Assurance Of Future Water Supply Driving Factor In The Canadian River Dam Project

(Editor's Note: Howard Hoffman, Slaton's director on the Canadian River Municipal Water Authority; Mayor Clark Self; and J. J. Maxey, city secretary, were interviewed for information on the proposed Canadian River dam project Wednesday. Results follow. Several more of this type of interview will be staged between now and whatever time Slaton has its election on a contract with the authority to purchase water.)

Slaton must protect its rights in the Canadian River dam project, especially in the light of declining water tables in the South Plains. This feeling was unanimous among the three people mentioned above in a recent interview.

Slaton will call an election in the not-too-distant future on a contract with CRMWA for water to cost 21.26 per thousand gallons. This price was compared to other prices expected to be paid around the Plains area in yesterday's interview.

To begin with, it would be well to remember that on March 13, 1956, Slaton voters did vote FOR a contract with the water authority, at a price of 22.5 cents per thousand gallons treated. Financial arrangements and authority make-up has changed somewhat since that time, however, and would now pay 21.26 for untreated water. Slaton has been able to wrangle a little over a cent reduction in its price.

That 1956 election carried 165 for to 37 against and a contract was signed on April 4th of that year for proportionately the same amount of water as the community would take this time.

As a working figure, Slaton has agreed to take 700,000 gallons of water per day, in latest negotiations.

It was pointed out that now, with water wells drilled and owned by the City, the cost of getting water to houses in the community is in the neighborhood of 30 to 35 cents per thousand gallons. This is actually from eight to 13 cents more than the proposed cost of Canadian River water, at the spot where the proposed aqueduct would be tied into by City water lines. To this must be added the cost of treating the water (expected to be around five cents per thousand gallons), running water lines, distribution, maintenance and operation, etc., and it would cost more than present water debts.

As the situation now exists, the sale of water must also cover the cost of providing sewer service as there is no sewer charge. This, plus operation and maintenance costs, is what would put the cost of present City water to the 30 cent mark or above.

As another saving factor, Canadian River water would preclude any necessity for exploration and drilling of new City wells. Of course, if everything was ready for work to get underway on getting the dam constructed today, it would still be approximately eight years before water would be delivered to Slaton and this community would have to find new water sources to fill its demands during those eight years.

A schedule of proposed cost of water to local users will be worked out between now and the time of Slaton's election on the contract, probably some time this fall.

It was reported that the White River Authority, to which

Post, Crosbyton and other cities belong, would charge more for water than the Canadian River group with water cost some cities in the White River organization approximately 30 cents per thousand gallons, plus tax assessment.

It is also understood that Spring, and other cities using water from Lake J. B. Thomas are paying in the vicinity of cents per thousand gallons of water.

Slaton users are now paying $2.50 for the first three thousand gallons of water they use each month, forty cents for the next thousand, thirty cents for the next thousand gallons and 20 cents per thousand for over five thousand gallons during the summer, 25 cents per thousand for all over five thousand gallons during the winter.

HOSPITAL ADDITION UNDERWAY

Working in Mercy Hospital and in the Catholic School here, and some ends at the hospital. Construction will provide 3,354 square feet of additional at the hospital. Work is also being done on an addition to the Convent.

Construction Of Addition To Mercy Hospital, Convent Is Underway Here

The addition to Mercy will amount to 3,354 square feet and will be one floor only, constructed in such a way as to add on later if needed.

The reinforced concrete frame structure will feature brick and tile walls, aluminum windows, terrazzo floors, a ceramic tile kitchen, fluorescent lighting, etc. It will cost approximately $54,619.00.

The addition can be added to the future with provisions being made for three more floors with patient rooms on the 2nd, 3rd and 4th floors.

Some remodeling work on the present building is also being done with dining rooms being converted into wards and the present kitchen expected to serve as a central service or supply room. The all-electric kitchen being constructed will have stainless steel equipment. Cost of kitchen equipment will be approximately $12,000.00. There will be refrigerated air conditioning for the dining rooms and evaporative cooling in the kitchen. The addition will have a pan type concrete roof.

The new addition will also provide for dining rooms for Nuns, nurses and visitors.

An addition of 1,744 square feet of space to the present Convent is also planned. The added space will provide accommodations for six Nuns. It also will have a reinforced concrete frame with steel in the roof and roof framing, brick and tile walls to match the existing tile baths, and refrigerated air conditioning. Cost is estimated at $25,000.

Sister Mercedes is the present hospital administrator.

Good Attendance At School Board Meet; School Starts September 6

Thirteen local residents appeared before the Slaton School Board in its meeting Tuesday night to study the board's methods of operation and ask questions concerning various school policies.

They were Dr. Tom Talbert, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Conner, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bollinger, Mrs. Trawek, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Longtin, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Henry and Mrs. John Fondy.

The group was told that East Ward School was torn down and replaced because engineers had informed the trustees that to repair and remodel the 38-year-old building would cost virtually as much as an adequate new building.

Other answers to the group's questions included: Students attend East or West Ward School, depending upon where they live in the community and not because of race. There is a two-block wide strip at the eastern edge of the West Ward territory in which students can attend either school; Superintendent Lee Vardy said summer school was not held because there were not enough students requesting it (on this point the visiting group felt adequate publicity was not given to the possibility of having a summer school); the group was invited to examine the budget when a Public Hearing is held on it, August 15.

In other action at the meeting, the date of September 6th was set for the beginning of school. This is the day after Labor Day.

Also, it was reported that construction on the new East Ward School will be completed before school starts and the building can be used. Construction work at Junior High is not expected to be completed in time for the opening of school but will be in use shortly before proposed budget will be held at a meeting on a proposed addition to High School is being held up pending the passage or defeat of a bill before Congress now which might provide some financial aid on the project.

The public hearing on the one and that was due to a resignation on Monday, August 15, at High School.

Superintendent Vardy said all teachers had been hired for the fall term with the exception of one and that was due to a resignation in the last few days.

The board elected 12 new teachers, including one who is returning after a year's absence. She is Virgie Hunter, who taught here formerly and then spent a year in the East. She will teach second grade. Others are Evelyn Waldren, third; Lillian Brown, second; Sarah Rhodes, fifth; Sue Ann Jenkins, Junior High art; Mrs. M. M. Schlueter, sixth; Mrs. Dorothy Pace, Junior High music; R. A. Lagrone, Junior High social studies; Jack McSpadden, Junior High coach; Richard Lee, Junior High science; Willa Faye Graves, High School home-making; and Don Tankersly, vocational agriculture.

Tankersly is an addition and McSpadden takes the place of Tommy Laceywell, who has been elevated to a High School assistant coaching job.

There are around 89 teachers in the system, with four more this year than last. School officials expect approximately 75 more scholastics for the coming term.

Jess Kennington Dies In Hospital

Services were conducted at p.m. Tuesday in the First Baptist Church here for Jess Kennington, 90, a resident of this area since 1928.

Kennington died in Mercy Hospital here about 1:10 p.m. Sunday.

GETTING WORSE AND WORSE

Anyone, whose sense of smell is not ossified, who was within 20 miles of Lubbock over the week end of July 23, was surely offended by the stench that radiated from feeding lots just outside the city limits of that progressive and ill-smelling metropolis.

It is reported that some cattle have been placed in a feeding lot on the outskirts of Slaton and that some of the same kind of perfume is present in our area, although not quite as penetrating yet, because the local lot has been developed to the extent that those in Lubbock have.

It has been pointed out that the lots in Lubbock bring in a vast amount of revenue to the farmers of this area and to the cotton mills. This might be true. But no account has been made as to how much damage is being done to the reputation of this entire area.

The offense, not only to the people who pass through the South Plains, but to the people who live in the heritory can not be counted in dollars.

The odor was perceptible not only in Slaton but penetrated to all parts of Lubbock. Whether there is a health risk or not of conditions even remain as they are the pleasures of living on the South Plains have been seriously impaired.

It is very doubtful whether any of the farmers within twenty miles of Lubbock would vote to have the nuisance remain, regardless of how much revenue they may gain from the feeding lots as a market for their products and it would take a mighty tough individual in any other classification of endeavor to be able to stand the conditions that seem likely to continue, or get worse unless some powerful pressure is not brought to bear.

It seems that City of Lubbock officials are ducking their responsibility because the Lubbock City dump is an offender of the zone too.

KEEPING RIGHT IN STYLE

There are a great many more nice trees in Slaton when compared to other towns on the Plains, but unfortunately the early settlers in our city planted most of them in the parkway between the sidewalks and the curbing.

This is no longer good style and more trees have been destroyed in the last year than at any similar time in the past. It seems a shame to dig up trees out here in this semi-desert land but nothing can stand in the way of new styles in building homes or new styles in women's dresses. Tear out trees and reduce hips at any cost.

SOMEWHERE OVER THE RAINBOW

From Now 'til November

Both Democratic and Republican legislators will be trying to build a campaign record during the closing part of the 86th Congress. They will vote for the bills they think will win votes. Both parties will be anxious to "give the people what they want". And since so many people want so many things, we may find ourselves overwhelmed by Congressional generosity.

Unfortunately, more Congressional spending—no matter what it is for—will add to the inflation that already has cut so much purchasing power out of the dollar.

Some very expensive proposals remain to be acted on by Congress. Each of them would benefit some special group of voters. But their total effect would be to hurt all citizens through inflation.

Our Congressmen are under strong pressure to vote for these bills. They will do so unless they receive some indication from us that we believe it is more important to stop inflation than to obtain government handouts for ourselves or for any special groups—however worthy those groups may be.

The Sounding Board

Editor's Note: The Post Dispatch would like to see a few time-tried practices revived, it would appear in the following article. After that comes a few thoughts of Douglas Meador of the Matador Tribune. Doug is one of the most-quoted men in the United States, we heard some place.)

ARE RUSSIAN KIDS SPINNING TOPS?

In a town somewhere to the south and east of us, but still in Texas, they have an annual top-spinning contest, in which men, women and children compete. We hadn't thought of it for years, but we wonder: Where are the tops? Or, for that matter, where are the marbles? Or mumbly-peg? Or the dozen other things that made a long, lazy summer a heaven for boys?

And, suddenly, we think we know. The boys are busy being entertained by adults in "supervised recreation." And we're inclined to be a bit curious why the term "juvenile delinquency" had never been thought of when the kids were so neglected that they went to the devil playing run-sheep-run and shinny and one-eyed cat.

Some of the more venturesome among them hunted wild berries or persimmons or walnuts, came home with their pans or sacks full and a sense of accomplishment. A lot of them picked berries on shares and brought home their share for mom to can. Widow ladies never needed to worry about their lawn-mowing. There were a dozen boys in the neighborhood ready to do the job for a quarter — or two-bits, as a quarter was called in those days. And it had better be done right or some other kid would do the job next time.

But we suppose it was not good. There were no child-labor laws which said a kid couldn't work without getting permission from the school authorities. The Government had not yet decreed that everybody should be paid a dollar an hour. There was no social security. No forty-hour week. No time-and-a-half. No income taxes.

In short, there had been no social progress. But, somehow, all the kids grew up to be self-reliant citizens. And they built a great nation. And they now read that the Russians are working harder than we are and their leader has promised them they can bury us.

The thing we don't know, and Concluded Columnist Parker: "As I looked at the healthy specimen, I impulsively examined: "What a built!" — Time

Recently in the Readers Digest I noted that there is small town in Texas on the outskirts of which there is a sign reading "469 Friendly people and three grouchies."

At first thought, I decided I would enjoy living in such a community, but a few nights ago when the heat was boiling and steaming and I was twisting and groaning I got to thinking the idea over and wondered how it would be if Slaton were filled with 6,490 friendly people and only 4 and 5 good old sore heads and I came to the conclusion that it would be the most monotonous place one could find in which to try to enjoy living. Just think of all the grinning faces one would face each day and each one spouting some cheerful greeting. Consider the fact that perhaps you had worked up a great big gripe about some purchase you had made and were down town to make some merchant give you your money back or else and he had obligingly done so or offered to replace the article with something just as good or better. Just consider feeling like spouting all up and down the square about how a depression is surely just around the corner and that taxes are going out of sight and not being able to find anyone to agree with you. What kind of a town would Slaton be where you would have to hunt all day for a good old soreheaded grouch. Personally I like it like it is.

Cole Gets State FFA Veep Post

James Cole of Slaton was named State Future Farmers of America First Vice-President during the organization's annual state meeting at Houston week before last.

Cole lost the state presidency after a very close runoff, Slaton FFA Chapter representatives said. Being runnerup, he was automatically appointed First Vice-President for the year 1960-61.

Local FFA representatives said, "We here at Slaton FFA are proud of our boy, James Cole, and feel that he is not only capable of performing his job well but deserves the honor for unselfish work in helping to make our organization what it is today. We are proud of our very pretty Sweetheart, Miss Carolyn Jo Rhoads, too."

Miss Rhoads was eliminated by only four votes for the finals in the State FFA Sweetheart contest.

Davi Bishop of Slaton received his Lone Star Farmer degree during the convention.

The Slaton party was composed of Miss Rhoads, her mother, Mrs. C. J. Rhoads and Mrs. Rhoads' sister, Mrs. Dede Mullins, Vocational Agriculture instructors J. P. Brown and Don Tankersly, Johnny Mangum, chapter delegate, Bishop, Danny Stewart, and Cole.

Highlight of the convention was the election for State FFA President, in which Joe Don Mrs. F. A. Perry, in her column in the Ballinger Ledger, reported that Richard Perry was hailed on the streets by a small girl who sat waiting for her mother in the family car while the parent shopped. "How long before Christmas?" inquired the young lady.

The inquiry seems to be along the same line as it is among most every one in the country these days. Only the question should be how long before Santa Claus gets here with more social security, a big hunk of medical care for the aged, higher minimum wage limits for the lazy, and a shorter working day and week for every body.

Personally I am expecting Santa to come every week with some kind of luscious hand out from Uncle Sam especially after we get a new President regardless of whether he will be Republican or Democrat

We have certainly got things fixed up at our house The air conditioning unit is on top of the house and has to be monkeyed with at least four or five times a year, the floor furnace requires an atomic expert to get it strted every fall, the electric stove scorches and burns, rings bells and winks lights that are always screeching and wailing. All we need now is an underground lawn watering system, a clothes washer, an electric knife sharpener and an automatic stomach massaging machine. Of course we would need the constant services of an electrician a plumber and a left-handed assistant fixer but just think of the amount of work we would save even if it would cost us more than we ever made in our life. We look forward to the future with fear trembling and great hopes

If you have a picture window in your home you might enjoy this bit of humor. In fact you might enjoy it whether you have one or not

In their newly purchased house a young couple was having marital difficulties. It seems the bride was a little too free with the family purse while her husband was of a more saving nature. One night they had an after-dinner quarrel. The husband firmly stated his accusations about her extravagance in front of the huge picture window in their living room. Suddenly his wife picked up a vase and started to throw it at him.

"For Pete's sake, Ethel," he shouted, flinging his arms across the window, "don't miss me!"

The average temperature for the week of July 24 through July 30 was 81 1/2.

According to Pioneer Natural Gas Company, the temperatures were Sunday, hi. 96; lo. 66; Monday, hi. 92; lo 71; Friday, hi. 89; lo, 69; and Saturday, hi, 96; lo, 70.

We appreciate the patronage that you the people of Slaton and surrounding area have given us from the time of our opening. We are looking forward to much more of this kind of relationship. So we take this opportunity to tell you that we will be gone 2 weeks on vacation from August 13 to August 26, and thank you again for your business.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 8, 1960.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 10, proposing an amendment to Article of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding thereto new Sections known as Sections 1, 2, and 3, provide that the Legislature may create the creation of Hospital Districts co-extensive with Lamar County, Hidalgo County, and County Commissioners Precinct No. 4 of Comanche County, having certain stated powers, duties and subject to certain stated limitations, providing that such Acts shall not be invalid because their anticipatory character; providing for the election of such districts in the form of ballot and providing for necessary proclamation and publication.

IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Texas be, and the same is hereby, amended by adding the following Sections which shall read as follows:

"Section 1. The Legislature may by law create the creation of a Hospital District co-extensive with Lamar County, Hidalgo County, and County Commissioners Precinct No. 4 of Comanche County, having the powers and duties and with the limitations presently provided in Article IX, Section 6(a), the Constitution of Texas, as it applies to Wichita County, except that the maximum rate of tax that the 4 Lamar County Hospital District is authorized to levy shall be five cents (5%) per One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation of taxable property within the District, subject to district taxation.

"Section 2. The Legislature may by law create the creation of a Hospital District co-extensive with Hidalgo County, having the powers and duties and with the limitations presently provided in Article IX, Section 6(a), the Constitution of Texas, as it applies to Hidalgo County, except that the maximum rate of tax that the 4 Hidalgo County Hospital District is authorized to levy shall be five cents (5%) per One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation of taxable property within the District subject to district taxation.

"Section 3. The Legislature may by law create the creation of a Hospital District to be co-extensive with the limits of County Commissioners Precinct No. 4 of Comanche County, Texas.

"If such District is created, it may be authorized to levy a tax not to exceed five cents (5%) on the One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation of taxable property within the District; provided, however, no tax may be levied until approved by a majority vote of the participating resident qualified property taxpaying voters who are duly rendered their property for taxation. The maximum rate of tax may be changed at subsequent election as long as obligations are not incurred, and not to exceed the maximum limit of seven and one-half cents (7 1/2%) per One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation, and no election shall be required subsequent changes in the boundaries of the Commissioners Precinct of this State.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 8, 1960.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 4, proposing an Amendment to Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas, increasing to three and one-half percent (3 1/2%) the maximum permissible interest rate on bonds hereafter issued by the Veterans' Land Board; providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation therefor.

IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas, be amended by adding thereto the following:

"The foregoing notwithstanding, bonds hereafter issued by the Veterans' Land Board pursuant to the authority of this Section 49-b of the Constitution may bear a rate or rates of interest not to exceed three and one-half percent (3 1/2%) per annum.

"This Amendment shall become effective upon its adoption."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held throughout the State of Texas on the first

Davies, D. D. Pennell, Sam Ellis, Jack Myers, H. V. Wheeler, Duane Locke, Pat Taylor, and C. A. Haire.

Recently Mr. and Mrs. Jay Oats, Sue, and Commie spent the week end at Cooper, Texas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll and his mother, Mrs. Oats and other relatives. Mrs. Oats returned home with her son and family and will also visit another son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Oats and sons.

Cotton Insect Report

Scattered showers in the northern and western portions of Texas have interfered with insect control programs in some areas. As a general rule, cotton plantings have had excellent growing and fruiting weather during the past week. Cotton is loading up well in nearly all areas.

A combination of rapid plant growth and reduced thrips populations have resulted in little concern with this pest. Only Jones and Glasscock counties reported noticeable thrips populations during the past week or 10 days.

Fleahoppers continue to cause damage in late planted cotton and plantings which lost the early fruit set. Where the fleahopper damage was negligible during early fruiting, allowing the cotton to set good bottom crop, this cotton is continuing to fruit well. Older cotton, with a good bottom crop, often does not show the heavy shedding of small forms seen in younger or poorly fruited plantings. Larger fleahopper populations are required to cause the same damage that is seen earlier in the fruiting period. Heavy fleahopper populations were reported in Lynn, Hockley, Dawson, Fisher, Jones, Glasscock and Lubbock counties. Medium infestations were reported in Hale Wilbarger, Terry, Cochran, Wichita, Hockley, Knox, Lamb, and Briscoe counties.

Bollworms are posing a critical problem in many counties in this area. It is extremely important to watch cotton closely for the eggs and small worms; because, control measures are most effective in the early stages of this pest. After the bollworm begins feeding on the larger bolls, control is extremely difficult. Bollworms and damage was reported heavy in Terry, Glasscock, Dawson, Jones, and Fisher counties. Medium infestations were found in Lynn, Wilbarger, Reagan, Hardeman, Wichita, Midland, Yoakum, and Knox counties. Bollworm eggs were not as numerous this week as in the past two weeks, but with irrigation beginning again cotton fields should be observed closely.

Boll weevils continue to ravage cotton plantings in Wilbarger, Hardeman, Glasscock, Wichita, and Jones counties. The emergence of the second generation should be carefully watched and control measures begun early enough to prevent heavy feed-

VOTERS -- ATTENTION

2-24—VOTERS — ATTENTION In this issue of The Slatonite there appears the full text of two of the four Constitutional Amendments to be voted on at the upcoming General Election (Nov. 8). So that you may be fully informed, we urge that you read each proposed measure in its entirety, and study all of them carefully before you go to the polls to cast your vote.

A brief digest of the four proposed constitutional amendments follows:

NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT (HJR 39)—Authorizes the Legislature to create hospital districts co-extensive with Lamar County, Hidalgo County, and County Commissioners Precinct No. 4 of Comanche County, and sets forth certain powers, duties and limitations.

NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT (HJR 6)—Increases the maximum permissible interest rate on bonds hereafter issued by the Veterans' Land Board to three and one-half per cent.

NUMBER THREE ON THE BALLOT (HJR 3)—This bill is what is known as the "Annual Salary Bill" for legislators. It provides for an annual salary of not to exceed $4,800 for each legislator, and a per diem allowance of not to exceed $12 a day for the first 120 days of each regular session and for 30 days of each special session as maximum compensation and for 30 days of each special session as maximum compensation for ing and oviposition damage. Cabbage loopers are very common over most of the area. Populations should be closely watched to prevent extreme ragging of the cotton plants. It should be remembered that these insects are extremely hard to control when the worm becomes large. Cabbage loopers were found in Lynn, Motley, Wilbarger, Cochran, Glasscock, Dawson, Fisher, Midland, Jones, Yoakum and Terry counties.

What do you think of that first night at Reform School?
 . . . of the world outside, dark and crisp, and the guys who hang around the drug store!
 . . . of kids and cops, laws and judges, courtrooms and cells . . . the morbid adventures of the last lagging month.
 . . . of the home from which you came . . . and what it might have been!
 And you think of God . . . of days when church bells rang . . . and other kids went to Sunday School . . . and you had to be quiet so you didn't wake your parents!
 . . . of times when you might have prayed . . . but you didn't know how . . . and no one around you seemed to care!
 . . . of questions you once asked about God . . . but Dad was busy, and Mom hadn't time to explain.
 The first night in Reform School — what a tragic place for a boy to be confronted with those vital spiritual issues which wise parents should have faced in their children's infancy.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Burdine Becker, Shower Honoree

Grace Lutheran Parish Hall was the scene of a tea shower July 30 honoring Miss Burdine Becker, bride-elect of Arden Wuthrich of Taylor. Seventy-one guests were registered from 6 to 8 p.m. by Mrs. O. D. Dillard and Mrs. Marcus Wilke.

In the receiving line were the bride, the bride's mother Mrs. Wallace Becker, and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Charles Schaffner.

The serving table carried out the bride's colors of white, silver, and red. The centerpiece was a tall red candle standing in a bowl of red roses and silver-sprayed cotton leaves. From the top of the candle, red streamers led to other roses scattered on the table. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. C. M. McPherson, Mrs. Benno

Wilke and Mrs. Floyd Foerster. Hostesses included Mesdames Reuben Sander, James Riney, R. M. McMinn, Robert Schneider, Carlton Schaffner, Edda Catchings, Bo Becker, Weldon Becker, W. H. Walter, Edmund Wilke, Jack Hargrove, Selma Kisel, Marcus Wilke, O. D. Dillard, Floyd Foerster, Benno Wilke, and C. M. McPherson.

STATE CAPITAL

Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. — If the brackish, "hard as bricks" water common to many parts of West Texas can be made suitable for domestic use, Texas' available water supply would be materially increased.

To this end, the State Water Board has approved a de-mineralization research project to be carried out by the board, University of Dallas and Texas Electric Service Co. Board will put $20,000 into the work.

Board engineers say total demineralization is not necessary and that it is possible the process can be accomplished at an economically feasible cost.

In another move to increase available water, the Board has set a series of hearings on cancellation of water appropriation permits that have not been used. First 10 of the permits to be reviewed are scheduled for hearing Sept. 23. Some of the permits date back as far as 1918.

DPS ASKS BOOST. — With more traffic to patrol and more crime to fight, the Department of Public Safety will ask the next Legislature for money to increase its staff.

Col. Homer Garrison Jr., DPS director, has presented a budget calling for $18,461,260 for 1962 and $17,720,166 for 1963. This compares to $12,420,490 allocated to DPS for this year and $13,353,272 for the new fiscal year beginning Sept. 1.

Requested increases would allow the addition of 200 new highway patrolmen, 10 Texas Rangers, four narcotics agents and four intelligence agents.

Supporting his request, Garrison made this grim forecast: 29,000 more major crimes will be committed in Texas in 1963 than in 1959. This is apparently a continuation of the trend which saw major crimes rise 45 per cent in the past five years raising to 175,851 in 1959.

PAROLE EXPANSION SOUGHT. — Texas Board of Pardons and Paroles has a plan for saving the state some money.

But to do so, the Board says it will need some more money to invest in enlarging the state's staff of parole supervisors. Since the paid parole system got under way in 1958, the Board says it has saved the state $3,000,000. It costs that much less to pay a supervisor to keep tab on a parolee than it costs to board and clothe a prisoner and make relief payments to his family.

The Board feels it needs a 70-man parole staff, rather than the present 40 — to do the job. For this, the Board is asking an appropriation of $1,466,819 for the next two years. This is an increase of 480,863, or nearly a half-million dollars, over the present biennium's appropriation.

Board contends this extra investment will save the state $2,500,000 in prison costs, plus offering a better chance of returning more men useful, law-abiding places in the community.

OIL FLOW UNCHANGED. — Texas Railroad Commission has announced an eight-day producing pattern for the Texas oil industry in August — the same as for July.

Daily allowable will be 2,630,069 barrels a day.

A majority of producers appearing before the Commission said there is still an oil glut in Texas and continued restriction is needed to protect the market.

Commission action came in the wake of a declaration by UT's Bureau of Business Research director that oil is no longer king in Texas. Even with foreign import limits, said Dr. John Stockton, supply outruns demand so that production has had to be held down to 8 to 12 days a month for the past two years.

Stockton foresees no improvement. Texas, he said, must develop new industries to bolster its economy or lose out to more dynamic areas.

PARKS SURVEY SET. State Parks Board has announced the Texas Research League will make a study of its operations and report to the next Legislature.

League is a privately financed, non-profit government restoration search organization which studies state agencies at their own request.

State Auditor C. H. Cavness has recommended the Parks Board hire an auditor to keep track of the receipts from concessions operated in the state parks. Cavness also urged that the next Legislature act on a Legislature Council report presented to the 1959 session making recommendations for the continuing, expanding and abandoning of various parks.

Parks Board has designated a new state park, to be known as San Marcos State Park to be located near the proposed Canyon Dam site on the Guadalupe River.

SCHOOL REPORT CARD. — State Commission on School Accreditation has weighed Texas public schools against state standards and found 54 wanting.

Inspection teams recommended disciplinary action against 20 schools and warnings of a need for immediate improvement by 34 more.

If a school loses its accreditation, the work of its students cannot be transferred to accredited schools with full credit.

Commission recommendations will be reviewed by the State Board of Education at its September meeting.

TRAFFIC TOLL CUT. — While nationally the drop in traffic deaths for this year is one per cent, Texas has improved by nine per cent.

Texas traffic deaths up to mid-July of this year totaled 1,049 compared to 1,152 for the same period last year.

A veteran highway patrol officer said he believes the new auto insurance rates, which jump sharply for motorists with accidents or violations on their records, have contributed substantially to the better record.

But radar, he said, had the same effect until people got used to it and became indifferent again.

Cornerstone's Contents Tell Interesting Story

As the cornerstone at the old East Ward School, built in 1922, was opened recently, several interesting bits of information were literally "brought to light."

For instance, did you know that you could buy a brand new Fordson tractor for $395 then? Did you know that there were two banks here in 1922? This information and much, much more about Slaton's history was revealed when the cornerstone was opened. Included in the cornerstone, sealed 38 years ago, was a roster of Slaton Lodge No. 1094, A. F. & A. M. There were 144 members, several of whom still live in Slaton.

Also in the cornerstone were the by-laws of Slaton Chapter No. 387, Royal Arch Masons, and a roster of the group, numbering 80. You can read the roster and look over the papers concerned at The Slatonite until such time as the school or Masons remove them to places where they will be permanently kept.

Several kernels of corn were placed in the cornerstone and are recognizable as such though they have turned black and deteriorated with decay to a large degree.

Another item in the small metal box sealed in the cornerstone was a metal disk resembling a large coin bearing the emblem and insignia of the Slaton Chapter, Royal Arch Masons.

A Holy Bible, with the name Ruth Smith written on the fly page, spent the last nearly-four decades encased in the cement-covered box. On the back page is written the words, "Adolescent Religious Awakening of the Child," its meaning evidently important to the owner or bearer of the Bible. On scanning through the book, no other written items were located. The book itself is fairly well preserved, with only the binding showing the wounds of time. Its message, it has been promised on authority, will endure forever.

Those two banks we mentioned were The Slaton State Bank and The First State Bank of Slaton. They have been succeeded by the present Citizen's State Bank.

R. J. Murray was president of the Slaton State Bank, which had deposits of $267,129.88. B. M. Holland was vice-president and cashier and Ray Stephenson was assistant cashier.

The First State Bank had deposits of $171,073.86, according to the statement of condition as of the close of business on August 5, 1922. The statement was signed by a Mr. Wright as cashier. No other officers were named.

There was a July 28, 1922, Slatonite in the box, owned at that time by W. Donald.

The paper revealed that, at that time anyway, Slaton must have been pretty large in comparison with Lubbock. For instance, H. L. "Bud" Johnston had just been elected sheriff of the county. Louie F. Moore, recently deceased district clerk, was elected to that post in the same election. Slaton favored a W. H. Bledsoe for State Senator; R. A. Baldwin for Representative; A. J. Clark for Tax Collector; R. C. Burns for Tax Assessor; and J. S. Slover in a close race for County Treasurer. Others favored by Slaton then were E. R. Haynes, County Superintendent; Herbert Stubbs, County Clerk; Geo. W. Foster, County Judge; A. L. Harris, County Surveyor; Wm. Haddock, Sheep Inspector; T. W. Covington, Public Weigher; H. D. Talley, Commissioner; J. W. Short, Justice of the Peace; J. F. Connor, Constable; and R. J. Murray, County Chairman, Exec. Committee.

Under the heading, "Chamber of Commerce Notes And Activities As Reported," submitted apparently by S. E. Staggs, secretary-manager, it was reported that P. F. Brown of Slaton was the successful bidder on the city hall. "Work will be started just as soon as financial matters are settled relative to the sale of the bonds. These matters have been held up awaiting the appointment of another commissioner to take the place of W. E. Olive, who has been elected City Secretary. J. H. Trague Sr. has accepted the appointment and the proper signatures can now be placed on the bonds, making them negotiable," the article related.

Other items: A cement walk had just been finished from Texas Avenue to the Panhandle Lumber Company. "We anticipate many more blocks to be so treated when conditions adjust themselves a little more favorable. One nice thing about the citizens of Slaton—it's not necessary to crowd them in order to get improvements of any kind. They are public spirited and will go the limit at all times. That's why Slaton is 'head and shoulders' above other Texas cities of her class," the article concluded.

The I. O. O. F. and kindred organizations of Slaton were entertaining the South Plains

Association in Slaton on August 14 and 15 and there was an appeal for housing as "hotel facilities are very limited."

There was a quite successful social held at New Hope (?), the Civic and Culture Club was entertained by Mrs. W. J. Walter, assisted by Miss Edna Hammons, Mrs. W. Donald entertained about thirty "little folks" in celebration of the birthdays of her two children, Misses Ada Belle Darwin and Reba Allen "delightfully entertained the Girls' Club, the Junior Camp Fire Girls met at the pretty new home of their guardian, Mrs. Frank E. Callaway," the Senior B. Y. P. U. was "very much alive. They are really doing things. On last Saturday, election day, the B. Y. P. U. served a regular old-time dinner (all you can eat) at the Slaton State Bank old building. It was a hungry crowd of voters, country people and Slaton business people with their families that came to join in the feast," on Saturday morning, July 15th, 1922, Miss Clara Howard and H. H. Eubank were "quietly married at the Baptist pastor's home, Rev. Jno. P. Hardesty officiating. Both are highly esteemed young people of Slaton, Friends will be gratified to know that they will continue to reside here."

There were news items in the paper from Wilson and Hogville (?). There were school news items, about some construction work on the high school and a seven-room building in southeast Slaton (now East Ward, we presume).

Ads told of a fire sale being conducted by Dobson & Company, selling agents, in which you could buy three pair of overalls for 79 cents, corsets for 75 cents, one lot boys leather trimmed tennis shoes for 75 cents and horse collars, $1.35 each.

Green's Garage handled Goodrich tires and you could see westerns, comedies and dramas at the Lone Star Air-drome, Paul P. Murray, manager. The ad said, "Good music every night. No advance in prices, 10 cents and 20 cents."

There was a McGehee Bakery here at the time, Forrest Lumber Company; Owens and Russell, jewelers and optometrists; Dykes Grocery Company; you could get a "new standard roller bearing windmill" from B. C. Morgan; and many items of builders hardware at A. L. Brannon Hardware.

Other advertisers included Mack's Variety Store; S. H. Adams, M. D.; I. B. Lade, attorney-at-law; Mrs. C. A. Cozby, shoe repairing; E. A. Gale, papering and painting; R. A. Henderson, electric shoe and harness shop; C. A. Smith, chiropractor; H. F. Miller and Sallie W. Miller, M. D.'s; Ernest J. Heberg, chiropractor; W. A. Tucker, M. D.; Ben T. Owens, dentist; DeLong, "The Merchant Tailor"; Producers Refining Company of Slaton; Jones and Stephenson Insurance, successors to M. A. Pember; W. E. Olive, farm loans and insurance; Foster Furniture; Rockwell Bros. & Co., lumbermen; City Market & Grocery; F. E. Bourland, The Slaton Piano Man; Big State Garage, Leo Hubbard, manager; Slaton Drug Company, J. V. Hollingsworth, prop.; Forrest Hardware; Slaton Furniture, A. E. Howerton, president, J. S. Lanham, vice-president and general manager, and R. M. Ellis, Jr., secretary-treasurer; B. W. Adams Grocery; Gates Dry Goods and the two banks.

Other news items

"The Slaton Monograms (baseball team) divided a two-game series with Crosbyton on the local grounds Saturday and Sunday. Slaton won the initial game 12 to 5, while Crosbyton took the last to the tune of 13 to 8. Up to Sunday's game the Monograms had won 22 straight."

"Rev. John P. Hardesty, pastor of the Baptist church of this city, assisted by Rev. J. F. Grizzle of Post City, is conducting a series of meetings at Posey school, morning and evening—A. M. Watson of this city is conducting the song service."

You're welcome to look the items over at your convenience. —JRC

TV TIP'S By Hugo
HOW TO VIEW TV... Our friends often ask us what is the right size set for them and where they should place it in their room. Well, one depends on the other. The size of your room and the set's position in the room determines to a great extent the size screen you should buy. A 21 - inch set may be just as bad for your home as a 10-inch. Here's a rule-of-the-thumb h i n t : sit at a distance approximately 5 to 7 times the height of your screen. (Another hint: If you want top quality service on your set call us. Swiss Chocolate Creme

6-oz. pkg. semi-sweet chocolate pieces
2 tablespoons water
1 teaspoon instant coffee
2 eggs, separated
1/2 cup PET Instant (in dry form)
1/4 cup water
1/2 cup sugar

1-q. saucepan over very low heat, stir chocolate pieces, 2 Tablespoons water and instant coffee until melted and smooth. Take off heat. Let stand until cool. With electric mixer at high speed, beat egg whites, PET Instant and 1/4 cup water in small mixer bowl (or 1 1/2-qt. bowl) until stiff. Beat in sugar, 1 tablespoon at a time, to make thick, glossy meringue-like mixture. Scrape bowl sides often. Beat egg yolks into chocolate mixture until smooth. Fold chocolate mixture into whipped mixture. Spoon into 6 sherbet glasses. Chill.

"A great many gotten into debt keep up with the ready were."
