Solis Responds To DA

Eliseo Solis, Lubbock County Commissioner is currently being investigated by District Attorney Jim Bob Darnell into alleged wrongdoings within his office. Solis held a press conference today to respond to some of the charges brought toward him. The following is the text of the press conference held at the Lubbock County Courthouse:

Ladies and Gentlemen of the Press:

1. The following statement is made for the single purpose of responding to allegations being made against me. Various charges, allegations and insinuations have been published by the media concerning official misconduct and abuse of office by me. Many of my supporters and constituents are wondering about my position and I have a duty to them to respond. While my attorneys have advised me not to comment publicly, I feel I have an obligation to respond to the best of my ability.
2. At this point, I am being trial by the media on these accusations. Since there are no official charges, it makes my response very difficult. My only information on these accusations has come from the media reports. I do not even know my accusers due to the fact that they are all "anonymous sources". It is like being shot at, but you do not know where the shots are coming from.
3. While the accusations are somewhat vague, I have tried to find out the specifics. I tried to obtain information from Jim Bob Darnell, the Criminal District Attorney, who as counsel for the County, is indirectly my attorney, but he refuses to divulge any specifics on the charges.

4. About the only accusation that seems clear is the use of County equipment and materials at the Fiestas in Idalou about September 16, 1985, which was the Mexican Independence celebration.

First, as background information, the Mexican American Community of Idalou decided they wanted some Fiestas in Idalou. A permit from the City of Idalou was requested to use a city street as had been done before. The request was denied by the City due to various problems, I offered my assistance to the Fiesta Committee and we began negotiations with the City of Idalou. Through informal negotiations, we received permission from the City to use 2nd Street which was small and little used. Through discussions and negotiations, we obtained permission from the City to widen the street a little and the City of Idalou donated the blacktop. We needed to put some more caliche on the same street, on the sides. The caliche was donated by Mr. Faulkner, the owner of the caliche pit. Various other items were donated by other people, such as poles, lights, and other items.

To my knowledge, the only items used that were County or City owned were the equipment used to lay the black top, caliche and other items. From the County the maintainer, water truck, dump truck and a roller was used. The city allowed us the use of their front-end loader. The labor used was done by some city and county employees after hours, meaning after normal work hours. They and other community members volunteered their time.

To place the problem in perspective, we were faced with a community need and very little time to act.

I have not denied, to this day, that the use of County equipment, the gasoline, oil and the like, was or is possibly against state laws, although at the time, the legality of the issue was not a question since I did not have any idea it was illegal because I thought we were providing a community need. None of the work done or items used were for the direct benefit to me or anyone else, but for the use and benefit of the entire community of Idalou. Not only did the Mexican-American community benefit, but even the Band Booster Club of Idalou High School had a booth at the Fiestas.

5. I was elected to my position by these constituents of Idalou who look to me for help when they need help. I only regret that I did not take time to check into our state laws to determine the legality of my actions, or that I should have asked for an Attorney General's opinion on the matter.

6. At the time, there was a community need and I offered to help. I contacted some City of Idalou officials and unofficially we cooperatively got the job done as had been the custom and tradition of past Commissioners. If anything, Precinct No. 3 and the City of Idalou reflected a cooperation of efforts, a West Texas Tradition, to help their community, who their taxes have paid for the same equipment and materials.

7. Again, I was elected by the constituents of Precinct No. 3 and I will continue to serve them to the best of my ability.

While I wish that I could answer all your questions, I have been advised by my attorneys to refrain from any more comments due to my emotional involvement, so I will have to refer any other questions on this and related issues to my attorneys.

Solis Responde A Cargos Del D.A.

"Hasta este punto, mis únicos acusantes, han sido los noticieros. Y como hasta esta fecha no se me ha enjuiciado oficialmente por ningún organismo de la ley, ni siquiera sé ante cuál agencia presentar mi declaración en contra de todas esas 'faltas a la autoridad' de las cuales se me acusa."

Con estas palabras, dió principio una conferencia de prensa, en la cual salieron a luz, algunas de las acusaciones que se han venido haciendo contra el Comisionado Eliseo Solis.

El Comisionado Solis, dijo ante un grupo de reporteros, que su actual entrevista no estaba de acuerdo con el consejo de su abogado personal, pero lo hacia, con el fin de aclararle a todos sus constituyentes 'el lado verdadero' de ese caso.

"No estoy ignorante del Código Penal. Yo reconozco muy bien lo que significa violar alguna ley. Sin embargo, la única información que he tenido sobre mi supuesto delito, la he tomado del periódico A.J. y la televisión. De pronto, he resultado ser el blanco de varios, sin saber de donde salen los disparos."

Solis, dijo haber solicitado alguna información sobre sus múltiples acusaciones en la oficina del Fiscal del Condado, pero éste se rehusó a 'divulgar los detalles' sobre el caso. "Jim Bob Darnell, como Fiscal del Distrito, suele ser la autoridad máxima en un caso como el mío," dijo el Comisionado Solis. "Pero a mí, me mostró su indiferencia. Cualquier criminal hubiera recibido mejores atenciones."

Durante su rueda de prensa, y algunas preguntas solicitadas por los reporteros y personas individuales, Solis dijo que lo único que hizo, fue utilizar alguna herramienta y materiales, en el mejoramiento de algunos sitios en Idalou, durante las Fiestas Septembrinas.

"Pero, todo esto se hizo conforme la ley," dijo Solis. "Obtuvimos el permiso para mejorar una de las calles, y la ciudad de Idalou nos facilitó los materiales para este proyecto. Cuando vimos que se iba a necesitar más caliche, éste nos fue donado por negociante individual—dueño de una calichería en las afueras de esta ciudad. Fue entonces, cuando muchos más residentes de esta área, trajeron sus contribuciones para hacer este proyecto. La única herramienta perteneciente al condado, fueron 3 vehículos. La mayoría de la mano de obra, material y herramienta necesaria, nos fue proporcionada por el ayuntamiento de Idalou."

Solis agregó que muchos residentes de Idalou, trabajaron en este proyecto cívico "hasta que no veíamos por lo obscuro de la noche" y sin pago alguno.

"Esto que logramos hacer en Idalou, de acuerdo con el esfuerzo cívico, la armonía de sus residentes, el incansable entusiasmo de todos, hubiera sido digno de la primera plana en el Avalanche-Journal. En otras tiempos, bajo otras circunstancias, y en otro precinto. Pero en el Precinto No. 3, posiblemente sea una avenida para el entero Condado de Lubbock—Donde comisionados van y vienen y todo sigue igual."

Antes de terminar su entrevista, Solis dijo que a los únicos que debía servir, es a toda esta gente que lo eligió, lo llevó a esa oficina pública que desempeña y está allí para ver que todo el dinero que ellos pagan como impuestos sea utilizado para el beneficio de estos mismos.

En sus últimas palabras, agregó: "yo vi una necesidad, y la llené, vi el entusiasmo de la gente para mejorar su ciudad, su ambiente y su comunidad y facilité los medios disponibles.

Los cuales, entiendo que deben estar a su disposición—Puesto que fueron obtenidos con ese propósito, con ese fin y con sus impuestos. Y si éste es un delito...espero que alguien tenga la bondad, y la cortesía de decírmelo."

Raul Yzaguirre

Raul Yzaguirre, President of the National Council of La Raza has called upon President Reagan to "promote" U.S. Secretary of Education William Bennett to the position of ambassador. Yzaguirre suggested that if no diplomatic posts are currently available, the creation of a special and permanent post for Ms. Bennett in Antarctica might be appropriate.

In a message to the President dated October 4, Yzaguirre stated: "based on his performance in carrying out the ultra-right-wing agenda in education, his disregard for federal law, and policies which jeopardize Hispanic students' right to learn, I firmly believe that Mr. Bennett merits this 'promotion'."

Yzaguirre's comments were prompted by Secretary Bennett's attack last week on bilingual education. In a speech delivered on September 26 in New York City, Bennett charged that two decades of federal bilingual education policy had failed and announced that he did not intend to implement the terms of the 1984 Bilingual Act.

Yzaguirre accused the Secretary of Jeopardizing the *(The National Council of La Raza is a private, nonprofit, nonpartisan Hispanic organization with a network of 75 affiliated community-based organizations located in 19 states and the District of Columbia. What can we say about the current investigation concerning Commissioner Eliseo Solis. That it's political? That it's racial? That it's an effort to deprive the under-represented of the only true representative that we have had ever since Lubbock County has existed?

All of these overtones are surely present, but we are not one to judge, mainly because we do not have all the facts.

But what of our District Attorney Jim Bob Darnell. Why has Darnell or his office leaked information about the investigation to the T.V. and newspapers before even presenting the information to the Grand Jury?

Is it political? Is it racial? Is it an effort to deprive the under-represented of the only true representative that we have had ever since Lubbock County has existed? Or is it an effort to indict a person before even the evidence is presented to the Grand Jury?

There are many questions. Questions that need to be asked to the D.A.'s office. Why did we downplay the killing of a Chicano youth by a rich banker? Why aren't other Commissioners investigated when citizens register complaints. Why are other elected officials investigated when the fail to comply with campaign rules as was the case with Solis's opponent in the previous election? Why was a school board member not tried for DWI after being arrested?

Are we still living in a society which administer justice on the basis of a person's color of skin or on the basis of a person's personal and political convictions?

There are many questions which need to be asked to the D.A.'s office. WHY AREN'T THEY?

Bilingual Children Are Better Thinkers

by the New York Times
LOS ANGELES—Children who grow up speaking two languages display superior cognitive abilities and are more sophisticated than other children in their understanding of language, according to research reported at the meeting of the American Psychological Association in Los Angeles.

The new findings, the researchers said recently, cast doubt on the wisdom of placing children who speak another language in classes where the teachers use only English.

"Forcing bilingual children into English-speaking classes can be counterproductive, both emotionally and intellectually," said Kenji Hakuta, a psycholinguist at Yale University, who reported on his research at the meeting.

Rather than encouraging children to abandon their native tongue and adopt English, educators should teach them in both languages, a panel of psychologists who have studied bilingual education urged.

There are 1.35 million to 4.5 million students in America who come from homes where a language other than English is spoken, according to a recent estimate by the Department of Education. The language issue in the teaching of these children has been a matter of considerable debate in recent years.

Research conducted by Hakuta among Hispanic children in the New Haven, Conn., schools found that the more a child used both Spanish and English, the greater his intellectual advantage in skills underlying reading ability and in non-verbal logic.

"The enhanced cognitive abilities of these children shows that the mind benefits from diversity of experience," Hakuta said.

Among other arguments against bilingual education, some educators have said it caused mental confusion. The New Haven study found, however, that rather than making children more confused, what was learned in one language seemed to help in their intellectual development in the other.

Other research reported by Hakuta found that bilingual children scored higher on tests of mental flexibility, the ability to consider alternative solutions to problems, than children who spoke only English.

Hakuta urged that non-English-speaking children be instructed in their native language for a prolonged period, three years or more, with English instruction introduced gradually.

"In too many communities students are forced into English instruction while their English skills are too poor," Hakuta said.

Other psychologists at the meeting warned that while a bilingual program may provide an intellectual advantage, it also held

Reforma a la Inmigración

Washington, D.C. -- El actual proyecto de ley de inmigración, ya Senado, significa el tercer intento de establecer las recomendaciones de la Comisión de Selección de la Política para Inmigración y Refugiados de Estados Unidos había "perdido el control", de sus fronteras.

Este es — como sugirió el presidente de la comisión, el Reverendo Theodore Hesburgh — un intento de mantener abiertas "las puertas de la frontera" a la inmigración legal y cerrar las "puertas traseras" a los inmigrantes ilegales, que entran al país especialmente a través de la frontera mexicana en busca de empleos y una vida mejor.

A pesar de que el proyecto contiene algunas provisiones incoherentes y hasta conflictivas, básicamente trata, por un lado, de resolver el viejo problema de la inmigración ilegal ofreciéndole residencia legal a muchos de los indocumentados que se han enraizado en Estados Unidos; y por otro, de desalentar la entrada de nuevos indocumentados considerando ilegal el hecho e darles empleo.

Un proyecto similar fue aprobado por el Senado en 1982, con voto de 80-19, sólo para ser desaprobado en la Cámara en los últimos días del 97mo. Congreso, cuando los miembros hispanos temiendo que las sanciones contra los empleadores podría crear una tendencia discriminatoria contra todos los hispanos, amenazaron co sepultar el proyecto con una serie de nuevas enmiendas.

En 1983, el Senado volvió a aprobar un proyecto reformado, por 76-18, y la Cámara aprobó su propia versión por estrecho margen de 216-211. Esta reforma también murió, en los días finales del 98mo. Congreso, cuando los negociadores de la Cámara y del Senado fueron incapaces de llegar a un acuerdo.

El nuevo proyecto del Senado, aprobado por 69-30, podría:

— Permitir que los inmigrantes ilegales que llegaron a Estados Unidos antes del 1ro. de Enero de 1980 y que se han mantenido continuamente en el país desde esa recha, ralícen de inmediato sus peticiones para obtener un estado legal temporal y para residencia permanente dos años y medio después.

— Comenzar el proceso de legalización cuando la comisión especial establecida por la ley considere que la inmigración ilegal esté controlada, pero no más de tres años después de quedar en efecto la presente ley.

— Hacer ilegal el contratar o referir a una persona no autorizada para trabajar, y requerir a los empleadores examinar los pasaportes, las tarjetas de seguridad social y otros documentos para verificar que el empleado en cuestión tenga autorización para trabajar.

— Penar a los empleadores, por lo civil, con multas de hasta 10,000 dólares por repetidas violaciones de la ley, y por lo criminal, con hasta 3,000 dólares de multa y seis meses de cárcel por cada extranjero ilegal empleado.

— Crear un nuevo programa para trabajadores agrícolas que permitiría la entrada al país de hasta 350,000 empleados extranjeros para ayudar a cosechar los cultivos perecederos, programa que terminaría tres años después de comenzar si el Congreso no aprueba extenderlo.

— Continuar un programa ya en existencia que permite la entrada hasta de 20,000 empleados extranjeros para trabajar temporalmente en la agricultura, programa que sería enmendado para que la Secretaría del Trabajo tuviera que responder antes de 72 horas cualquier petición de emergencia de mano de obra extranjera realizada por empleadores agrícolas.

— Establecer una comisión para estudiar la forma en que Estados Unidos y México podrían trabajar para mejorar las economías de ambos países e informar al Congreso antes de 180 días.

— Autorizar sumas ascendentes a 84 millones de dólares en el año fiscal de 1987 y 830 millones en 1988 para aumentar las patrullas fronterizas y otras actividades de vigilancia del Servicio de Inmigración y Naturalización.

Hudson Publicara Nombres de Los Homosexuales Del Cine Hollywood Bajo La Psicosis del Sida

Por Roberto Carreras

Una atmósfera de temor y sospecha, que ya ha excluido de los estudios de rodajes Burt Reynolds -a quien la murmuración pretende ser portador del fatídico virus- y en la que circula como amenaza catastrófica la versión de que Rock Hudson hará público un listado de actores homosexuales, encarece las relaciones profesionales y privadas en Hollywood, como consecuencia de la difusión del SIDA.

Linda Evans, crisis nerviosa.

La actriz Linda Evans, que tuvo de compañero a Hudson -ya entonces enfermo- en escenas amorosas de "Dinastía", ha sufrido una severa crisis nerviosa de la que no se recuperó totalmente ni aún después de pasar sin novedad la revisión médica. El reparto entero de esa serie de televisión hubo de someterse a las pruebas reveladoras de la infección y no pocos son los que se distancian de ellos. En tanto, el sindicato de actores apoya la propuesta de suprimir el beso de las películas y no ha faltado quien condicionase la firma de un contrato de filmación a la prueba de sangre de su co-protagonista.

La psicosis colectiva perjudica en particular a Burt Reynolds, a quien la mayoría identifica, sin clara fundamentación, con el segundo caso de SIDA que, de acuerdo con un especialista, se habría presentado ya en Hollywood. Reynolds -que estuvo bajo tratamiento hospitalario más de una vez en el último año- ha desafiado las habladurías, en conferencia de prensa en la que ofreció 100,000 dólares a quien aporte la evidencia de que padece efectivamente la enfermedad.

En su apoyo concurre Liza Minelli, una amiga fiel que ha sido su pareja cinematográfica en ocasiones; pero su respuesta a los que lo suponen homosexual y le atribuyen el contagio no ha podido más que hacer público lo que era solo un rumor asordinado y las puertas de los productores permanecen cerradas para él.

En ese clima inquisitorial ha estallado la noticia de que Rock Hudson prepara la publicación de un libro de memorias en el que revelará todos los secretos de su trayectoria privada.

La segunda caza de brujas.

El pánico ha cundido al sugerirse que la autobiografía-anunciada con el título de Mi vida y redacción de una escritora profesional, Sara Davidson- podría descubrir la doble conducta de muchos actores en activo, insospechables hasta ahora de sexualidad no ortodoxa.

La publicación del libro acabaría así, fatalmente, con algunas carreras exitosas. El comentario es, en efecto, que Hudson -de quien no se pone en duda el conocimiento de la mayoría de los homosexuales encubiertos de la colonia de actores de Los Ángeles- habría resuelto castigar de esa manera a quienes lo han abandonado al sabersele invadido por el SIDA.

Solo Elizabeth Taylor

y Burt Lancaster, entre las figuras norteamericanas de primera línea, y un ex actor, el presidente Ronald Reagan -que le telefoneó personalmente al enterarse de su situación- demostraron solidarios con Rock Hudson. Este, al parecer, ha recabado ya el asesoramiento de sus abogados para cumplir el propósito que se le atribuye sin obstáculos legales.

Esa lista de nombres propios es aguardada en Hollywood con el mismo espanto que hace más de treinta años provocaban las investigaciones del comité de actividades antinorteamericanas, del senador McCarthy, y las delaciones con las que algunos inculpados pagaban su rehabilitación.

Pero, en las circunstancias actuales, de proliferación de una enfermedad de la que muy poco se conoce, los grupos sociales, de proliferación de una enfermedad de la que muy poco se conoce, los grupos sociales de mayor riesgo ante ella difícilmente podrían conservar su sitio en la capital del cine. En los Estados Unidos se extiende la prevención hacia los colectivos más afectados y es de momento escaso el resultado de los esfuerzos del sindicato de actores para impedir la formalización de una nueva caza de brujas.

El generalizado temor de Hollywood tiene origen en el caso Rock Hudson y la incitación de un experto. Poco después de conocerse la realidad del cuadro clínico de Hudson, el doctor Ronald LeBaron, vinculado a las investigaciones sobre el SIDA, comunicó a los periodistas -con la credibilidad que le otorga su condición de científico- que otro astro encubierto estaba en la etapa avanzada del síndrome.

La lista de famoso en la que nadie desea figurar.

La Baron, que se extendió en consideración acerca de los riesgos sanitarios de una comunidad cerrada como Hollywood, no quiso revelar la identidad del segundo afectado, por carecer de autorización para hacerlo. Pero la superficial descripción que de él hizo bastó para que muchos concluyeran que se trataba de Burt Reynolds, al que se sabía bajo el ataque periódico de síntomas no claramente explicados.

Reynolds lo ha negado todo, atribuyéndose una heterosexualidad sin excepciones y la recuperación de la salud. Pero en su contra han intervenido versiones anónimas que asignan a sus antiguas esposas o amantes -entre las que se contaron Sally Fields y Loni Anderson- el cuestionario de la imagen rotundamente viril que los guiones siempre le han reservado.

En pocos meses, el círculo del estigma se ha completado en torno de ese actor, hasta ayer uno de los más taquilleros del cine norteamericano y hoy en desgracia ante la industria. A pesar de su firme protesta, se ha abierto con él una lista de sospechosos que el transcurso de los meses, según todos los pronósticos, llenará probablemente de nombres famosos.

Pues quien sabe que tantos de nuestros "amigos" y "amigas" de Eliseo han llamado al Jim Bob pero se me hace que no fueron muchos porque el noticiero dijo que ahora están investigando 6 diferentes casos contra Eliseo.

Pues este Alacran no sabe mucho pero estoy seguro que los otros Comisionados han hecho muchas cosas en quebrar las reglas y los D.A.'s siempre han voltido su cara. Pues quizás el D.A. los siga ignorando pero por seguro este Alacran no. Ya es tiempo de revelar todos esos casos.

Es lamentable que oficiales electos por el público todavía son tan selectivos en enfocar las leyes. Es muy fácil voltar la cara para ignorarla cuando un banquero rico que anda manejando borracho mata a un joven. Pero cuando un verdadero representante de la gente trata de ayudar a su gente para que tengan mas bonitas fiestas, el D.A. hace lo maximo posible para descreditar a nuestro representante.

Todavía hay poquito tiempo. Haber que hacen nuestros "amigos".

Mientras este Alacran escuchaba las noticias el martes por la noche, se dio un reporte especial en la cual dijeron que el D.A. Jim Bob Darnell presentará su investigación sobre nuestro comisionado Eliseo Solis al gran jurado en los primeros de noviembre. Pues por eso no fueron a su propia campaña de junta miembros que se llevo acabo el sábado pasado.

As you may know, the Southwest Voter Registration Education Project has grown over the years. From five campaigns in FY 1974/75, SWVREP reached the point where last year they conducted 204 campaigns; 77 in Texas alone. In addition, they have also instituted 62 court cases in Texas and SVREP has never lost a case where they were the lead counsel.

In order to determine where SVREP should have registration drives and who else they should sue, the Chairman of the West Texas Regional Planning Committee, Commissioner Eliseo Solis, has called a meeting for October 19, 1985 at the Holiday Inn Civic Center, 801 Avenue Q, Heritage Center in Lubbock, Texas. The meeting is scheduled to begin at 1:00 p.m. and will last until 4:30 p.m. A social hour and dinner will be served at 5:00 to 6:00 p.m. and a reception will be held for West Texas Hispanic elected officials from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

It is very important that you as a representative of your county attend this meeting. In order to make sure that the towns where SVREP will work are selected efficiently, SVREP are electing a Regional Planning Committee of respected leaders in West Texas. Because you have worked with SVREP in the past or because you have been recommended by statewide leaders, SVREP are asking you to be a member of this committee. The purpose of the committee is to recommend cities for voter registration drives, to recommend who SVREP ought to work with,

The issue poll at 12:30 is very important. SVREP urges everyone to get to the meeting by 12:30 so that SVREP can begin its business meeting at 1:00 p.m. promptly. Because the mailing list does not include all the leaders that should be invited, SVREP would ask that you bring those who in your discretion should attend.

Remember: Saturday, October 19, 1985; Time - 12:30 p.m. - 4:30 p.m.; Place - Holiday Inn, 801 Avenue Q, Lubbock, Tx.

For further information, please call SVREP collect at (512) 222-0224 and ask for William C. Velasquez or Armando Villareal. We hope to see you there and look forward to the prospect of working together for the good of our people and the nation.

Three Game Home Stand Vs. Rice

THE GAME -- The Texas Tech Red Raiders will complete a three-game home stand Saturday against the Rice Owls. Kickoff is noon at Jones Stadium.

TELEVISION TIME -- The game will be televised on the Raycom Sports Network. It will be the first regionally televised game at Jone Stadium since the 1980 North Carolina game by ABC. ESPN also televised two games during the 1980 season. Tech has appeared on regional TV six times since then but all were on the road.

TV RECORD -- Jerry Moore is 4-1 in regionally televised Southwest Conference games, losing only to Baylor earlier this year. The Red Raiders are 15-21-3 on TV since its first appearance on the tube in the 1954 Gator Bowl. Merle Marmorn and Bud Wilkinson are the announcers. The 1980 season.

RICE HAS MO -- The Owls will come into Lubbock with momentum after snapping a 26-game SWC losing streak with a 34-27 win over TCU. Quarterback Mark Comalander completed 18 of 27 passes for 321 to pace the Owls to a 509-yard total offensive game.

NEXT WEEK -- Texas Tech takes the week off while Rice hosts Texas A&M.

BUSY MAN -- Junior middle linebacker Brad Hastings must rank as one of the busiest linebackers in America. He was in on 17 stops against Arkansas, giving him 97 for the year. After six games last year he had 64 stops and he went on to record a school record 141 tackles for the year. "He's playing better than he did last year," said LB coach Ron West. "The year of experience really has helped him."

SCANDAL -- Word reached the Texas Tech Sports Information Office that the mother of one of the Rice coaches has been living with one of the Tech coaches. The report proved true but its doubtful any Raider secrets have leaked out. That's because Rice graduate assistant coach Rick Dykes is the son of Tech defensive coordinator Spike (ann Sharon) Dykes.

Myers Welcome Six Lettermen to Squad

Texas Tech head basketball coach Gerald Myers will welcome back six lettermen from last season's Southwest Conference Championship team when fall drills open Tuesday. Myers and his returnees will be joined by nine new faces that will replace the five senior starters from the Raiders squad a year ago.

Leading the way for the Raiders of '85-'86 are seniors Tony Benford, Tobin Doda and Ray Irvin, all of whom played important roles in last year's title run. Benford, a 6-4 guard, will be the most experienced of three returning seniors and will be counted on to spearhead the Raiders backcourt attack. Doda, who played both guard and forward last season, will be an important cog on the relatively young squad. Irvin, at 6-9, will be counted on to provide the insider strength for become a top flight the Raiders this season guard. Greg Crowe, a 6-5 after performing well in a reserve role a year ago.

"We lost five starters, so we'll be starting over with our starting lineup at all five positions," said Myers, the consensus SWC "Coach of the Year" last year. "I think we have some good senior leadership in Tony Benford, Ray Irvin and Tobin Doda, who all played a year ago."

Myers is hoping to receive added firepower and depth from his other returnees as well as the seniors. Kent Wojciechowski, a 7-0, 250-pound strongman, will be much improved over last season at the start and should be an added plus for Myers. Junior Mike Nelson, a 6-2 guard, didn't get much playing time a year ago because of the excellent play from Benford, Bubby Jennings and Phil Wallace, but he possesses all the tools to be a top flight the Raiders this season guard. guard/forward, is perhaps the best athlete on the squad and should contend for playing time early.

The addition of nine newcomers will also be a shot in the arm for Myers and his staff. Seven newly-signed players will be joined by redshirt junior guard Wendell Owens, who missed last season after transferring from Westchester JC.

Owens will join JUCO transfer Dewayne Chism, a 6-7 forward from Odessa College, and

Bennett Demanda Cambios en Programas Bilingües

Nueva York -- El Secretario de Educación William J. Bennett, pidió cambios en la política de educación bilingüe federal, según él, "para mejorar las oportunidades de los jóvenes que tienen que enfrentarse a la barrera del idioma con el inglés".

El Secretario afirmó que su Departamento estaba buscando cambios en los programas bilingües debido a que "después de 17 años de involucramiento federal y después de usarse $1.7 billones en fondos federales, no tenemos evidencias de que los niños que quisimos ayudar, aquellos que merecen nuestra ayuda, se hayan beneficiado realmente".

El anuncio de Bennett se produjo durante un discurso ante la Asociación por un Mejor New York donde Bennett afirmó que "Queremos hacer buena la promesa de oportunidades reales para todos los americanos".

El Secretario insistió en que las investigaciones no habían probado que la instrucción en el lenguaje nativo fuera superior a otros métodos de educación que ponían más énfasis en la enseñanza en inglés.

"Más que ello", señaló el

Bennett terminó su intervención.

Dijo Jesucristo: Ustedes son la sal de la tierra, pero si la sal pierde el sabor... Ya no sirve para nada. Mat.5,13. Un líder cristiano necesita tener discernimiento, es decir que necesita conocer a Dios, y saber lo que quiere Dios, y conocer el plan de Dios.

Winner of the Señorita Fiestas Pageant, Cynthia will be representing Lubbock in the 1st Annual Mexican American Hispanic State Beauty Pageant which will be held in Galveston, Texas, October 17-19, 1985.

El maestro sabe muy bien

comienza a hacer el

"sure" o el drenaje, y a otro le dice: "tu haz aquí una pared." Y todos están trabajando haciendo la casa, pero nomás el "maestro" sabe como va a quedar la casa, el tiene idea de lo que esta haciendo. Cuando dos personas van arriba de un mismo caballo, es natural que el que va adelante ve mejor el camino y es el que lleva las riendas. El líder debe ser una persona que mire muy bien hacia adelante y que sepa a donde vamos, Porque es el que nos debe guiar, como Moisés en el desierto, porque conoce el plan de Dios. Pero si el líder no conoce la voluntad de Dios, no va a poder enseñarnosla.

Un ciego no puede guiar a otro ciego porque los dos se van a caer en un pozo. Algunos movimientos, que eran sal de la tierra ya perdieron su sabor, ya no sirven para nada, por falta de líderes con discernimiento. (Mat. 5,13).

Anheuser-Busch and Standard Sales are proud to salute and congratulate one of their own employees Joe S. Ramirez for being named one of 1985's Outstanding Young Men of America.

The Board of Advisors based their selection of Mr. Ramirez on his outstanding professional achievement, leadership abilities, and community service. "We are proud to have one of our own employees selected to this honor and have been happy to provide Joe the opportunity to fully participate in the community," said Gerald Thomas, general manager for Standard Sales in Lubbock.

Ramirez is currently vice-president of LULAC Council 263 and is serving his second term. He is also active member in COMA, the Mexican-American Chamber of Commerce. Ramirez is also a member of the Red Raider Club, an organization dedicated to the promotion of sports at Texas Tech University.

At 25 years old, Ramirez is currently City Sales Manager for Standard Sales after starting to work with the company only 5½ years ago as a route salesman. He now supervises six (6) people and is responsible for distribution to on-premise retail outlets. Ramirez also serves as the Hispanic representative for Standard Sales in the Lubbock area, a job which include being the liaison between the company and Hispanic organization and activities which involve Standard Sales.

Ramirez is married to the former Ida Martinez of El Paso, was born in Lubbock and graduated from Slaton High School in 1980. He is the son of Andrew and Bessie Ramirez of Slaton.

"I'd like to thank Standard Sales, my employer for its support and Mr. Chevo Moralez, past Deputy State Director for LULAC for nominating me for this honor," said Ramirez.

Ramirez' biographical sketch will be published in the 1985 edition of Outstanding Young Men of America.

Querido Dr. Cariño

Querido Dr. Cariño:

Desde que yo me acuerdo, (y tengo ya 60 años) nunca se acostumbraba colectar dinero entre las amistades con el fin de celebrar: Una boda, un bautismo, y mucho menos una celebración de Quinceañera.

Yo tengo cinco (5) hijos; dos mujeres y tres hombres. Dos de mis hijos, se casaron por la Iglesia, con todas las ceremonias y celebraciones de costumbre. Allí, hubo padrinos, madrinas, comida, baile, musica, invitaciones, bebidas etc... Pero de todos estos gastos, a nadie se le obligó a pagar un solo centavo. Todo mundo fue invitado, y no únicamente los familiares y uno que otro conocido—como lo hacen hoy en día.

Mis dos hijas celebraron sus quince años, con sus quince parejas, su baile y un banquete y una ceremonia apropiada para un grupo de jóvenes de esa edad. Allí, nadie se vió obligado a pagár un solo centavo. Al contrario, yo me sentí orgulloso de ver el esfuerzo de todos los padrinos, madrinas, etc., que acompañaron a mis hijos al altar. Si mas hubiera tenido, mas hubiera gastado en esos celebraciones. Y, yo no me considero sé rico. Trabajó a sueldo.

Pero, hoy en día, todo es puro interés. Ya nadie se acuerda de tradiciones, costumbres, ni honra familiar. ¡Nada! Eso, ya no se usa. Es cosa de antes. Estamos en tiempos modernos. Ahora se oyen que dicen algunos: "Voy a decirle a fulano que sea mi padrino de baile, o de musica, o de salon. Alcabo que él tiene dinero." Que le hace que apenas lo conosca.

Que vale que ni siquiera lo vuelva a vér después de la boda.

Pues, si ya sabe que no volverá a verlo, ¿para qué quiere que sea su padrino? Ah, pues, porque tiene dinero. Nada más por eso. Queremos que haya baile, comida, musica, salon, pastel...etc. Pero, no tenemos con que hacer todo esto. Entonces, habrá que acudir a nuestros amigos, vecinos parientes, y hasta uno que otro desconocido, para levantar fondos. Si, Señor. Dije levantar fondos porque no se trata de otra cosa.

Bueno, pero mejor aquí le párro. Yo puedo seguir mencionando más cosas sobre este tema, pero yo quiero saber cuál es su opinión. ¿Cree Ud. que yo estoy equivocado? A la mejor, no entiendo mucho de los estilos modernos. De todos modos, espero que me dé Ud. su opinión.

Firma: Trancionalista de Tahoka

Querido Tahoka:

Bueno, pues desde que yo me acuerdo, a esas personas (como las que Ud. dice) que solo procuraban a otros por su dinero, se les nombraba oportunistas, buscónes, vividores y algunos otros apodos más, que aquí mejor no digo. Se decía también, que eso era como 'saludar con sombrero ajeno'.

Ud. tiene razón. Debo felicitarle por tratar de conservar una tradición que es muy nuestra. Pero su opinión (como la mía) parece ser como un murmullo en el desierto. Pasa el viento del modernismo, y lo que no logra borrar, deja desfigurado.

Pero, jhágase contá entre los escasos tradicionales, renuentes al cambio modernista! Ya quedamos muy pocos.
