Childrens Home Opens Soon

How many of you knew that last December 6th, Christians of the Pioneer Park Church gave more than $5,000 in cash and pledges for the purchase of a lot and for the beginning phases of construction of the Coronado Children's Home Cottage (to be located at 30th and Redbud Streets). All of the members of this congregation have seen wonders in these four months

CITY DEMOCRATS MEET

On last Monday night the Lubbock democrats held their monthly meeting at the Plains Co-op Oil Mill. A score or more members were present to meet the new president.

A drive is presently on for new members to join the organization. Anyone wishing to become a member of this organization may contact Mr. Earnest Butler. The organization meets the third Monday of each month.

that have elapsed since that time. They were made happy to see the construction begin, and now, they rejoice even more to see that the walls are up and the trusses are being placed last week.

The Coronado Children's Home will be a reality as the first orphan and dependent Negro children soon walk into their new home to begin a new life with a new "Mommy and Daddy."

The members of the congregation prepared to do what they did on last December 6th, last Sunday. They realize that the time of greatest expense faces them. Those who need help are standing with outstretched arms asking for help. We are our bro-

The Jolly Eight Bridge Club met Friday night April 30th at 2302 Date Avenue at the Thornton residence.

The meeting was openence at 8:30 with the president Leno Melton presiding. The last minutes were read and approved by the secretary Mrs. Leola Thornton.

Various discussings were made along with suggestions for future entertainment. Four rounds of bridge were played with Mrs. Doris Powell winning the trophy for high score and Mrs. Virginia Lewis winning the booby prize trophy for low score.

A delicious emnu was served by the hostess W.R. Powells.

The South Plains Lions Boys' Club walked away with the runner-up trophy at the Optimist Club City track meet last Saturday. The meet was for boys from six through sixteen yeras of age.

Top honors were received in the meet by Charles Cooke, III, in the eight year old group of a twenty-five yard dash; the two-hundred yard relay was won by Larry Shelby, Robert Moore, Rodney Moore, and Charles Cooke, III, all eight years old.

Shelby also won the broad jump in that group. In the 9-10 year old group the two twenty yard relay was won by Orlanda Lee, Lambert Wilson, Billy McCormick, and Napoleon Cain. Wilson also won 1st place in the high jump.

The two twenty relay in the 11-12 year old group was won by a team of Don McGraw, Daniel Johnson, Floyd Ellis, and Billy McKnight.

TO YOU MOTHER

From birth to young adulthood she never has shirked her task of teaching our children the many things that are so necessary for them to know. Educated or uneducated, she is an all round educator in every field of child development. There is no limit to her working hours and she is never too busy or tired to give each child the individual attention needed for all around development.

Long before our public and private educators knew the child existed and yeras after his name is just another child that was in past year classes, you will find this educator still helping to develop this same child. When this child fianlly reaches young adulthood, our faithful, happy determined educator, through the years has been nurse, supervisor, and counselor. She has taught language arts, arithmetic, health, social studies, science, psychology, and physical education.

This as you have already guessed is non other than the American Mother... Just an average person doing her share in educating America's children.

To you mother... this week... and this Sunday... All America salutes you.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

It is with a great deal of pride that I count Messrs. Ralph Payton and Wm. C. Young among my most meaningful, personal friends. Not only do I admire their personal attributes, but also the extended effects of their business lives which have contributed to the social well-being of many people.

Taking advantage of the American system of free-enterprise, these Christian gentlemen have built a prosperous insurance company. The benefits of this endeavor have been extended in many directions: financing churches and other building projects, and building an attractive, centrally located and convenient apartment area for those who care for better living in exclusive rental property- THE CRESTHAVEN HOMES.

A recent conversation with Mr. Young revealed that the purpose of CRESTHAVEN HOMES was to bring into focus a new emphasis in apartment living in this section of Lubbock. Included is a special corner, overlooking the canyon, for the young married couple, for the single young career man or lady who wants a good start in independent living. There is also a separate corner designed for the elder members who prefer a place of their own with little incumberance. The remaining sections are intended for the small family groups who desire gracious living.

When Cresthaven Homes were first built, they were frame structures. After several years of occupancy, they began to take on the look of "old houses". Messrs. Payton and Young recognized that their vision of gracious living would subside into obscurity with the fading of the houses; therefore, they replaced the frame structures with modern and attractive brick structures. Recently they have spent considerable time, effort and expense to bring these apartments up to their original and intended attractive standards.

The owners of CRESTHAVEN HOMES care about how people live. We, therefore, recommend Messrs. Payton and Young and their project to whom it may concern to reside in an apartment which will lend dignity to living.

Pork Chops Take Orange Stuffing

Yes, they're stuffed with a delectable combination of orange pulp and raisins! It's a neat trick but easy-to-do if you know how.

Everyone likes surprises, especially when they're flavor treats.

The best candidate for this office is a pork chop stuffed with a spicy, fruit-filled bread crumb mixture. When neatly done, you'd never suspect these pork chops had such an extra, added attraction. How's it done?

Select pork rib chops for stuffing, advises meat expert, Reba Staggs, and be certain they are 1-inch thick. With a small sharp knife, cut a slit along the rib bone, parallel to cut surface of chop. Do not cut all the way to the outer fat edge.

Orange-Raisin Stuffed Pork Chops

6 pork rib chops, cut 1-inch thick

- 2 cups dry bread crumbs
- 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1/2 cup raisins
- 1 cup diced orange pulp
- 2 tablespoons lard or drippings
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 1/4 cup orange juice
- 1/4 cup water

Make a pocket in each pork chop by cutting into chop along the bone. Combine bread crumbs, nutmeg, raisins and orange pulp and stuff each chop with the mixture. Brown chops in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Season chops with salt and pepper. Add orange juice and water. Cover tightly and cook slowly 45 minutes to 1 hour or until done. 6 servings.

Cranberry-Orange Muffins

A second call to breakfast won't be necessary when you serve Cranberry-Orange Muffins with the morning juice and coffee. The aroma of freshly baked quick breads rouses even the most determined late riser. Round out the breakfast menu with orange juice, soft-cooked eggs, bacon, milk and coffee.

Delicious as plain muffins and biscuits are, explore the possibilities of adding other foods, as in these Cranberry-Orange Muffins. Fruits or vegetables add flavor as well as extra nutrients to your favorite hot breads, which are basically nutritious when made with enriched flour.

Much of the daily requirement of thiamine, niacin, riboflavin and iron is supplied by four or more servings of enriched bread products each day. Remember, too, hot breads are traditional at breakfast, but they are equally appreciated for lunch, dinner or at snack time.

12 muffins

- 1 cup coarsely chopped fresh cranberries
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 2 cups sifted enriched flour*
- 3 tablespoons sugar
- 1 tablespoon baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 egg, beaten
- 1 cup milk
- 3 tablespoons melted shortening or oil
- 1 tablespoon grated orange rind

Grease medium-sized muffin pan. Preheat oven to 425°. In small bowl combine cranberries and 1/2 cup sugar. Allow to stand while preparing muffin batter. Into medium-sized mixing bowl sift together flour, 3 tablespoons sugar, baking powder and salt. Blend together egg, milk, shortening or oil and orange rind. Add liquid all at once to flour mixture, stirring only until flour is moistened. Stir in cranberries with last few strokes. Fill muffin cups 3/4 full. Bake 20 to 25 minutes, or until golden brown.

*If you don't sift and in the absence of other directions, spoon flour directly from container into a one-cup dry measure, level off, then remove two level tablespoonfuls, according to USDA recommendations.

NOTE: If self-rising flour is used, omit baking powder and salt.

Cranberries Add Color, Tartness To Pot-Roast

When the family brings home the appetites of lumberjacks, the menu should feature a hearty cut of meat where seconds and even thirds can be called for.

With beef supplies plentiful, the heel of round or a rolled rump pot-roast fits this bill of fare perfectly, states Reba Staggs, widely known meat authority.

Both cuts come from the hind-quarter, the section known as the round or rump. Both cuts are easy to carve. A beef heel of round is a wedge-shaped cut from the lower part of the round. It has little fat and is considered less tender and should be braised as a pot-roast.

Rump roasts of high quality can also be roasted; otherwise, they're considered less tender and should be braised as in this pot-roast recipe which features whole cranberries with cloves and cinnamon for spicing.

Cranberry Pot-Roast

- 3 to 4-pound beef heel of round or rolled rump pot-roast
- 1/4 cup flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 3 tablespoons lard or drippings
- 1 cups cranberries
- 1 1/4 cups water
- 8 whole cloves
- 2 sticks cinnamon
- 3 tablespoons sugar
- Flour for gravy, if desired
- Mix flour, salt and pepper. Dredge meat in seasoned flour. Brown in lard or drippings. Boil together cranberries with 1 cup water until skins pop. Pour over meat and add remaining 1/4 cup water with cloves and cinnamon sticks. Cover tightly and cook slowly 3 1/2 to 4 hours or until tender. Remove meat and strain liquid. Add sugar and thicken cooking liquid with flour for gravy, if desired. 6 to 8 servings.

Take That Trip To South Seas Via Sandwiches

Imagination's a marvelous device for traveling to far-off places on a nothing budget!

Snow may swirl and fall while Jack Frost pinches your cheeks with his icy fingers but you can imagine going to a tropical isle when eating these special sandwiches which are heated.

Conveniently canned luncheon meat, says home economist, Reba Staggs, is used finely chopped or ground.

South Seas Delight Sandwiches

1 can (12 ounces) luncheon

- meat, ground or finely chopped
- 3 tablespoons chopped green pepper
- 1/4 cup peeled, chopped cucumber
- 2 tablespoons toasted, slivered almonds
- 1/4 cup mayonnaise
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice
- 1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 2 tablespoons catchup
- 6 frankfurter buns

Combine all ingredients except buns. Spread mixture between buns allowing approximately 1/2 cup per bun. Wrap buns tightly in aluminum foil. Bake in a hot oven (400° F.) 10 minutes. 6 sandwiches.

Spicy Apples Spark Pork Roast

Cook on Rack in Open Pan

It's the season for entertaining! That means your best china, linen, flowers or fresh fruit for a centerpiece—or, in other words, "the works."

Entertaining usually means a roast because meat in a single large piece is easiest to prepare and makes a show-piece.

One of the most attractive roasts to serve is a pork loin, especially one that's dressed up with a rosy apple topping. It will take 3 to 4 hours to roast the pork, points out Reba Staggs, meat cookery expert, but the topping is spread on the meat only during the last 20 to 30 minutes.

Pork Loin Roast - Spicy Apple Topping

- 4 to 6-pound pork loin roast
- Salt and pepper
- Spicy Apple Topping

Have backbone removed from loin. Season. Place fat side up on rack in open roasting pan. Insert meat thermometer so bulb reaches center of thickest part. Do not add water. Do not cover. Roast in a moderate oven (325° F. to 350° F.) 3 to 4 hours or until roast meat thermometer registers 185° F. Allow about 35 to 40 minutes per pound of roasting time. Spread 1/2 cup Spicy Apple Topping evenly over meat and return to oven to finish roasting and set glaze. Serve remaining topping as meat accompaniment.

Spicy Apple Topping

- 1 can (1 pound, 4 ounces) sliced apples
- 1/2 cup apple juice
- 1/2 cup cinnamon candies
- 1/2 teaspoon ginger
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice

Drain apples. Measure apple juice. If necessary, add water to apple juice to make 1/2 cup. Chop apple slices finely. Combine apples, juice, cinnamon candies, ginger and lemon juice. Cook slowly, stirring occasionally until thickened, 25 to 30 minutes. Yield: 1 1/2 cups.

Carving the Pork Loin

The man who heads the table probably won't object to carving if the lady in the kitchen has prepared him for it. She can provide him with a just-sharpened carving knife. In addition, she should have the retailer loosen the backbone from the ribs. The backbone separated from the ribs during roasting, shown by this first illustration.

Before the roast is placed on the serving platter, the lady of the house can cut between the backbone and the rib ends, as shown by this picture below.

Place the roast on the platter with rib side facing the carver. This makes following the rib bones easy. Insert the fork firmly in the top of the roast. Cut close against both sides of each rib. One serving will include a rib bone while the next serving will be boneless.

Q. What is the name of this cut of meat?

A. Pork Rib Chops.

Q. Where do they come from? How are they identified?

A. They come from the loin section of pork. They have one muscle and may or may not have a rib bone, depending upon how thick they're cut. The chops with no bone are called boneless rib chops.

Q. How are they cooked?

A. Usually by braising or baking but they are also popular for grilling or broiling. Braising is a moist heat method that calls for browning the meat in its own fat or drippings before a small amount of moisture is added. After browning, the chops are seasoned, the cooking liquid is added and the pan is covered tightly. The cooking may be done on a surface unit or in the oven, but it must be done slowly for best results in flavor and appearance. Chops cut 3/4 to 1-inch thick require 45 minutes to an hour for cooking time. Chops may be baked in a 325° F.-350° F. oven. Grill or bake at a moderate temperature so that the chops are well done by the time they are browned.

Q. For what is pork noted?

A. Pork, in addition to being good to eat, is the best natural source of thiamine, one of the B-complex vitamins.

Beef Roasting Time

Most rib roasts wear the short compact look these days because the retailer has removed the short ribs. As a result, the compact rib roast has approximately the same diameter as well as the same roasting time as a boned, rolled rib roast.

If the beef rib roast has been left with the ribs long, that is, 7 to 9 inches, it will require less roasting time than that roast which is compact and measures 5 to 7 inches.

Lunch Box Idea

Looking for a new sandwich spread for lunch boxes? Combine 1 pound of liver sausage with 1 teaspoon onion juice and 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce. Add 1/2 cup chopped cucumber with peel and 1/2 cup salad dressing. This makes 2 1/2 cups of spread.

Frank Scramble

Give a youngster a protein boost for breakfast by serving him sliced frankfurters in scrambled eggs. Those thinly sliced hot dogs added to the egg-milk mixture when it's poured into the frying-pan for scrambling may be just the thing to catch and hold his interest long enough to get him to eat this important first meal of the day.

Breakfast Pep-Up

On a blustery cold morning, the man-of-the-house may require special breakfast tactics to get him moving. Why not open a can of corned beef hash at both ends and push out the molded meat-potato mixture?

Cut this into 1-inch slices, pan-fry in drippings long enough to heat through and serve topped with poached or fried eggs. It'll be a happy good morning to you, too!

WINDOW DOOR BROKEN AT ELK'S LODGE

Police were notified of a front door glass having been kicked out at the Caprock Lodge of Elks at 606 17th Street. However in checking the building out it was found that none of the vending machines had been bothered. Arthur Blanton, Exalted Ruler of the lodge, stated that he had closed the doors of the building about 12:30 am Sunday morning. There was no sign of anything that was used to break the glass. The door had apparently been kicked out. There was no sign of entry.

MAN STAGGERING

In the 100 block of Broadway last Saturday night a man was staggering across a parking lot, near the railroad overpass. He was stopped and questioned, and was found in a very drunken condition. On his left cheek was a small cut. When asked by police what had happened, he replied he had cut himself with a razor.

He was later booked. *****
'ROLLED HOUSE' FOUND AND ARREST MADE
 In a house on Avenue D in a known bootlegger location, a man and a sixteen year old boy were arrested last week. For several weeks the police department had known of rumored reports of men getting rolled at this place. A sergeant on the department had been watching the house for several weeks. He discovered two other houses over the past several days where the pair were going and reclaiming wine and whiskey. A juvenile boy had run from the officer on two separate occasions in the last two weeks, apparently with a paper sack full of wine and whiskey. The boy had always run to the house where the pair were later arrested and would lock the door. At the time of his arrest, the resident of the house pulled a knife on police officers.

PLACE SELLING BEER

Last Saturday night police were parked in the alley behind a cafe in the 1800 block of Avenue B when a man came out of the back door of the cafe and went into an apartment north of the cafe. In about two minutes he came out of the apartment with a sack in his possession. When he saw the police, he threw the sack down and ran in the back door of the cafe, with the police in hot pursuit he darted out the front door and got away.

A little later, Officer Britt and Adams saw him leaving the cafe in a car and they stopped him. The wagon was called and nine men were arrested inside the cafe and carried downtown.

Olive Baptist Church, Rev. James Hill, pasotr. The theme of this meeting being "Seek Ye First the Kingdom". Rev. Williams delivered the sermon.

NEW HOPE BAPTIST CHURCH

Arecital will be spponsored by the W. M. S. on Sunday, May 16th, at 7:00pm. Our women would greatly appreciate the cooperation from our many friends. Please come out to hear these spiritual artist; Mmes. B. Thigpen, B. Kelly, and Mr. C. L. Ervin.

Federation of choirs will be held on the third Sunday, which is May 16th, due to the graduation services that will be held on the fourth Sunday.

Our junior choir is planning a special service in the very near future. Keep informed so you can come out and hear our adults of tomorrow.

MOUNT GILEAD BAPTIST CHURCH

The Mt. Gilead Baptist Church worshipped at the Antioch Baptist Church of Tahoka, Texas, last Sunday afternoon. The program in-

City; Isaac King of Cooper; and Willie Lee King of Bonham, brothers and sisters of the King family.

Eight brothers and sisters in the King family along iwth their children and grand-children assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Reynolds for their first family reunion. The homecoming was initiated by the return of Sgt. First Class and Mrs. Algia E. Huff and children from Heidelberg, Germany, where he has served the past two years.

The two sisters of Lubbock had not seen the Huff family in 13 years, and other members of the family had not met in five years.

In the above picture are eight brothers and sisters of the King family and their children and grand-children, numbering fifty-six, in their first family reunion at Commerce, Texas, Sunday, April 11th. Twenty-two members of the family were absent.

cluded the installation service for Rev. and Mrs. C.W. Henderson.

Dinners are sold each Saturday at the dinner hall of the church. Everyone is asked to come by and feast themselves.
