He attended the Common Wealth College of Science at Houston, Texas and finished all the prescribed courses that was required for funeral directing.

Part of his apprenticeship was done at Houston, Texas. The apprenticeship took two years, then he went before the State Board at Austin and passed his examination to receive his Directors License.

He returned last week from Commerce, Texas, where he took the body of Mrs. Beulah Farrow for services and burial. Jack Brown assisted him.

Both Almo and Leo are barbers and they work together in Leo Sedberry's Funeral home. They are members of the Messiah Presbyterian Church, and

Funeral Services Read for Mrs. Sedalia Solomon Here

Our community was shocked beyond words of expressions Wednesday morning when the news got around that Mrs. Sedalia Lee Solomon had suddenly passed away at her home a few hours after she had furnished music for the youth choir at Mt. Gilead Church on program at the New Hope Baptist Church.

Mrs. Solomon and her family moved to Lubbock in 1952, and had been residents here ever since. She was a member of the Ella Iles Elementary School faculty where she served 10 years.

Sedalia Lee Blakeley Solomon was born February 9, 1919, at Ferris, Texas, to Buck and Elva Blakeley. She was a member of a family of five children, three boys and two girls. Her father and two brothers preceded her in death. Her school career began in the Ferris Texas Elementary public school system and graduated from the I.M. Terrell High School at Ft. Worth, Texas. She attended Butler College Tyler, Texas, Bishop College Marshall, Texas, and received her B.S. Degree from Paul Quinn College Waco, Texas. She has studied at Denver University, Denver, Colo., North Texas State College Denton, Texas and spent one semester at Texas Tech. She possessed a special talent for music, and at the age of twelve, she began training and developing choirs and music groups. Later she was accompanist for the late Frank Aus-

SPORTS BRIEFS

By James Roy Lewis

After about eleven weeks of major league baseball, the red hot American league is really between about six teams at this writing. Cleveland Indians are leading by 1 1/2 games over the New York Yankees, Minnesota Twins and the Los Angeles Angels.

Detroit Tigers, Kansas City Athletics and Chicago White Sox are from 4 1/2 to 6 games back. The Boston Red Sox, Washington Senators and Baltimore Orioles are just about counted out of the picture altogether.

It looks like a five team race in the National league, which anyone could win the pennant with a hot streak in late August and September. They are Los Angeles, San Francisco, Pittsburgh, St. Louis and Cincinnati.

Leo Durocher was asked to compare Mickey Mantle or Voda Pinson with Willie Mays, and he said Mays was the only person in baseball that could do everything good. The others could do two or three things good but not all the things in baseball.

Frank Budd, Negro sprinter and the fastest in the world has signed a football contract with the Philadelphia Eagles football team.

The Baltimore Colts welcomed back to the line-up catcher Gus Triondos, who has been on the inactive list since May 23. Earl Robinson was optioned out to Rochester of the International League to make room for Triondos. He hit two home runs in the first game after his return.

Willie McCouey of the San Francisco Giants has been moved to left field as a fixture for his batting strength. He says he likes it much better than playing first base. His teacher is Hank Saver, one of the greatest fielders and hitters.

Congratulations to:

Born to Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Stephenson of 2608 Globe Ave. a son weighing 6 pounds 3 1/2 ounces at Methodist Hospital. Mr. Stephenson is employed at Pinkie's Package Store on the Buffalo Lake Road.

Congratulations to:

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Booker on the birth of a son Sunday June 24, at Methodist Hospital. The baby is doing fine and has been named Stephan Dwayne. The father is a member of Dunbar High School faculty, where he teaches Auto Mechanic. He is now attending summer school at Prairie View College. The Bookers have a small daughter, Rita, and reside at 301 East 20 Street.

Mrs. Daisey Reed Campbell, a former resident of Lubbock, of Waco, Texas, was visiting here the weekend and saying hello to old friends. She was guest of Mrs. Daisy Deo and Mrs. Rosa Henry. She contacted other friends by telephone. She came from Amarillo, Texas, where she was visiting relatives.
