Mount Gilead Baptist Church Respond To Charges Made

(Editor's Note: Documents and letters were made available by Mr. Charles W. Johnson, church treasurer of Mount Gilead Baptist Church.)

In respond to an article in last week's edition of the Lubbock Digest entitled "It's A Lie", members of the Mount Gilead Baptist Church have obtained documents and letters to refute the charges made by one of their church members, Mr. B. W. R. Whitfield.

Those documents and letters are shown below and explains the status of the church at present time.

In last week's article, Mr. Whitfield claimed that it was a "funny mortgage."

Mr. B. W. R. Whitfield
1401 E. 23rd Street
Lubbock, Texas 79409

Dear Mr. Whitfield:

The Mount Gilead Baptist Church has responded to the charges made by you in your article in the Lubbock Digest, dated November 11, 1979. The church has obtained documents and letters to refute the charges made by you. These documents and letters are shown below and explain the status of the church at present time.

In your article, you claimed that the church was a "funny mortgage." This is not true. The church is a legitimate business and has been operating since 1954. The church has a good reputation in the community and is a member of the National Baptist Convention, Inc.

The church has a long history and has been serving the community for many years. We are proud of our church and its members. We hope that you will understand the church's position and that you will not spread any more rumors.

Sincerely,
Mr. Charles W. Johnson
Church Treasurer

City Wide Thanksgiving Gospel Musical Here

The Greater New Light Baptist Church is sponsoring a City Wide Thanksgiving Gospel Musical on Saturday, November 27, beginning at 7 p.m. at the church, 3001 East 7th Street. All of the churches of Lubbock have already been notified and are in preparation for this musical. The whole city of Lubbock will be on program. There will be trophies awarded to the first and second place winners. Judges for this musical have been selected and will be announced at a later date. This program is given

Black Caucus Calls For National Outcry Against Klan

The killings in Greensboro, North Carolina by the Ku Klux Klan are only the latest in a series of shocking and outrageous violent actions taken by the Klan. During the Congressional Black Caucus conference in Birmingham, Alabama, a peaceful demonstration led by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference in Decatur, Alabama was viciously attacked by the Klan. In Mississippi, southern New Jersey and other areas of the country there have been attacks by extremists on Black communities. In Dearborn, Michigan, two General Motors plant supervisors recently came to work in Klan robes.

We call on every American of conscience, dignity and decency to speak out against the re-emergence of the Klan and the increase in racial incidents. Every church leader, labor leader, business and community leader and every political leader in the nation must lend his or her voice in opposition to the re-birth of open hatred and violence led by the Klan. Klan violence threatens not only Black Americans, but every American. When our basic freedoms are attacked, silence is consent.

investigate its activities which violate the law. Congressional committees with jurisdiction must quickly hold oversight hearings into these events. All candidates for high public office, particularly the presidential candidates of both parties, must make opposition to Klan violence and opposition to the new mood of intolerance and divisiveness emerging in our nation a public issue of top priority.

"Mr. & Miss Hope Deliverance Temple" Chosen Here Last Week

Hope Deliverance Temple, Church of God in Christ, Rev. Charles Tanner, pastor, would like to proudly announce their "Mr. & Miss Hope Deliverance Temple." They are Miss Michelle Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Manahan of 1303 East 17th Street. At age 10, she is a fifth grader at Overton Elementary School. Mr. Paul Daniels, age 11, is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Levi Lenley of 4645 52nd Street. First runner-ups were Little Mister Christopher George Quigley of 1818 East Amherst, son of Ms. Odessa Quigley. Also Miss Angella Flowers, age 12, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Flowers of 2730 East 7th Street. She is a seventh grader at Alderson Junior High School. The winner, Mickie, received a very pretty flowered dress and Paul received a pair of slacks and a shirt.

Mrs. Annie Sanders Named "Queen Of National Ushers"

Queen of National Baptist Convention Ushers and Royal Court

Mrs. Annie Sanders, a member of the Greater Saint Luke Baptist Church, won the coveted title "Queen of the National Baptist Convention Ushers," in ceremonies held in San Antonio, Texas recently. Mrs. Sanders represented the entire State of Texas and was one of the three finalists in the Usher Queen Contest. Second runner-up was the contestant from Florida; first runner-up was the contestant from Indiana, with Mrs. Sanders winning the title "National Baptist Usher Queen."

Baptist Church for thirty-three years. Mrs. Sanders has been an usher and has worked with the Junior Usher Board of the church for twenty-five years. She has been Usher Board president of the Lovely Sunset District Association since 1973. Some of her outstanding contributions to her church include being the Superintendent and teacher of the Beginners' Department of the Sunday School, president Coordinator (First Lady's Volunteer program for fifteen counties), works with the Girl and Boy Scouts, and is an active supporter of the Boys' Clubs. The following awards have been received by Mrs. Sanders: "Family of the Year in Sunday School", "Mother's Day - was awarded a token of love for mothering the most children at church; Appreciation awards from the South Plains Boys' Club; Award in appreciation for unselfish service and dedication to Dunbar High School; received a proclamation from the late Mayor Roy Bass, designating May 14, 1975 as "Annie Sanders Day" in Lubbock; and a poem was dedicated to her by Mrs. Katie Parks.

Brother And Sister Sell "Lubbock Digest" Here

Two the local young people who sell the "Lubbock Digest" each Thursday are Portia Danett and Kevin Lethridge. They are son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Lethridge of 3505 East Cornell Avenue. If you need someone to deliver your "Digest", just let one of them know. They will tell you, "We enjoy selling this newspaper."

Kevin Lethridge
"I'm glad to sell the Lubbock Digest, because I make money, and people buy them. There are Black people in the newspaper, and I'm glad," says Portia.

POLICE HAPPENINGS AROUND LUBBOCK

CRIMINAL MISCHIEF

J. C. JOHNSON, 1712 East 27th Street, reported to Lubbock police that a man threw a cue ball through his car which was parked outside a pool hall one night this week. According to the police report, the man told them that the man was throwing at another person when he hit his car with the cue ball. The cue ball broke a window to his vehicle.

The police report states that both were drinking in the pool hall (700 15th Street) when the man picked up a handful of cue balls and ran outside throwing at the other person.

Johnson told police that he would file charges against the man this week.

There was $50 worth of damage done to the vehicle.

BURGLARY OF HABITATION

LOUISE FORD, 3502 East Colgate Avenue, reported to Lubbock that while she was returning to her new residence with another load of belongings, she found two young fellows in the living room. She told police that had broken into her house and had taken some of her possessions. Taken from the residence was $20 worth of wall placard with astrological depictions. She took the license plate number of the car the pair fled in.

CRIMINAL MISCHIEF

MARGURITE DIXON, 7902 Avenue H, was a very unhappy young Black sister this week. You see, she reported to Lubbock police that someone unknown took a rock and threw it through some of the windows on the south side of her residence.

The rocks broke most of the windows. Approximately $100 worth of damage was done to the house.

BURGLARY OF HABITATION

T. S. JAMISON, 1502 59th Street, reported to Lubbock police that persons unknown gained entry to his house one night this week by removing a screen on the north side of the house

Now Is The Time To Move Ahead

The meeting with Lubbock County officials and East Lubbock citizens this week (Tuesday night at Mac Simmons Community Center) proved to be rewarding and informative. Residents learned things about county government which they did not know before this meeting. This writer can say, with sincerity, those in attendance at least learned the functions of this county government. Questions were explained with answers which made sense. Some questions were answered as to the roles of county vs city government. This, in this writer's opinion, was cleared up. Another meeting has been planned for after the first of the year.

With this upcoming meeting, the community will get ready their many questions to these county officials and others, because they (Black people in particular) need to know more about their country (particulate) need to know more about their county government and from those elected officials who implement and set policy.

This writer feels as though a line of communications was opened this week for future ventures.

Lubbock County officials present were Rod Shaw, Lubbock County Judge; County Commissioners James Lancaster and Coy Biggs; and Hal Hensley of the Criminal District Attorneys Office. It is this writer's hope that John T. Montford, Criminal District Attorney, will be present at the next meeting.

This writer received a few comments on the article a couple weeks ago questioning the future of the Conference of Organizations' activities. Was glad to hear they are well and operating. My thing is still, let the people know if you have a good thing, then flout it and don't keep it a secret.

Looks like Black people will properly get the shaft again with the naming of Quirt Avenue to Dr. Martin Luther King Boulevard. Or if so, it will be the first time, but for Black people to accomplish anything, we have to do more ahead and enmass as a total community collectively. This is key and crucial. No one can do it. Together is the only way. It has to be the community collectively. No one organization or group can do it. Together and collectively as a united community. Nuff sed. Self explanatory!! WHY NOT?

Now is the time to move ahead especially after last Saturday's incident when a cowboy in a pick up truck pulled up to a Black man and almost blew the Black man's brains out with an illegal weapon. The Black community has sit back and keep a hush mouth. This shows us where we stand and what kind of leadership we have and how fast we are going back to the back of the bus. Wake up Black folks, because the KKK is getting stronger as we grow more complacent and satisfied. (For more about KKK, read story on front page).

This writer had a good experience last Thursday at the Hilton Inn with one of the brightest and most functioning brains I have had the pleasure of talking to in a long time. The person behind the active brains was Albert Hall, co-star of the movie, "Apocalypse Now." He talked about DEVINE PROVIDENCE, and everything from cosmos to garbage collecting which he did one time before being promoted to the water department and a twelve pound jack hammer, to a degree in fine arts from Columbia University.

In 1971, he left Broadway and a successful career for Hollywood and status very positive. Apocalypse Now is the beginning of my career, he says. "Timing is no factor, because you create your own timing," he said. He continued: "I knew I was in the cast before I got the part. Each man must go inside himself and clean up himself. Will man change in time? Only time will tell." At this point, he was talking about Revelations from the Christian Bible.

"A cooperative effort to increase efficiencies and reduce urban costs."

He said: "I only learn what is important to me, there are a lot of actors whom I didn't know before this movie. I was an insignificant actor; no one cared or knew about me. It made me!!"

"Peace and brotherhood is a must for all people on this planet." When asked about the Black super fly movies, "Good Times," "The Jeffersons", and others, he looked up and said: "Man, those super fly and the rash of Black movies like "Shaft" was Black explorator to make white people money and for television. It's a condensed schooling schedules and commercialism, and a white medium designed to entertain white people ever with so called Black shows." The Nielson ratings only reach the white middle class homes. The medium is establishment, owned by the status quo.

"I prefer to stay away from racism, but the in crowd is predominately white. They put out what pleases them!! Albert said forcibly without embarrassment, "What I see in my vision is not what TV programmers see these days. That's why as an actor, I've been unemployed and I've put my wife to work, because I will not be condensed upon and never be made less than a total man. The thing that moves me in my soul as an actor are the inequities and injustices of what TV can do to a person.

"People see the characters on TV and say that's how Black folks think about themselves. I'm sick of folks writing scripts and telling me who I am. It blows my mind as a Black man, but it also affects the white kids watching who say 'Mommy that's how Black folks are'. The Black characters on TV basically either are spineless or dumb. And all the beautiful Black women in the world today, everyone on TV is an Aunt Jemima. I am here for the cause of changing that. I would give my life if necessary to change that image. To fight that sort of injustice, not for myself, but for any minority."

Albert Hall is more concerned about being a man, a person, an actor. "Apocalypse Now," will more than likely make him more famous than his most minute dream. He will never sit around waiting for parts anymore. When asked his views, he said "This is the type of movie wher yesterday I was nobody, and today, I am a star. People are sending me a script now."

Now they are writing him and asking: "Mr. Hall, will you look at this?" "I've been in Hollywood since 1971. This is the beginning of my career. I don't expect it to stop. I know it wont. It will be catapulted from "Apocalypse Now," and ascended to higher and higher heights. "You see, it's my time to do my thing."

Right on, Brother Hall, this is image building, first class. Everybody is somebody. Everybody has a purpose on this earth. Yes, every Black.

BLACK EMPOWERMENT

By Dr. Nathaniel Wright, Jr.
Human Rights Activist

THIS WEEK WE EXAMINE

PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES

By a variety of signs, there may be a presidential contest next year between President Carter—regardless of the media and polls—and former California Governor Ronald Reagan. Black Americans particularly—along with many who are traditionally liberals and moderates—need to be alert to the significance of this possibility.

Black Americans have much at stake in both candidacies. If President Carter is nominated again, black Americans must watch out for a posture of being taken for granted. Even more important for blacks is a need to urge upon the President that he make some adjustments right now to demonstrate his good faith and concern for the interests of black Americans. Nothing perhaps could go farther to symbolize a spirit of openness toward and inclusion of blacks in the center of his administration's concern than for the President to appoint an able black as a close presidential advisor in what is called the White House inner circle. Decisions are made daily at the White House which affect the well-being and progress of black Americans, and the responsibility for recommending those decisions rests entirely within white hands.

The President could doubtless do no single act to encourage a greater confidence in his administration on the part of black Americans than to appoint his presently closest top black aide—a White House public relations officer—Louis Martin, to a higher place than that of image-making and into the closest possible policy advising position to the President himself.

Just as long as white counselors to the President continue to make the basic policy recommendations affecting the interests of black people, just so long can the charges of paternalism, indifference or both be leveled against our presently beleaguered President.

But Mr. Carter can do much more. Because of the persistently critical needs of black Americans in maintaining an almost decade-long Depression Era level of unemployment and because of the acute housing, educational and welfare needs of black people, the President ought to have had a blue ribbon panel on the self-sufficiency needs of black Americans. No one in America would object to the goal of having black Americans become self-sufficient. But no one has made a concerted effort to initiate any federal action in this regard.

Most of the white criticism of programs aimed at black Americans has focused upon their relief-oriented and "giveaway" aspects. A White House panel designed to ascertain the best ways to get black people standing on their own would require the input of all segments of our society, thus putting many diverse interests on at least a part of the "Carter team." It would also go far in serving notice to black Americans themselves that the "day of the dole" cannot last forever.

A similar panel on citizen suggestions for energy-saving would work to the practical benefit of the poor and all urban minorities. Further, it would go far to having all of our citizens become involved in a Carter-led enterprise which sees every citizen and his or her immediately pressing needs as having a place of priority on the Carter White House agenda.

For Mr. Reagan's part, black voters must be seen as essential for his victory. Indeed, this is just as crucial for black Americans themselves. A Reagan victory without substantial black support, while unlikely, could prove a disaster for blacks if brought about by default or by any other means.

Mr. Reagan should have, from the very start, able and substantial black leadership in his inner circle of advisors. He must speak effectively, creatively and forthrightly to black needs which are essentially those of urban dwellers and which match in many respects those of the aged. For carrying a number of industrial states, black votes are swing votes and could represent for Mr.

Reagan the margin which spells either victory or defeat. One bit of advice to Mr. Reagan personally. He does not have to sell his conservative philosophy. But he does have to sell himself. There could be few steps on his part which would go farther to allay the fears of liberal and moderate Americans—including those of the labor movement—than for Mr. Reagan to make a forthright pitch to taking black Americans off the dole and into the ranks of self-sufficiency and productivity. His own partisans would also rejoice, as this is entirely consistent with their battle cries of tax relief for all and not "welfare relief" for the poor.

While only a beginning, this would certify Mr. Reagan as "real." Thus far, in some circles, his reality has been in doubt.

International News...

Zambia — Joshua Nkomo, a co-leader of the Patriotic Front (or Zimbabwe "guerrillas") came into increasing prominence in the stepped-up politicking for places of control and influence in the hoped-for new black majority ruled Zimbabwe.

The Patriotic Front has had the support of the major black African nations and has been said to be a formidable power in and of itself. Mr. Nkomo has kept a cool head, with his troops in readiness but inactive. Coupled with the holding of the reins on his troops, Mr. Nkomo and other leaders of the Patriotic Front were reported to be negotiating for possible intervention by Cuba and Russia, if the United States and Britain proved ultimately unsuccessful in gaining membership in a governing coalition for the Patriotic Front.

This need is precisely the problem of which U.N. Ambassador Young has warned. Young has seen the success of failure of a transitional government for Zimbabwe as being dependent upon full participation of the Patriotic Front whose forces make it necessary for the white government to negotiate for majority rule in the first place.

South Africa — This white minority ruled nation, which has successfully defied world opinion for years, "temporarily" agreed to yield on Namibia, granting this territory long known as South-West Africa its independence.

Not only lay skeptics but also seasoned politicians have suggested that the South African concession was, at best, temporary since the South Africans have changed their position on this issue more than once in the past.

Further, the activity of guerrilla groups might be used at any time to change South Africa's mind on the pretext or belief that the safety of South Africans and the security of the agreed upon arrangements were at stake.

The principal guerrilla group is the African People's Organization, whose leader Sam Nuyoma believes that the present arrangements leave important issues unresolved. Meanwhile, the United Nations has placed unusually strong pressures upon South Africa to withdraw from the territory over which it has legally held only a U.N. mandate. Peaceful prospects for Namibian independence thus looked upwards but uncertain.

National News...

Oakland, California — "Nothing's new in Oakland" is a saying that many blacks, Chicanos and Orientals have repeated for years when discrimination was involved.

Hence the attempt recently to re-incarcerate Black Panther leader Huey P. Newton came as no surprise. That the prudent judge in the case refused to raise Newton's bail from $80,000 to $200,000 did much to keep the city calm.

The prosecutor had argued that once while free on bail, Mr. Newton had fled to Cuba. Blacks asked, just where in the world could he would a voluntarily returned Huey Newton flee?

Birmingham, Alabama — A former Harvard dean left Birmingham's black Miles College to join the staff of another black college and assume an endowed professorship. The former dean, John U. Monro, is a trustee of his new school, Tougaloo College in Mississippi.

Like many liberal-minded Americans John Monro entertains the conviction that blacks use "bad English." At Miles College, he organized a remedial verbal skills department separate from the English Department. Dr. Monro's departure marked a rejection by Miles of his conjectures concerning the needs of blacks. Once again, the fate and fortunes, the needs and talents of blacks, are being weighed by outsiders, suggesting the possible need for a far more aggressive approach to black educational needs by blacks themselves. The theme continues below...

Tallahassee, Florida — Here at black-oriented Florida A. and M. University black business administration dean, Dr. Sybil C. Mobley, a 52 year old lady educator born in Shreveport, Louisiana, believes that the special needs of blacks can be met best within the black-oriented institutions.

Last year Dr. Mobley assembled a freshman business administration class of 252 students, 240 of which had been cited by the national Achievement Scholarship Program for outstanding blacks. Says Dr. Mobley: "We are preparing students to make a benign assault on corporate America." Of the quality of work she states: "We got hold of the kinds of forms that corporations use to rate employees, and we develop those traits—written

BLACK EVENTS QUIZ

(This quiz is designed to accompany History-Making Black happenings. It can be used for classroom discussion or to help you focus your own thinking on current issues.)

1) As "transition" seems to follow the "on again" — "off again" pattern in Zimbabwe, the "guerrilla" Patriotic Front has seemed to gain increased leverage to determine whether it will be war or peace, and whether there will or will not be a transition to black majority rule. What leverage do you see to be in the hands of the Patriotic Front? Do you feel that peaceable transition will transpire within this year? 2) Namibia (or South-West Africa) has been short-changed, so some observers feel, by the United Nations which has—at least theoretically — ultimate authority over its destiny. What else do you feel that the U.N. might do to assure that full justice comes about for Namibia? 3) Some legal authorities feel that the bail system is both discriminatory on its face and a failure. What is your estimate of the system? 4) The problem of black educational needs has been with us since the 1600's and 1700's. What unique or different approaches, if any, do you feel are needed?

FOREIGNERS IN THEIR OWN LANDS: THE BANTUSTANS

Here, Donald Woods, former editor of an anti-apartheid newspaper and escapee from South Africa, discusses two bills before the South African government designed to make the Africans foreigners in their own land.

In addition, if these bills are passed, Africans who have been unemployed for four months in South Africa (they need not be consecutive months) will be deported or sent to labour and rehabilitation camps.

—Courtesy: Unesco Features

These bills are a further projection of the idea of ensuring that each black person in South Africa is regarded, not as a South African, but as a citizen of the so-called "homelands" or Bantustans. The South African government hopes one fine day to wake up and say, "Well, there are no blacks here, they are all citizens of foreign countries."

The whole object of the Bantustan policy is to circumvent the fact that there are some 3,000,000 whites who do not want to share common political rights with more than 20 million blacks.

Therefore the Nationalist government is trying to create the fiction that the blacks are actually members of eight or nine national groups with deep cultural differences. But this is a fiction. If you take, for example, the two biggest ethnic groups among the blacks, the Zulus and the Xhosas, their languages are very similar—much more communication, speaking skills, personality, cooperation and appearance... Technical competence is automatic with high standards.

What Dr. Mobley might well have said but did not was that with a brilliant and dedicated educator and with the immediate prospect for reasonable rewards, success in meeting high standards is automatic.

similar than the English and Afrikaans languages. And yet white English—and Afrikaans—speakers are regarded as one political unit.

Thirteen percent of the country's territory is divided up into eight or nine small territorial units, where the various "black ethnic groups" are supposed to exercise their civil rights. It is as if the American government were to say, "All the right-handed people in the country have to live in California, and they can only exercise their rights there. The rest, the minority of left-handers, will dominate the whole country."

The idea is to divide and rule. Citizenship is based on what the government regards as the ancestral, tribal place of origin. Even if a Xhosa has not seen the Transkei for three generations, the fact that he is Xhosa-speaking, according to the government, makes him domiciled or have his rights in the Xhosa homeland.

Q. My wife and I are pretty equal in most things. We both work, make the same salary, and are insured for the same amount with the same company. Yet her life insurance costs less! How come?

A. For a very good reason. Her life insurance costs less because women live longer than men, and would be expected to pay premiums for a longer period than men. Or, to state it more precisely, life insurance premiums are based on mortality rates, which are consistently lower for women than men at all ages. Your wife's premium reflects this difference, so her premium is lower than yours.

questions and answers

by Booth H. Robbins Field Representative Lubbock, Texas

QUESTION:

I recently applied for a loan from a finance company. The person who took my application asked for my social security number. I didn't want to give it to him, but he said the company uses social security numbers for filing purposes. Is this practice legal?

ANSWER:

Some non-governmental organizations use social security numbers for record-keeping purposes. Such use is neither required nor prohibited by Federal Law. Knowing your number, however, does not allow these organizations to get information from your social security records.

QUESTION:

I've been getting SSI checks for the past three years because I'm disabled and have no more income. Is there a limit on how long I can get these onthly checks?

ANSWER:

No there is no limit on how long you can get these benefits. As long as you are eligible for SSI, the monthly payments will continue. However, if your condition improves, you must notify the social security people as soon as possible so you don't have to repay any overpayments.

QUESTION:

Is money from the social security trust funds being used to finance the SSI program?

ANSWER:

Absolutely not! The SSI program is financed entirely from Federal general revenue funds. And even though social security administers the SSI program, all administrative costs are reimbursed to social security from the general funds of the U. S. Treasury.

QUESTION:

My mother and father are having a hard time trying to get along on their small income. I think they may be able to get SSI checks. However, although my father is 65, my mother is only 63. Do they have to wait til my mother reaches 65 before applying for SSI?

ANSWER:

If your father has little or no income or resources, he can apply for SSI help now because he's 65. However, your mother would not be eligible until she's 65, unless she's blind or disabled. Your father should get in touch with any social security office if he thinks he may be eligible for these monthly payments.

TCU Frogs Almost Out Leap Texas Tech Raiders

The lack luster offense of the Raiders had to settle for a 3-3 tie at the buzzer with the TCU Hornfrogs.

Jeff Copeland intercepted a Frog pass at the Tech 18 yard line to stop a good Frog drive. Tech quarterback Jim Hart hit

T. E. Cumming with a pass to take the Raiders to the Hornfrog 19 yard line. After a couple of attempts through the air to no avail, Coach Dockery then called on Blade Adams to bail the sluggish Raider's offense out. Adams put the Raiders ahead early in the first quarter with a 21 yard field goal. The Raiders led 3-0.

This was the highlight of the Raiders offensive day. However, there was one other bright spot when the Raiders got to the TCU one yard line, only to be stalled by a stubborn TCU defense. Then with less than 4 minutes left in the game, the Frogs came roaring back to tie the Raiders. With about 21 seconds on the clock, the Raiders watched their victory fade away when Greg Porter booted a 28 yard field goal to tie the Raiders 3-3.

Panthers Bulldogged By Borger, 34-0

The explosion took place quickly for the Borger Bulldogs when Doug Washburn took the opening kick off back for an 81 yard touchdown to give the Bulldogs a 6-0 lead. With only seconds gone from the clock, things began to happen quickly.

The Panthers got the ball and tried to go to the air. Quarterback James Nelson attempted to pass on the Panthers' first possession only to be intercepted at the DHS 29 yard line. Five plays later and 71 yards, it was 13-0. Plumly for the Bulldogs had added their second touchdown. Plumly also added the PAT. Borger third TD came when Shawn Harrington slipped over from the one-yard line, to make the score 20-0. Plumly added the PAT. The score became 21-0.

The Bulldogs bite for the last time in the seat of the Panthers pants when Mike Meeks scored from 10 yard out to make the score 33-0. Plumly again put the final touch on the Panthers with the PAT. It was 34-0.

The bright spot for the Panthers was the good running of Fabian Garcia who has been good all year.

Matadors - Too Cold!!! 34-6

The Estacado Matadors came one step closer to District show down with Canyon last week. The Matadors crushed the Lobos of Levelland there last Friday night. It was fourth down and six to go when Jerry Gray went back to pass to James Rose striking toward the endzone. Gary found Rose, and Rose found the endzone. It was for a 6-0 lead. Then it was Gray and Rose again with Rose making a one handed catch at the 10 yard line to set up their second TD. Alvin Davis took the ball the other ten yards for EHS. This made the score 12-0. On the point after, Gray and Rose entertained the Matador fans again with the two-point conversion. Gray again found Rose in the endzone, it was 14-0. The third Estacado score came when Gray started calling on the white knight (Kelvin White) who spearheaded a 55 yard drive for the Matadors. The white knight scored from 5 yards out.

With 59 seconds left to play in the game, Gray, looking like the gray ghost, sneaked 64 yards for the Matadors' final touchdown.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

The Basis For Christian Community

MEMORY SELECTION: Be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us. Ephesians 5:1 - 2.

EPHESIANS 4:15 - 16

15 Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ,
16 from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by every joint with which it is supplied, when each part is working properly, makes bodily growth and upbuilds itself in love.

25 - 32

25 Therefore, putting away falsehood, let every one speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another.
26 Be angry but do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger,
27 and give no opportunity to the devil.
28 Let the thief no longer steal, but rather let him labor, doing honest work with his hands, so that he may be able to give to those in need.
29 Let no evil talk come out of your mouths, but only such as is good for edifying, as fits the occasion, that it may impart grace to those who hear.
30 And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, in whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.
31 Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, with all malice,
32 and be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you.

EPHESIANS 5:1 - 2

1 Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children.
2 And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

Wolfe Selected As Pastor Of First Baptist Church Here

The membership of the First Baptist, fourth largest church in the Southern Baptist Convention, voted overwhelmingly to issue an invitation to Fred H. Wolfe, of Mobile, Alabama, to become pastor of the Lubbock congregation. Wolfe accepted "the call" immediately following the vote.

He has served as pastor of Cottage Hill, second largest Southern Baptist Church in Alabama, for the past 7 1/2 years. He and his wife, Anne, are natives of Rock Hill, South Carolina. They have two sons, Jeffrey, a high school senior, and Mark, a student of Mobile College.

The new pastor succeeds Dr. Jaroy Weber, who resigned for reasons of health, in September of 1978. Wolfe will assume duties as the church's 11th pastor on December 9.

STAIN REMOVERS II

Last week we spoke of two methods for removing stains — either with soap and water or with a cleaning fluid or powder. Here are step-by-step procedures to remove stains at home and thereby save on the cost of professional cleaning.

Time is of the essence. Stains have a tendency to set with age; given long enough they may be impossible to remove. Even the almost invisible stains from drinks set quickly and turn brown with age.

Try to scrape off the stain, using your fingernail or lightly, a knife edge. A dry stain may scrape off completely. If the stain is still wet, be careful not to rub it in deeper.

Place a white towel under the fabric, so the stain can run into it.

Now saturate the stained area. For a water-soluble stain, be sure you use cold water — hot water will set the stain. Then rub the area lightly with the tips of your fingers to loosen the stain; it will then rise through the fabric into the towel.

If water doesn't loosen the water-soluble stain, try a detergent, again using your fingertips. Be patient and work the stain out slowly. To prevent a ring from forming, wet a piece of cloth with water and flush out the stain well, wiping around the edges of the stain toward the center.

When should you leave the job of removing a stain to professionals? Avoid working on fabrics that are fragile or heavily sized. Leave satin, fur, suede and vinyl to the professionals.

Be sure to check the care labels. Don't use cleaning fluid if the label says Do Not Dry Clean. Don't use water on fabric labeled Dry Clean Only.

If you use a rust remover to eliminate rust stains, be careful — it can burn the skin. Use only on washable clothing and wash the clothes immediately.

Talk is cheaper than you think.

How to save up to 60% on Long Distance.

If you're one of those who thinks a Long Distance call is a luxury, read on.

The trick to saving money while keeping in touch with family or friends is knowing when to call, and calling One-Plus.

Call between 11pm and 8am.

Before you groan about how you can't stay up late or see straight in the morning, think about it.

You'll be saving up to 60%! If you're a night person, you probably don't start counting sheep until after 11 pm anyway. And if you've got friends and family to call out west, it'll be a perfectly civilized 9 or 10 pm when their phone rings. If you like to see the sun rise, and you know folks back east, it'll be an hour later on their end.

Call out of state anytime before 8 am and you can talk all day if you want and still save 60%. In-state calls are also greatly reduced. Just remember to dial One-Plus.

Reach out on the weekend and save up to 60%.

Now this is a stroke of good luck: a really cheap Long Distance phone call just when you may want it most. Call any time between 11 pm Friday and 5 pm Sunday and really save. For instance, dial One-Plus and you can make a ten-minute call to Atlanta for only $1.55. That's almost worth making a new friend in Atlanta for.

Even on weeknights, save up to 35%.

Sometimes you can't wait for the weekend. Or you don't want to. But you can still save plenty Sunday through Friday from 5 pm to 11 pm. Think about what a bargain it is to call someone 1900 miles away, talk it up for ten minutes, and only run a tab of about $2.00. There's just no other way to get close to a faraway friend or relative so quickly, so cheaply.

On weekdays it's still a bargain.

Here's a surprise. From 8 am to 5 pm, a Long Distance chat still doesn't cost very much. A five minute call out of state, to anywhere in the continental U.S. is only about $2.50 when you dial One-Plus. Think of how good the sound of your voice would be to a friend (not to mention your mother!) right in the middle of the day.

Reach out and touch someone.

SAVING IS THE NAME OF THE GAME!

All Regional Honor Choir Here

Angela Richardson, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Eddie P. Richardson, Jr., was named as a member of the All Regional Choir after competition on Saturday, November 3.

She is a ninth grade student at Wilson Junior High School and is active in the orchestra and athletic events.

She is also a representative of her room and vice president of the choir.

In the competition made it. "I really love Wilson Junior High School," smiles Angela. "She will tell you that it is a very nice school and she's glad to be a part of it. "At Wilson, they don't put me down because I'm Black. They treat me like a person. I'm just like anyone else. It seems that it doesn't matter what color you are," she says.

Her hobbies are singing, listening to music and practicing her instruments.

which included students from Levelland, Plainview, Lakeview and other schools, there were twenty-five students from each section, including students who sang bass, tenor, alto and soprano.

In her choir, there are from fifty to sixty young students where only six will be chose for the solo group - "The Sextet".

MRS. RENA TOLER

Oh Mother, how we loved you,
You were so very dear.
You left us all with aching hearts,
And eyes all filled with tears.
You were a sainted mother
No one can fill your place.
You taught us how to love the Lord
And trust His saving grace.

Final rites were read for Mrs. Rena Toler last week at the St. John Baptist Church with Rev. James Moore, pastor, officiating. He was assisted by Rev. Jonie Bailey, Rev. Verbal Evans, and Rev. J. Coleman.

Interment was held in the City of Lubbock Cemetery under the direction of Jamison and Son Funeral Home.

Mrs. Toler was born in Cooper, Texas, Delta County, to Mr. and Mrs. Hillery McMorris. She was married to Mr. Sam Toler and to this union five children were born: Mrs. Verna Mae Avery, Mrs. Clara Mae Tucker, Mr. Sammie Toler, Jr., Mr. Roy Gene Toler, and Ms. Rena Toler.

Mrs. Toler passed away November 3, 1979. She leaves to mourn three daughters and two sons, eighteen grandchildren, ten great grandchildren, a host of nieces and nephews and other relatives and friends. She also leaves to mourn two loving brothers and sister-in-laws.

Mrs. Toler united with the church at an early age. After moving to Lubbock, she united with the St. John Baptist Church, under the pastorage of Rev. Burns.

At her passing, she was a member of the Yellowhouse Canyon House of Prayer, Rev. Jonie Bailey, pastor. She was a faithful member until her health failed. Mrs. Toler was affectionately known to many as "Mama Rena."

Active pallbearers were Mr. Joe Tucker, Mr. Richard Jacobs, Mr. Raymond Dever, Mr. Willie Fieldel, Mr. M. Tucker, and Mr. Earl Booker.

Honorary pallbearers were Mr. Frederick Washington, Mr. Robert Avery, Mr. Albert Mitchell, and Mr. A. G. Selby.

Washington, D.C. — The U.S. Supreme Court's Weber decision upholding some aspects of affirmative action has been seen by some legal experts here as being only a limited respite for affirmative action programs. The thrust of the court's decision centered on deliberate discrimination, which some hold is not the major affirmative action need and often is unprovable.

Others have noted that any respite for affirmative action at all constitutes a resounding victory, what with the mood of the national public and of the courts being as opposed to the enhancement of civil rights as it has been.

Ain't Misbeavin' Is Here

Ain't Misbeavin', the revue based on the music of the legendary Fats Waller, will be presented by Civic Lubbock, Inc., Tuesday, November 20, 8 p. m., at Lubbock Municipal Auditorium, according to Dottie Townsend, executive director of the city's Civic Centers.

Ain't Misbeavin', winner of the 1978 Tony Award as Broadway's Best Musical, is centered around the life, times and music of the famous Black pianist who was known as the "Prince of Jazz." Along with the title song, 25 of Fats Waller's most popular hits will be featured by a five member, show-stopping cast, directed by Richard Maltby, Jr. and flowing choreography by Arthur Faria. Both were part of the creative staff that originated the hit Broadway production.

Ain't Misbeavin' has been on tour for several months and has been setting box office records and receiving rave reviews from Boston to Miami.

Tickets are on sale at Lubbock Municipal Auditorium box office and are $6.50 and $7.50.

WORDS OF LIFE

Biblical Inspiration For The Week

"How lovely is thy dwelling place." — Psalm 84: 1

1. God is everywhere. Hence every place has beauty! Conversely, ugliness is largely, if not wholly, seeming. It has been aptly said: "Beauty is in the eyes of the beholder." What is it that you see? Your eyes are a mirror of your state of mind or frame of reference:

2. We should seek for loveliness. To find a trace of loveliness is to find a trace of God. To this extent that we see beauty in all of life, to that same extent our lives may be said to be open to the presence and the perception of God.

3. Heaven is our home. A home is more than a destination at the end of a journey. A home is one's point of beginning, one's "abiding place." How "at home" are you at all times?

God wills that our lives be marked, at all times, by loveliness and joy in the presence of God and of His own. "How lovely is thy dwelling place... in all the universe... O God!"

The KITCHEN BEAT

In today's black American home, cooking is no longer the responsibility of one person. Because of busy and varied schedules, usually every member of the family at some time or another has to prepare personal meals or meals for other members of the family. The Kitchen Beat is designed to meet some needs of the various cooks in the modern black family.

CHOCOLATE-SOUR CREAM RAISIN CAKE

This is a delicious ending to summer picnics and cook-outs. It is an easy dessert that tastes as though hours of loving work went into it.

Chocolate-Sour Cream Raisin Cake

Recipe courtesy

Betty Crocker® Brands suggested by The Kitchen Beat

- 1 package (18.5 ounces) SuperMoist™ devils food cake mix
- 1/4 cup packed Domino brown sugar
- 1/4 cup Domino granulated sugar
- 3 tablespoons Argo cornstarch
- 1 1/2 cups dairy sour cream
- 2 eggs, beaten
- 1 cup raisins
- 1/2 cup chopped nuts
- 1 teaspoon McCormick vanilla
- Chocolate Glaze (below)

Heat oven to 350°. Bake cake mix in oblong pan, 13x9x2 inches, as directed on package; cool. Mix sugars and cornstarch in 2-quart saucepan; stir in sour cream and eggs. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens and boils. Boil and stir one minute. Remove from heat; stir in raisins, nuts and vanilla. Cool; spread sour cream mixture over cake. Spread Chocolate Glaze evenly over sour cream mixture. Refrigerate remaining cake.

Chocolate Glaze

- 1/4 cup margarine or butter
- 2 ounces unsweetened chocolate
- 2 cups powdered sugar
- 1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla
- 2 to 4 tablespoons hot water

Heat margarine and chocolate in saucepan over low heat until melted. Remove from heat; stir in sugar and vanilla. Stir in water, 1 tablespoon at a time, until glaze is of proper consistency.

Prayer Poem

The Wesley brothers, Charles and John, are forever giving us great prayer poems. In the hymn, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," Charles Wesley has us speak—as we must most often do—to Jesus in the direct second person, and not indirectly about Jesus. The hymn reminds us of those life conditions which are transcended and transformed only in and through Jesus.

Jesus, Lover of my soul,
Let me to thy bosom fly,
While the nearer waters roll,
While the tempest still is high:
Hide me, O my Saviour,
Hide,
Till the storm of life be past:
Safe into the haven guide,
O receive my soul at last.

Plenteous grace with thee is found,

Grace to cleanse from every sin;
Let the healing streams abound,
Make and help me pure within.
Thou of life the fountain art,
Freely let me take of thee:
Spring thou up within my heart,
Rise to all eternity.

How we need Jesus! We have only to open our lives to Him for every grace we need.
