the work is to be done.

Payment for the work performed on this project will be from funds furnished by the City of Slaton, Texas, and paving assessments against abutting property and the owners thereof, in accordance with the provisions set forth in the specifications.

Attention is called to the provisions of the Acts of the 43rd Legislature of the State of Texas, page 91, Chapter 45, (Article No. 5193A Civil Statutes 1925) concerning the wage scale and payment of prevailing rates of wages as established by the Owner. Said scale of prevailing minimum rates of wages is set forth in the specifications.

Information for bidders, proposal forms, plans and specifications are on file at the office of J. J. Maxey, City Secretary, Slaton, Texas, and Parkhill, Smith and Cooper, Consulting Engineers, 1414 Avenue J, Lubbock, Texas.

Copies of Plans and Specifications may be secured from Parkhill, Smith and Cooper, Consulting Engineers, 1414 Avenue J, Lubbock, Texas, upon a deposit of $15.00 as a guarantee of the safe return of the plans and specifications. The full amount of the deposit will be returned if a bona fide bid is submitted and Plans and Specifications are returned within five (5) days after receipt of bids, or, in case no bid is submitted, if Plans and Specifications are returned on or before date of receipt of bids; otherwise, the deposit will be forfeited.

WILLIAMS BUICK CO. MOVES INTO NEW HOME

Pictured above is the recently completed W. E. Smart building at 8th and East Lynn Streets, opening today as the new home of Williams Buick Company. Contractor in charge of constructing the building was Charley Lewis. O. B. Landmon, local painter, finished the interior of the building in light shades of green. The newly designed building will be open to the inspection of the public today and tomorrow, March 16 and 17. Also, the company is ready for business, and will be glad to help you with any automotive needs.

Williams' Buick Company Opens In New Location

Friday and Saturday, March 16 and 17, marks the opening of the Williams Buick Company in its new location at the corner of Lynn and North 8th Streets. The public is given a special invitation to visit the new place on those two days and look over the bright new Buicks as well as the remodelled building.

W. C. Williams, owner of the Williams Buick Co., was born in Stephenville, Texas, March 9, 1907. He graduated from Lorenzo High School in 1924 and then attended John Tarleton College at Stephenville. In 1926 he went to Pampa where he became a retail salesman for a Chevrolet company in 1929. He resigned his position there January 1, 1950 and moved to Slaton a few months later to open the Buick company at 172 Texas Avenue.

Williams married Gertrude Glasgow of Perryton, Texas in 1934. She also, is a native Texan. They have an adopted son, Wayne Douglas, who will be three years old in May.

Williams was with the U. S. Engineers through World War II, serving in the North African campaign and the first 19 months of the Italian campaign. He was awarded the Bronze star and four battle stars, plus the good conduct medal.

While in Pampa he was a charter member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, later serving on the Chamber of Commerce. He had a four year perfect attendance record in the Kiwanis after returning from service. He is a member of the First Methodist Church.

Mr. Williams said, "We are highly pleased with the reception given us in Slaton, and wish to thank all our customers and the many friends we have made during our first year here in business." The new business place is given to serving the people of Slaton and vicinity in all automotive needs. "We hope to be able to serve any and all needs pertaining to auto service and irrigation motors," stated the owner. "We would like to meet and welcome all citizens of Slaton and its trade territory to the opening of our new building this week end. Your criticism and comments are invited. We ask that you give us a chance to serve you."

The new building, finished in several light tones of green, is about 50 feet by 120 feet. The display floor is 48 by 50. A large well-equipped parts department and two office rooms are located in the main room. A large service department is equipped to give you only the best service on your automobile. The used car lot is just north of the new building.

Changing Times

As a young nation, the U. S. used to sell raw materials and to buy finished products abroad. Now the situation is reversed and it sells mainly finished goods and buys crude materials and semi-manufactures.

King Richard

The modern butcher would have loved King Richard the Lion-Hearted for a steady customer. Richard, who ruled England about 1190 A. D., would take a whole leg of lamb in his fist and eat it at a sitting.

Pineapple Milk Punch

A homemade pineapple milk punch may be made by mixing 1 cup of chilled pineapple juice and 3 tablespoons of sugar, then slowly adding 1 quart of cold milk while beating the mixture with a rotary egg beater.

Highway Lighting

Better highway lighting is needed to reduce night accidents. Not only would it increase visibility, but it would reduce headlight glare caused by bright lights on dark highways.

Mixing Milk

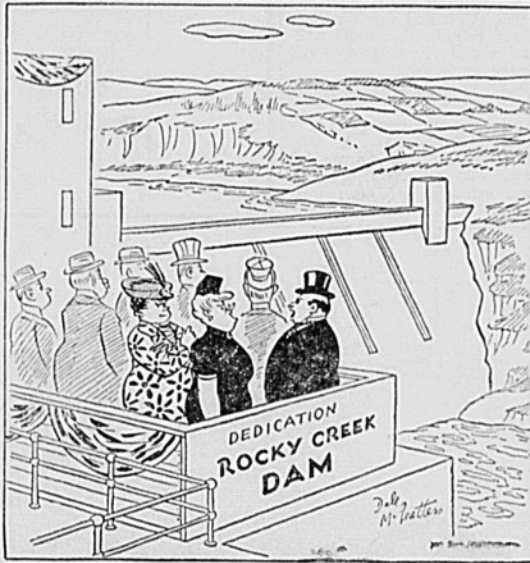

New milk or cream should never be mixed with old milk or cream.

Not Brown Study

A sunny living room, done in the modern manner, has walls painted in chocolate brown and trim coated in pale ivory. Desk and tables are of gleaming mahogany, while upholstery and accessory colors introduce pale yellow, copper-rose and deep green. The floor covering is gray green, the ceiling, ivory.

Spotted Fever

The mortality of Rocky mountain spotted fever throughout the nation averaged 23 per cent in 4,033 cases reported during the period 1939-1946. Fortunately, two of the newer antibiotics, aureomycin and chloromycetin, give promise of being effective in treatment of this disease.

Pear Crop

Fruit farmers in the United States have estimated their total pear crop at 27,914,000 bushels in 1950. This is 23 percent below last year and eight percent below average.

THIS and THAT FROM HERE and THREE

Trends—If the public inspected the work of classroom teachers as it does the ability of football coaches every Friday during season there would probably be as big a turnover in teachers as there is in coaches. On the other hand, such public interest would generate a desire among both teachers and pupils to do better work. Everyone admits that public education is the backbone of democracy, but few of us take the trouble to find out whether the backbone is straight or crooked.

—The Crosbyton Review

Side Views—Some hick farmer came to town Wednesday and plowed up part of the pavement on main street. He evidently forgot that he was in town and not in his field. Result! A large strip of pavement plowed up in front of the implement company.

—The Lorenzo Tribune

Editorial Comment—We see that there is growing opposition, not only in Washington, but in the fork of the creek, that the United Nations be dumped and that America form such alliances as we may control.

All of us get pretty peeved at the antics of Stalin and wish that we could kick him and his crew into the middle of the sea. But there is something more to the United Nations than meets the eye.

We have tried at various times to induce the nations of the world to play ball with us, in our own way. UN probably suits none of us very well, but if we do not stay in this organization, we are certain to soon find ourselves either without organization or without friends. Even weak friends are better than no friends at all.

—The Canyon News

Off the Keyboard—One of the newest things in Brownfield is the 1951 telephone directory being distributed by the Southwestern Associated Telephone Company. From A to Z, there appear to be many more listings in both the alphabetical and classified sections than were in last year's book, now well-thumbed.

—The Brownfield News

"So I Sez . . ."—The celebrated French poet, Saint-Foix who, in spite of his large income, was always in debt, was one day in a barber's shop waiting to be shaved. He was lathered when the door opened and a tradesman entered who happened to be one of the poet's largest creditors. No sooner did this man see Saint-Foix than he angrily demanded his money. The poet composedly begged him not make a scene.

"Won't you wait for the money until I am shaved?"

"Certainly," said the other, pleased at the prospect. Saint-Foix then made the barber a witness to the agreement, and immediately took a towel, wiped the lather from his face, and left the shop. He wore a beard to the end of his days.

—The West Texas Prairie

Party Line—The James P. Zachary family got a television set last Christmas—just for the heck of it—and have been able to get "about five hours entertainment a month" out of it.

The television programs, Zachary reports, come in from Birmingham, Ala., and Mexico City, although the nearest television stations are Fort Worth and Albuquerque, N. M.

The unusual reception, Zachary explains, is a phenomenon known as "skip." The programs are usually received here between the hours of 5 and 7 p.m.

Zachary has promised to let the County Wide News know about it the next time he gets a program on the TV set. We want to get a picture of it.

—The County Wide News

The Hired Hand—The real losers in the current furor over the basketball "fixes," flagrant recruiting practices on the part of colleges and general overemphasis of athletics will be the boys who love the game for the sake of the game alone and the fan who never lays a dollar on his team to win.

Public indignation is being aroused and the sensibilities of those in authority are being shocked to the point where there can be no result other than deemphasis of athletics.

It is impossible to fix the blame on any one factor in the current mess.

We believe, however, that if gamblers—large and petty, professional and amateur, crooked and "honest"—had not turned to athletic contests in such large numbers the situation would not be nearly so bad as it is now.

—The Seminole Sentinel

FYI—A cordial welcome is extended to the young farmers of Gaines County who will be in Seagraves this week end for the annual livestock show. We would like to add at this point a welcome to their dads and mothers who have undoubtedly helped the lads along with their feeding projects—and human nature being what it is, perhaps done a part of the work.

The growth of agriculture is booming this year in Gaines County, and it will be well if livestock raising is figured in as a part of this development. The training the Future Farmers and 4-H Club boys are receiving will help to insure this factor in a well-rounded farming program.

—The Gaines County News

Editorial—Under the Selective Service Act of 1948 it is possible for an alien to make application for relief from liability for training and service in the armed forces of the United States. It is made clear in the application that the person who does so will forever lose his right to become a citizen of the United States.

From this distance it looks very much as though our government is planning to reward immigrants and DPs for failure to become citizens. It is granting aliens immunity from military service at the same time it says that every native-born citizen shall serve at his peril.

Recent years have seen a vast amount of publicity favorable to inviting refugees and victims of Europe's wars to settle in America. Now it looks as though we are saying to these same people—"Remain with us, enjoy our hospitality, profit from jobs and business opportunities caused by war and made greater because young Americans are off fighting your battles. Remain as long as you like in our country. Take your earnings and profits back to your native country when the war is over. Just sign this blank and you can have all these things. You won't ever become a citizen, but that is not necessary anyhow."

How do you like this?

WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT BUICK WILL BUILD THEM

Now that the 1951 offerings of the motorcar industry have had a chance to strut their stuff, we ask you—can there be any doubt which is the really smart buy?

If you want a "new look"—Buick has it. That sturdy push-bar forefront says "1951" to all who see it—and provides unsurpassed front-end protection to boot.

If you want power that you can live with through many moons to come—Buick has that too. Years of expert engineering have made Buick's thrill-packed Fireball engine just about as dependable as a power plant can be.

If you want features that combine present pleasure with long-time durability, consider this:

Buick's level-going ride stems from coil springs on all four wheels which are virtually break-proof and never need servicing.

Buick's Dynaflo Drive* takes the strain out of every mile of driving—and pays off by eliminating any need for friction clutch repairs and replacements, by reducing engine and transmission upkeep, and lengthening life of tires.

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

If you want room and comfort and handling that make any trip a breeze—there's no simpler way to find them than to take over a '51 Buick SPECIAL, SUPER or ROADMASTER—relax and enjoy yourself.

And if you want all this at a minimum outlay of dollars—one look at Buick prices will settle this point.

So the smartest thing you can do is get in touch with your Buick dealer. How about doing that right now?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

"Excavation At Nimrud Confirm The Bible Stories Of The Assyrians"—Learn how many of the ancient legends have been verified and further proof has been found concerning the fate of the "Lost Ten Tribes." Look for this beautifully-illustrated, exclusive article in The American Weekly, that great Magazine distributed with next Sunday's Los Angeles Examiner.

"Teaching Your Child How To Spend"—Too many parents give their children everything they want, no matter how great the sacrifice, neglecting to teach them men that the entire social structure will do a turn-about-face and the gals will ask the fellows out, foot the bill, drive the car, (or helicopter, whichever the case may be) and generally step into the responsibility the fellows now hold on a date.

And so, let us look into the crystal ball for a moment, and come up with a typical high school date in 1975.

Mary, the great athlete, and star of the high school basketball team is on her way to pick up John, who is just the cutest little thing you could possibly imagine.

Mary is rather tired, as she has been working on her 1975 baby blue Buick convertible all day. As she drives up in front of John's house, she takes a quick look into the rearview mirror to be sure her hair is combed. (You're not supposed to know this yet, but since I'm writing this story and you're a friend of mine, I'll let you in on a little secret, Mary is going to ask John to go steady with her. Now, just pretend you don't know about it and we will go on with the story.)

When Mary rings the doorbell, John's mother answers and tells her that John is not quite ready yet. Mary smiles and then makes a joke about how men are never ready when a girl calls for them but John's mother doesn't get the joke and Mary feels quite foolish. She is just about to dig a hole and crawl in, when a wave of relief, in form of John, walks in. He smiles at her and she stands up.

John looks perfectly delightful. He is wearing his best pair of light purple slacks and his new pink shirt. That's what Mary likes about John—he's such a sharp dresser. Before they leave, John's mother asks Mary where she is taking John and tells her to have him in before midnight as John needs his beauty sleep. Mary agrees (not that John needs his beauty sleep—John is just the cutest little thing you could possibly imagine) but that she will have him in before midnight.

And so, our two lovers depart. (Isn't this sweet??)

By this time Mary is in the car and they dig out. They are going to a show. As they walk up to the box office Mary steps forward and buys the tickets. John walks on in and as Mary approaches, he looks pointedly at the popcorn machine. Mary, on the other hand looks pointedly in opposite direction and so, there they stood, back to back, until the usherette came to guide them to their seats.

Well, time marches on, as it has a habit of doing and no matter what John and Mary seem to do or say, the other one just doesn't seem to like it.

So Mary takes John home and we have a perfect example of the immovable object against the irresistible force, 1975 style.

On my way to and from home I have seen E. M. Lott and C. L. Pack thrashing hoes, rakes and grubbing hoes around. They have spread fertilizer all over their front yards. There's no telling what they have done in the rear of their premises, and I want to set them up as examples to such men as Lee Wootton, Doc Crow, Nat Heaton, Pete Pearson, J. D. Holt, and John Berkley, and I want all these men to remember that I have called their attention to the fact that they should have been stirring themselves at the proper time instead of fiddle faddling around. It might be that I should remind a few folks like Mrs. Max Arrants, Mrs. W. E. Payne and Mrs. W. T. Cherry that they should get busy too, and I am also trying to suggest to my own wife that some one should stir up some dirt at our place or things are going to look very much like they did last summer, and Mr. Lott and Mrs. Pack will be taking big bows from the folks who come around dishing out compliments about how beautiful their places look and most of the rest of us will be picking sand burrs out of where grassburrs seem to get, particularly in the seat of my pants.

—o—
It always does me good to have a chat with Miss Myrtle Teague, who has been visiting her folks. When we first came to Slaton Miss Myrtle was taking the money over at the Gas Company, and it seemed to me that it did not hurt as much as most operations of this kind. Several years ago Myrtle left Slaton to go to Dallas, but on occasions she comes back and goes around town cheering folks up making all of the corners on two wheels, sometimes on just one.

Myrtle always seems a little bit surprised at whatever happens or at what is said and whatever it is she seems to be happy about it even if it is the likelihood of an atom bomb at any minute.

Not long ago she breezed into the office, pushed some very important documents off a chair, onto the floor, said her paper was not going to the correct address in Dallas and reported that several friends of hers, who are ardent readers of the Slatonite, were complaining that the paper is not coming regularly, and demanded better service.

She and her friends have been scanning the classified advertising ever since the ad appeared from the man who was looking for a wife. He was accepting applications only from one woman who owned a tractor and he asked that pictures of the tractor be sent along with applications.

Myrtle has a good picture of a frying pan in case there are any men who might be looking for women equipped with cooking utensils.

Way back vonder when we lived in Amarillo we had some mighty good friends namer Barnt and they are the parents of a daughter who is showing signs of being afflicted with the writing virus. They live in San Rafale, California, and Jackie Barnt is a feature writer on the High School paper there. In a copy of the publication she has turned to prophecy. Here is what she predicts: Rumor has it that the women here in the United States now outnumber the men by quite a considerable number. Now, that in itself is not so bad, but let's take a look into the future.

The experts, who are really on the dime when it comes to letting us know what is going to happen—(for instance, in Truman's election) well-er-ah, as I was saying—the experts have some sort of an idea that, in the not too distant future, women will so outnumber

We Should Have More Fun!

Even with all of the responsibilities and terrible aspects of the present and the future, there is a lighter side to life and the community, town or city that ignores the importance of having enough amusement for the people who live in the area is headed for grief. Even the Government realizes the importance of breaking the monotony of military life to provide entertainers for the men on the fighting fronts where tragedy stalks hand in hand with humor and pathos.

The people of this area do not have enough entertainment, and as the center of a prosperous and aggressive area, Slaton, as a community, should provide it. The prosperity of the merchants, the growth of the town and well being of the community requires more recreational facilities.

There are some objections by some people to having a municipal swimming pool in Slaton, but the fact remains that most all towns the size of Slaton do provide a big, fresh water swimming pool for the people of the community.

There are no regular days set aside in Slaton for any kind of observance but there are a number of days that could be designated as holidays here. The town made a good start to observe an annual birthday last year when Frontier days were observed, but to date there has been no evidence that another Birthday will be observed this year.

To say whose specific duty it is to promote the Birthdays and other observances might be hard to designate, but last year the Slaton Chamber of Commerce did a mighty fine job and it would be doing the community a favor if the birthday idea is followed up.

Mr. A. C. Strickland, sr., was one of the first, if not the first man in this area to work on the idea of a live stock show for the FFA and 4-H Clubs and the show that was held last Saturday was well worth the efforts that have been made. Much credit for this goes to Robert Hall Davis who has devoted much time to the show.

The providing of amusements and recreation for any community falls on the shoulders of a limited number of people, the revenue, to the few, is nothing, the honor not as much as it should be, and the work heavy, but there are public spirited people in a town who will undertake such enterprises and if there ever was a time in Slaton when they should come forward and grab hold now is the time.

Slaton has made more progress within the past five years than it has in most any other past five, and while the future looks like a sand storm coming up over Lubbock, there is always a better day coming and Slaton should be ready to greet that day with a great big smile.

Are Our Land Prices High?

That irrigated land in this part of Texas may still be very underpriced may be true, although most everyone seems to think that land prices have about reached their top value.

That South Plains land will grow most any kind of crops, except tropical vegetation, has been proven time after time. It is most probable that good irrigated land in this part of the country will be selling for four and five hundred dollars an acre or even more within the next decade.

This estimate is based on the fact that land in other irrigated parts of the country runs up into the thousands of dollars per acre and a lot of it is not as productive as land is in West Texas.

Due to the fact that there is very little produce or fruit grown in West Texas practically all of the vegetables and fruit must be shipped into this section. The demand for such things is good and the supply expensive. Why the growing of truck farms in this section has never been a good industry is hard to answer, but the reason is not because the best of lettuce, carrots, potatoes and onions cannot be produced. It is probably because the people who know how to grow these things have never tried to do so in West Texas.

Some day, when the land has been worn out from growing cotton and grain, it is likely that the truck growers will move in.

All of this of course is dependent upon whether the underground water supply holds out.

The water question in West Texas, and particularly on the South Plains is something that will have to be answered before long, regardless of what happens to the Canadian Dam project. That is likely a local proposition for Amarillo and the North Plains, but Lubbock, Slaton, Post, Tahoka and other towns out here will have the problem to solve and all of these towns are stumbling along unconsciously to a crisis that will cost more, and more the longer it is put off. It will not be long before it becomes a near catastrophe.

Move Over, Crusoe!

There are people who like the bag-pipe. But not too much at a time. It is said there are some who like two bag-pits.
But only hardy souls who have heard a whole pipers' band, complete with drums, are competent to judge the full possibilities of that medieval instrument and its effect on modern men.

Those who can tolerate the full ensemble with equani-mity, we would guess, are mostly people who also cast straw votes for radios in streetcars and busses and who include the whole surrounding block in their enjoyment of baseball broadcasts.

Those who truly like a bag-pipe band must be Scotsmen through and through. And they could be said to like it only if a kind of atavistic exhilaration be enjoyment.

As for all the others, bag-pipes in the mass are simply stunning or maddening—depending on the temperament of the victim. And it is this remainder, this general public, we would warn.

For a menace is in the offing. A New York toy maker is producing a plastic bag-pipe which, gauged by today's dollar, will sell at a "popular" price. It is said to emit every groan, moan, squeak, and shriek that ever echoed through the Pass of Killiecrankie. And—most brutal of all—Junior can learn to play it in 10 minutes.

If this or some other rugged free enterpriser should now get out one of those two-handed bass drums to go along at a toy counter figure, the flight to the coral isles will be on in earnest.—Taken from the Christian Science Monitor.

QUOTES!

The summer home of Randolph Guggenheimer, the lawyer, is named Barn Yesterday. Shortly after its completion, a pipe burst, and a plumber had to be summoned late at night. Mr.
Guggenheimer and his wife waited for the plumber at the entrance to the estate. "Before you begin," said Mr. Guggenheimer, "I want to acquaint you with the cause of the trouble." The plumber bowed very low to Mrs. Guggenheimer. "I am certainly pleased to meet you," he said.—Bennett Cerf, Laughter Incorporated (Garden City.)

A boy is a bank where you may deposit your most precious treasures—the hard-won wisdom, the dreams for a better world. A boy can guard and protect these, and perhaps invest them wisely and win a profit—a larger one than you have ever dreamed of.—Leader, Loville, New York.

Automotive Industry
An estimated $1,750,000,000 has been spent by the automotive industry since the end of the war in modernizing and expanding facilities and building new plants to supply the heavy demand for new cars and parts.

Frayed Lampcords
To keep the outer covering of a lampcord from fraying near the ends, coat the edge with shellac before the cord is connected inside a plug or socket. Shellac is an ex-

CHICK CHATS Presented By
Dr. Salsbury's Laboratories

EXERCISE HELPS CHICKS DO BETTER

Exercise has an important influence on the growth and development of a baby chick. A chick deprived of exercise often does poorly. On the other hand, one given the benefit of range, sunlight, and fresh air is usually in superior health.

There are a number of ways to provide chicks with exercise, but the main way is to keep chicks feeling "active". Then they will provide themselves with exercise.

In doing this, a raiser should pay particular attention to brooder house temperature. By maintaining a room temperature of from 50 degrees to 60 degrees F., and keeping the house well-ventilated, a poultryman can usually keep his chicks busy and on the move.

Running Out-of-Doors

Of course, a poultry raiser should not overlook the importance of letting his chicks out-of-doors as soon as possible. In this respect, remember that it is safe for chicks to run out-side from the time they are four or five days old, provided they have a warm hover handy when they feel the need of it. This gives them plenty of exercise and the necessary exposure to the direct rays of the sun, both highly important factors in keeping chicks healthy.

In addition, chicks out-of-doors, or on range, can pick their own green food.

In making an outside pen accessible to chicks, remember that chickens are bothered less by wind when the run-way hole is on the protected side of the house.
Also keep in mind that the brooder house should face the south for maximum exposure to sunlight (in most locations).

Keep Old and Young Separated
The brooder house should never be situated so that old and young stock mix on the range, because old stock is usually the principal source of coccidiosis, respiratory disease, worms, and other diseases. If this is inconvenient, it is advisable to keep the old birds confined, giving the young stock access to the range without the danger of contact with the older birds.

Adding emphasis to the above point is the fact that better livability may be expected when chickens are raised in isolation. Experiments at various agricultural farms and colleges bear this out.

West Texas Roundup

A storehouse of missing persons has been gradually accumulating for the past 32 years, and now the task of locating 32,000 West Texas State graduates has been handed to a small, but progressive band of workers.

The purpose of the extensive search, which has necessitated letters and telephone calls to various parts of the country, is the creation of an Ex-Students Association. Never in the school's history has such a project been undertaken.

Heading the search is Milton Morris, executive secretary of the infant organization, and his two assistants, Dorothy Lawless and Sue Christy. The trio of tireless workers spend sometime as many as 12 hours a day searching for past students. To them, a simple needle in a haystack would be like taking candy from a baby as compared to their gigantic undertaking.

Miss Katherine Sue Wright, 22-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wright of Littlefield, was in a critical condition Wednesday in a Dallas hospital following injuries Friday night in a head-on car collision on the Fort Worth highway 25 miles south of Jacksboro.

Miss Wright was removed to the Dallas hospital Wednesday morning and put under the care of a brain specialist. Following the accident Friday night, she was taken to the Jacksboro clinic.

Friends learned here Wednesday that the injured girl has not regained consciousness since the accident in which a friend, Miss Lou Ann Brock, 22, of Dallas was killed.

Saturday, March 3, 1951, was a red letter day in the lives of 140 Levelland FHA girls, members of the senior high school and junior high school chapters of the Future Homemakers of America.

The local girls were hostesses to an estimated more than 1,000 at 4 p. m. Thursday 927 had registered FHA girls from all over Area Two, at the annual spring meeting.

In addition to the girls, many mothers and fathers accompanied the individual chapters to the all-day program arranged at the senior high school.

City and County law officers reported a busy week Thursday with a fresh outbreak of burglaries and cattle rustling plaguing Brownfield and Terry Counties.

Police Chief Houston Hamilton said burglars broke into Knight Furniture company Wednesday night and stole $62 following two burglaries Thursday night.

Tuesday two men apparently entered Hoy's Flower shop at 310 W. Main through a rear window and stole $13, $5 of it in silver dollars. The same men went in the back of Jim Miller's Service station wash rack at 612 W. Main, broke a knob on a door and when they couldn't get in that way went around to the front and broke a window to enter.

Hamilton said they only got a few rolls of pennies for their efforts.

Seminole High school lost its second head coach via the resignation route in less than a year Tuesday night when Morris Southall, veteran of four years on the Indian brain trust, submitted his resignation.

Southall asked that his resignation be effective on April 1, or at an earlier date if a suitable replacement could be found.

The ex-Hardin-Simmons griddler mover from assistant coach to head coach last summer following the resignation of Gordon Wood. Like Wood, Southall resigned to accept the head coach's post at Winters. Wood recently moved over to Stamford.

Paymaster, Big "C", And Everlay Products Featured At Eaves Produce; Also Home Grown Meats Available

Eaves Produce began to operate under that name in 1936 when A. C. Eaves and son, J. H. (Skinny) purchased the Douglas Produce. At that time store sales were centered on feed and produce. In 1943 an expansion program began when they added the grocery section. Mr. Eaves describes it as "a general merchandise store" now.

Not only does Eaves sell feeds, groceries, and produce, but you will find everything from a little in the line of shelf hardware to brooms, school supplies, razor blades, sun glasses, smoking pipes, and even work gloves.

In the produce department, the Eaves store features such brands as Big "C" Everlay and Paymaster. They can sell you almost any kind of farm feeds you might need.

For instance in the Big "C" and Paymaster lines you can get Egg Mash, Grow Mash, and Hen Scratch. Also, Big "C" shorts, bran, meal, milo, corn chops, dairy feeds and many others. Big "C" is manufactured by the Canadian Mills in Oklahoma.

Besides feeds, the Eaves Produce carries all kinds of field and garden seeds, both bulk and package seeds. All the eggs sold from their store are bought from local farmers and sold directly through them. Before selling, each egg is individually candled, or tested, in order that they can assure the customers that every egg is fresh.

Meats sold in the market at Eaves are bought both locally and from packing houses, but the majority of it comes from in and around Slaton. They also carry nationally advertised brands of groceries and canned goods. A refrigerated vegetable counter is provided to keep vegetables fresh, and so that you may pick out your own products. Also, they have both bottle and cartoned milk from the Bell and McElhany dairies.

To insure freshness of their products, the Eaves Store has installed a large storage vault for eggs, produce and meat. The temperature is kept around 35 degrees in order that nothing will be frozen, but safe refrigeration will be available at all times.

For all of your feed, seed, and grocery needs you can depend on Eaves Produce, located at 166 South 8th Street in Slaton.
