"BLACK STARS IN ENTERTAINMENT"

HOW MANY OF THESE FAMOUS "BLACK" MOVIE STARS can you identify? We'd like to hear from you about those you can identify. If your memory will serve you right, most of them appear regular on television. One of the "Black Sisters" appears on national television each week. Can you identify her?
These brothers and sisters are on their way to an event which happened not long ago. Isn't it great to see our brothers and sisters making things happen.
We agree there are many "Blacks in the News" who are in the entertainment field.

LUBBOCK DIGEST TO OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

With a lot of hard work and successful struggling, the Lubbock Digest will celebrate its first anniversary with a special Anniversary Edition next week. "Some people said we'd survive only two or three issues, but we're still here," said Eddie P. Richardson, Lubbock Digest managing editor. The Lubbock Digest started a little over a year ago coming out on a "pay as we go" basis, Richardson said.

PROGRESS MADE AT YELLOW HOUSE CANYON

Plans are all-go for annexation of the Yellow House Canyon, pending positive notification, possibly next Thursday, by the Justice Department. Last week, the Lubbock City Council unanimously approved annexation of the Yellow House Canyon. Residents representing 77 families, went to the council in September complaining of the 15 days they went without water. They were referred to the Planning and Zoning Commission. After approval from that group, the residents, headed by R.L. Gibson, went back to the council. "We're just waiting now for that approval from the Justice Department," Gibson said. "And I think it will be very favorable." "Annexation will give us a chance and the opportunity to better ourselves," Gibson said. "Each year that went without annexation would mean more cost to the city." The Yellow House Canyon area is less than a block from the city limits. "There were no abstentions whatever at the council meeting," Gibson said. "We were approved on the grounds that the annexation would give us better living standards." Sanitary sewers will probably be the first project the city undertakes in building up the area, Gibson said. Fire and police protection will be automatic. Junk cars in the area will also be towed. Residents have organized a Yellow House Residential Committee to help in promoting annexation and to take care of any social and internal problems the residents may have. "Anywhere there are humans, there are problems sometimes, but we don't anticipate any problems," Gibson said.

LOCAL MINISTER CALLS FOR MEETING

Editor's note: This was an open letter submitted by Rev. Allen L. Davis, pastor of the Greater St. Luke Baptist Church. The thing that is on the horizon at this time that is of great interest to all of the citizens of the Wheelock Addition, to the City of Lubbock, and to the members and workers of the Greater St. Luke Baptist Church whose interest and concern is deeply rooted in this particular community. For this cause we are concerned about the progress and onward going of this community, long since we have planned, and

LOCAL CHRISTIANS APPEAL BAN ON JEHOVAH'S WITNESS IN ARGENTINA

Many of Jehovah's Witnesses in the Lubbock area will be writing letters of appeal to government officials in Argentina, where their Christian society is currently under ban. Herman Boone, an elder of the Parkway Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, explained that a concerted effort in sending letters of appeal was being instituted now. This is because all efforts of legal recourse to return freedom of worship to Jehovah's Witnesses in Argentina have failed. "In September of 1976," Boone explained, "the Argentine government announced that Jehovah's Witnesses were banned from practicing their religion. Time-consuming legal proceedings followed as Jehovah's Witnesses appealed the ban through the Argentine court system. Finally, though, in February 1978, news sources in Argentina declared: 'Supreme Court Upholds Executive Decree Banning Jehovah's Witnesses.' The ban has continued in effect ever since." Boone said that a report from the New York Headquarters of Jehovah's Witnesses indicated that the ban has resulted in persecution of Jehovah's Witnesses in Argentina. Their meeting places for Bible study have been closed down, children have been expelled from schools, adult Witnesses suffered that we should come together at a designated date, time, and place to meet and discuss these most urgent matters with Plains coop Oil Mill Management.

The Lubbock Digest learned this week that steps are being taken in the eastern part of Lubbock, predominately Black community, that plans are being made to call a wet election. According to a source, who refused to let his name be used, said: "It's time for us to start thinking in this direction if we are going to get some things happening in our community." After checking with Lubbock County Clerk Frank Guess, it was learned that the whole city of Lubbock would be involved in such an effort.

Precinct 6 and Precinct 1 would be involved in such an effort to call such an election. Precinct 1 and 6 split at 19th Street. Geographically, Precinct 1 has the boundaries: 19th St. on the north; Quaker Ave. on the west; city limits on the south; and city limits on the east. On the other hand, boundaries for Precinct 6 would include: Ave. H partially, then University Ave. on the west; city limits on the east; 19th St. on the south; and city limits on the north. "It would appear in order to call a wet election for the eastern part of the city of Lubbock, there would have to be the creation of a new Justice of Peace Court or the redistricting of the present ones," continued Guess. This would have to be initiated by the County Commissioners Court, according to Guess. In order to call a wet election in Lubbock County, one would have to come to the County Clerk's Office and pick up an appeal with ten persons signing. Next, thirty-five percent of the qualified voters in the city would have to sign such petitions. After this is done, they are brought back to the County Clerk's office where they must be certified. After being certified, the County Commissioners Court must call an election. At one time, the Lubbock Digest learned, it only required 25 percent of the qualified voters to sign a petition to call a wet election, but it has increased to 35 percent. "It must be that they don't want anymore wet areas in Texas," said a person interested in calling such an election for the eastern part of the city.

"You know, we may just request our County Commissioners to either create another JP court or redistrict the present ones. Lubbock is growing and we're still operating it the way we did years ago. It's time for a change," he continued. Sources close to this effort, which is expected to get under way, told the Digest that they are interested in package stores and the selling of beer in local grocery stores. "You know, there is bootlegging in the eastern part of Lubbock, so why not start something legal in the eastern part of Lubbock." Continue on Page 6

THE ELEMENTS How They Relate To The Signs Of The Zodiac

AIR SIGNS

Continuing the air signs, we discuss Libra this week. Libra like Gemini is a mental sign; it is Cardinal in temperament and represents the beginning of fall. One may be inclined to think that Libra is like Gemini because two ideas, lines of argument, or work come to him at the same time. The difference between these signs is that Libra wants both, and tries to see the good in both. The symbol of Libra appears as the setting Sun which has sunk half way below the horizon, half seen and half not seen and is depicted as the common scales symbolizing 'balance.' This sign is representative of law and justice, partnerships and marriage. The Sun appears to enter Libra around September 23rd and transit this sign until October 22nd. It is a sign known for its charm and friendliness. It is not an emotional sign. In fact, the Libran's sense of balance prevents him from being too emotional or "too" anything; and yet, they are affectionate, sympathetic, kind, generous and compassionate. Libra's placement in the Zodiac's seventh house (sector), which represents marriage and partnerships as well as fair play—and being under the rulership of Venus, the so-called love planet—makes it a life-long romantic sign. As mentioned earlier, Libra is a Cardinal (initiating) air sign, which gives it a definite leadership and force; this Libra exists to vibrate its airy idealism to others needing precisely this.

ARIES — March 21-April 20 This is the beginning of a period when you can literally transform the condition of your life. If you don't mind the restrictions and some martyrdom which go along with it. The influence of someone to whom you are drawn may overwhelmingly change your life during this period. Some routines may be completely upset, sometimes leading to anxieties, worries, and irritability, but the overall picture is good when you stick to realistic efforts within your scope. The Sun entering your sector of close relationships highlights this area now and romantic relationships can be strengthened.

TAURUS — April 21-May 21 A trine of powerful planets in your sector of partnerships during this period indicates that some Taurus may encounter a love-of-a-lifetime romance during this cycle. Some of these relationships could propel them into marriage. Friends become sources of benefit as well and may be able to assist or support you in emotional and financial matters. Your overall financial picture gets a go-ahead. Indications are that you can take a big step forward in furthering career and work activity.

GEMINI — May 22-June 21 You will notice an upsurge in activity in your home life during this period. Also you can say hello to that angel of love and inspiration hovering over your shoulder. Your thoughts, ideas, and words heal any recent upsets; they also project an impressive confidence which gains favorable notice and opens doors for you wherever you go. You're resourceful to a remarkable degree during this period and find solutions to emotional and financial problems.

CANCER — June 22-July 23 Social get-togethers with business associates, friends and acquaintances lead to trust and cooperation... and your particular talents are given a chance to shine through your work as a result of improved relations with superiors. This is a good period for Cancerians planning to get special training of any kind in order to make more money. Those who start any educational program now will be successful as your mind will be rigidly made up. Romantic interests are stimulating.

LEO — July 24-August 23 This is the beginning of a period that brings the chance of a lifetime for those who have patiently been preparing for it. One way or the other, Leos are going to be handed the ball and expected to carry it. Any drastic revisions in your routine can be handled effectively. For most of you, your action becomes a testimony to your farsightedness, determination and an awareness worthy of material reward. Any fears or doubts you're having, whether in love or financial matters, more than likely have no basis at all.

VIRGO — August 24-September 23 Your present state of affairs is the consequence of past choices and acts that are essentially over or ending. You are faced with the challenges ahead as you reach a peak of achievement in your old life and are placed in a position to be rewarded for the best of your past. What you want has changed in the past few years. By knowing now what you want and appreciating your limits, you're able to seize opportunities which will have major impact on your life.

LIBR — September 24-October 23 By now you should feel more secure than ever in your own worth and self-esteem. False pride has gone the hard way. Friendships have been whittled down by circumstances to a select few. What appeared as financial or emotional setbacks in the recent past should now be looked upon as a lifelong asset as you've come to grips with challenges. The bright side now outweighs the dark side in all areas of your life, and not because of luck. SCORPIO — October 24-November 22 You should begin to see

Police Happenings

KIDNAPPING & ROBBERY

JANIE AGUILAR WHITE, a resident of Cone, Texas, reported a problem that she had at the corner of 16th Street and Avenue D, about 5 a.m. Sunday morning. She reported to Lubbock police that she was walking when two strangers drove up beside her and offered a ride home. She quickly said no to the men. After explaining that they would not do anything to hurt her, she shot into the car and they drove off. They told her that they needed some gasoline for the car and headed east.

After driving east of the city, they told her they wanted her money. She refused to do so and they began to threaten her by saying: "If you don't give us your money, we are going to beat the --- out of you. This frightened the young 25 year old lady, and she gave them her purse which contained some money.

After all the hassle, the men only got $31 worth of money and other items. She was quite unhappy about the men keeping her purse which was valued at twenty dollars.

This column would suggest to this young lady and others to stay off the streets of Lubbock at 5 a.m. on Sunday mornings or any morning, for that matter.

Really, she is lucky that nothing else didn't happen to her.

AGGRAVATED ASSAULT

VIRGIL DEE THOMPSON, JR., 1515 Avenue C, reported to Lubbock police that he received a stab wound in his left shoulder about 5:15 a.m. Sunday morning while out on the town.

Police learned from the man that he was in front of Robert Locker's Cafe, 600 13th Street, when a man began to argue with him over an old debt.

According to a witness, who agreed with what Thompson told police, reported that Thompson walked away and turned his back and said: "You're my friend and I don't want to argue with you."

At this time, the man rushed up behind him and stabbed him in the left shoulder.

He was taken to Methodist Hospital where he was treated and released.

Thompson told police that he would definitely file on his so called friend this week.

HOUSE BURGLARY

TODD A. ALLEN, 2405 A Colgate Avenue, reported to Lubbock police that someone unknown gained entry to his house while he was away one night last week. Entry, according to the police report, was apparently gained through the back door.

Taken from the house was $40 which was on his table in the bedroom. This money included two twenties.

If you ask Brother Allen, he'd probably tell you that he will not leave any money at his house anymore where someone can easily take it. You know, this makes a lot of cotten picking sense.

BURGLARY OF HABITATION

AN EAST LUBBOCK GRAND-

MOTHER reported to Lubbock police that she had a problem one day last week.

According to the police report, her grand daughter was visiting her and had been left at the grandmother's home while she went to work. The young lady had been having trouble with a man she has been living with.

While gone to work, according to the police report, the man apparently gained entry to the house to get the woman by breaking the back door down. Once inside, the man apparently beat the woman up and took her with him.

According to the grandmother, the man didn't taken anything, but did take her grand daughter. She was quite upset about the incident. There was blood on the floor of the house. Approximately $25 worth of damage was

CRIMINAL MISCHIEF

MARY JANIE ORREGO, a twenty seven year old young lady, reported to Lubbock police that she was having a good time at a club at 1819 East Broadway Avenue last Saturday night when she had a problem. She said a man came into the club and said that someone was shooting at her car. When she got up from the table and went outside, she saw that several young men were shooting the windows out of her car.

According to the police report, the young Mexican Americans just drove up in a pickup truck and began shooting. Approximately $500 worth of damage was done to her car.

TRACY DEAN JENKINS, 3602 Yucca Avenue, had a bad problem one night last week. He told police that he was going to pay a bill

YOU BE THE JUDGE

With all the shortcomings of Black people in Lubbock, you be the judge on some of the things you see going on. There's just not enough images for our young Black kids to see. We've become so complacent until we evidently don't give a darn about what is going on around us.

From any area in which we look, we are not there like we should be. Of course, there are a few "flies in buttermilk" at city hall; very few, less than a dozen, employed with the County of Lubbock. In either political sub-division (city and county), we don't have anyone serving in a political capacity. Even in the Lubbock Public Schools, where we see a need for an assistant Black superintendent, we don't have political representation. At one time, however, there was a Black on the school board and the only ever in the history of Lubbock. With the situation like it is, one would have thought we'd at least have one.

In the business community of Black owned businesses, we're not like we should be in this day and time. Again, we are apparently concerned about working from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., with Saturdays and Sundays off. True, everyone is not capable of going into business. At the same time, we need to find a way in the business community to let our young Blacks see that Blacks should find their way in the area of commerce.

Just the other day, this newspaper's staff took a drive through the Black community. It's a darn shame the way it is! One wouldn't believe, with all the opportunities in life, Black people in Lubbock would adhere to this kind of a situation, but evidently we do and say nothing about it.

One ugly sight, being specific, has to be the "Sunny Side Apartments" (once the Coronado Apartments). A rose is still a rose no matter what we may call it. This place is ridiculous. We as citizens of this Black community won't even say a mumbled word about this condition. If the Green Fair Manor Apartments are in the process of being re-developed, surely something could be done about this eyesore in east Lubbock.

You be the judge on what you see in the eastern part of the city of Lubbock. Surely, you'll agree that we're far behind when it comes to taking care of business in our community. We are apparently boxed into an intangible prison and don't want to get out. Many of us are probably saying that it is none of your business to get involved with our present conditions. For you, we say that it is your business and you should become involved with these kinds of things around you.

We (Blacks) don't vote in elections like we should. Our kids are watching us and we're setting a poor example of what we should be doing. Are we really afraid to get up off our sit downs and vote? Surely, we can go to the polls and let the politicians know how we feel about certain issues and vote for those persons whom we feel will best represent us in any given situation.

There are many other areas in which we could be the judge on where we are. You could do likewise, also. We must admit that it's easy to sit down behind some typewriter and put into writing the way you see things. It's time, however, for this newspaper to start letting you know vividly where really are in Lubbock. We've got a long ways to go. We don't have time to continue to play games on each other. We need to get our act together NOW!!!

We would hope, at least, some of us would start thinking about our present situation in Lubbock. We need to let people in the right places know that we are unhappy about the way things are here and want something done about them. We believe, further, we can start by doing something for ourselves NOW!!! Sure, the cost will be great, but we have got to get on with the business at hand and stop "shucking and jiving" ourselves. You be the judge of east Lubbock and the Black community.

WHY ARGUE? THE FACTS ARE HERE!

BLACK EMPOWERMENT

By Dr. Nathaniel Wright, Jr.
Human Rights Activist

LIBERALISM AND BLACK INEQUITY

Our latent and occasionally verbalized contempt for black people is but an unconscious manifestation of our contempt for life as we experience it in general. Society tends to seek order, while individual life seeks fulfillment. When the two purposes do not agree, difficulties inevitably follow. So it has been in America. New groups of people have poured in, making constant adjustment a basic condition with which we have had to deal. Had our vision of a "melting-pot" been different from that of a type of "pure-production," and more in the direction of "the creation of a tasty and variegated stew, we would not be faced today with the inevitable frustration that comes from any attempt to make all life alike.

The white people who have come to America are not all alike. Many have kept some semblance of their basic ethnic character and integrity and have continued to greatly enrich our common life. But the uncritically examined predisposition toward conformity is a sad sign; for life at its best involves the continuing unfolding of new possibilities, further enhanced by the interchange that can only come from the persistence of healthy diversity.

In America we have sought to make black people carbon copies of white people. Such a task has been impossible. We could not—or cannot—wish away the difference-producing effects of centuries of enslavement. Nor can we simply wish away the low status and lack of social power that the maintenance of an enslaved person's mentality of dependence upon others has produced for America's black people as a whole. Until several generations ago, black people may have had to bow to circumstances beyond their seeming control and so depend excessively upon the charity of others. Such has not been the case, however, in recent years. A culturally and historically conditioned perception of helplessness marks off black people in America as different from the rest. This represents a tragic fact of life we cannot afford to gloss over.

Yet we have sought to deal with differences by overlooking them. This is in part a legacy from an unfortunate aspect of liberalism that was evident in the days of Queen Victoria. Victorian liberalism had within its character the regrettable tendency toward seeking to make things good by wishing they were so. The Victorian of goodwill saw the good in people and in situations, at the expense of seeing life situations entire. The deeply religious and compassionate Queen herself could weep for the thousands of her Irish subjects dying from a potato famine and then respond with an infinitesimally small contribution from her personal purse.

Post-Victorian liberalism with respect to black Americans has tended likewise to confuse hopes with their achievement. Black people have been nurtured for their goal of freedom under the post-Victorian liberal mind. Those possessed of this mindset have had the best intentions. They have planned for and have protected black people, when black people seemed to be in no condition to plan for or to protect themselves. Until our present day those of the same white liberal tradition have sought to do all that was or is in their particular power to bring black people into the center of national life...with the white liberals maintaining the controls.

The white liberal mind-set tends, unfortunately—out of an abundance of falsely-focused good will—to ignore the gross inequities which are central to the problems which we face. The white liberal method of approach has included the viewing of racial realities through tinted glasses. In this process, the effective indolence or object hopelessness of black people, occasioned in large part by the centuries' long experience of giving one's best efforts for unjustly meager rewards, was ignored. If much of the inherited hopelessness and pre-conditioned indolence of blacks in many sectors are not being recognized, neither can their causes be faced and dealt with. This is also true of the high degree of socially inflicted black self-hate and irresponsibility born of cynicism and despair. The glossing over of historically rooted differences between white and black Americans, in this way, has been one of the basic causes of our failure to make black people into anything other than "problem people."

Prayer Poem LIGHT IN DARKNESS

Our parents and grand-parents doubtless sang during our youth a magnificently compelling hymn entitled, "Let The Lower Lights Be Burning." The hymn is an impressively beautiful reminder that we all have a part to play in letting God's light shine redemptively in His world.

The words read in part as follows:

Brightly beams our Father's mercy,
From His lighthouse evermore;
But to us He gives the keeping
Of the lights along the shore...

Trim your feeble lamp, my brother!
Some poor seaman, tempest-tossed,
Trying now to make the harbor,
In the darkness may be lost.

Let the lower lights be burning!
Send a gleam across the wave!
Some poor fainting, struggling seaman,
You may rescue, you may save.

(May God bless P.P. Bliss, the beloved hymn writer who gave us these grace-filled words.)

RESULTS OF BLACK BUSINESS SURVEY GOOD NEWS, BAD NEWS

(Compiled by our Eddie P. Richardson, managing editor. In this effort, he researched the economic thing in the Black community).

The GOOD NEWS is that BLACK BUSINESS RECEIPTS are UP over previous years, this DESPITE INFLATION. but the BAD NEWS IS that too MANY in BLACK AMERICA are NO BETTER OFF TODAY than they WERE TEN YEARS AGO.

What is most disturbing is that while the Black share of the national economy has increased slightly, the gap between BLACK MEDIAN INCOME and that of WHITES HAS GROWN STEADILY. Equally important, the number of BLACK FAMILIES of LOWER MIDDLE CLASS status ACTUALLY DECREASED from 23 PERCENT in 1969 to 20 PERCENT in 1976. The modest increase in Black business receipts points up a continuing dilemma—the illusion of progress. For many there has been progress. For those of us who occupy positions of leadership, influence or professional status, the journey is light years away from the time when our parents dared to dream of OWNING THEIR OWN BUSINESS, RUN FOR POLITICAL OFFICES or simply PURSUE CAREERS of their choice.

The problem is that too much of BLACK AMERICA is still LOCKED IN POVERTY, STRUGGLING FOR SURVIVAL on the bottom rung of the COUNTRY'S ECONOMY. But the popular perception of Black progress is rooted in the modest success stories which barely represent 10% of the 25 million Blacks in this country. Indeed these successes are cited as reasons for cutting back or cutting out those efforts designed to reserve the cycle of poverty and deprivation in minority communities. We need only to note opposition to affirmative action in employment, in education (WITNESS THE BAKKE CASE), and the crusade of lawsuits being proffered against minority set aside programs to understand the massive campaign being waged against minority interests. Our communities are being crippled by staggering unemployment, serve reductions in municipal services and increasing hostility diverted toward the Black entrepreneurial effort. Hostility toward Black attempts to move from the periphery of our economy to its mainstream is not confined to the public sector. Private industry has also dragged its feet. The automobile industry, for instance, is a prime example of the way in which dollars spent by Blacks become a one-way street. Of the 26,235 dealerships among the top four auto manufacturers, only 72 are Black. Blacks represent a disproportionately large segment of the auto buying public. The perceived progress of Black America is in many illusory. Resistance to Black business efforts is growing. The flatness of the economy has brought with it some new realities, including a marked narrowness that those who once were EXCLUDED from the ECONOMY don't DESERVE any particular CONSIDERATION in RIGHTING HISTORY'S WRONGS. This has shown CRYSTAL CLEAR that it is SIMPLY TOUGHER to do BUSINESS if you are BLACK!! The attitudes directed toward Black business have LITTLE TO DO WITH THE ECONOMY and its slow growth rate. These attitudes are rooted in the perceived "progress" that Blacks have made in seizing new opportunities and capitalizing on them. Blacks have made some progress, but it has hardly been enough to affect that parlor of Black America which continues to live at or below the poverty line. What has become clearer is that the serious beginning that Black businessmen and women have made to enter the mainstream of our country's economy is now being confronted with a new and more ingenious kind of sophistry. Many Whites believe, or at least say, that because of the Civil Rights thrust, race is no longer a problem. These WHITES, and some BLACKS, are now WILLING to WRITE OF THE BLACK POOR as a permanent "underclass".

It is IMPORTANT for us all to understand that we do REPRESENT CONSIDERABLE CONSUMER CLOUT—$80 billion. Commerce should be a two way street in which dollars spent by our community should be returned and recycled within the community. UNFORTUNATELY, the temper of the times suggests that it is a ONE-WAY STREET, one which shows an OUTWARD FLOW of DOLLARS that NEVER RETURN. We ought as the first order of business, RESOLVE to REVERSE that TREND. And this is something over which we HAVE SOME CONTROL.

Making good use of our CLOUT, our DOLLARS, is not FORBIDDINGLY DIFFICULT. We must FORCE ourselves to be RECKONED WITH. We MUST NOT SPEND our DOLLARS where we get NO RETURNS. We must exercise our options. And in so doing we BECOME more EFFECTIVE in the MARKET PLACE. We should only SPEND our DOLLARS as an INVESTMENT with people who HATE BLACKS, who SPEND MONEY with BLACKS we must receive a return on all our dollars, through EMPLOYMENT, SELLING our GOODS and SERVICES and in general we MUST RECEIVE returns from ALL our DOLLARS.

POST DISTRICT MEETING 2nd SETTING

The Post District held its bi-annual Holy Convocation under the dynamic and illustrious leadership of Supt. E.L. Hastings at Saints Center Church of God in Christ, Elder T.L. Washington, Host Pastor. Mrs. Virginia Anderson presided over the women's department during the services. Our main theme was "Expecting to Receive Something" from the book of Acts 3:5

The services were attended nightly beginning Sept. 11 through Sept. 16 with a host of choirs, saints, and friends from Lubbock, Amarillo, Houston, and Clovis, New Mexico to name a few.

Monday night Sept. 11 was pre-opening night with a beautiful musical conducted by Mrs. Thelma Moore, mistress of ceremonies. The choirs sang to the honor and glory of God. Bishop E.L. Givens brought a dynamic message from the books of Micah 6:3 and Isaiah 41:21. "My people what have I done unto thee?" We enjoyed the Lord.

Tuesday night, official opening night, Bishop J.E. Alexander brought a very propitious sermon.

"When He Had Spent All" Luke 15:14. He spoke of the prodigal son. Many of us are in the "hog pen of sin" today and need to come to ourselves and get out of it. The Ford's memorial choir under the direction of professor William Shumate sang "Jesus Is Getting Us Ready" and Miss Mozelle Wilson came with the heart warming solo "His Eye Is on the Sparrow."

Wednesday night, Sunday school supt. elder K.C. King, Jr. broke unto us the bread of life "Get Ready" from the books of Rev. 2:1-4, Rev. 5:2-5, and Job 16:2-11. He warned us to get ready because Jesus is soon to come. Thursday night YPWW president elder Billy R. Smith presented to us "Let's Get Together, Brothers" Heb. 13:1-2. If we can't about midnight last Friday evening when it all started. As this young man was on his way, two men stopped him and demanded all of his money. He refused to do so, and that is when it really began.

Jenkins told police that one of the men fired two shots at his head and told him to give him the money. He still refused to give them his money.

The pair continued to fire the pistol at him until he decided to give him the $91 he had on him. Jenkins said he would file charges against the men responsible for taking advantage of him.

Can you imagine someone out at midnight on Friday night paying a bill.

The strain on your nerves over impending changes, financial problems and a heavy workload could lead to ill health through worry and poor nutritional habits. The way is becoming clear for you to make successful moves. Your best course is to follow a sensible health program and keep optimistic. Remember optimism is an inherited characteristic of your sign. Through optimism you're able to gain creative insight and overcome challenges which occur, and make fortunate changes and decisions.

CAPRICORN — December 22-January 20

This is a period when serious discussion with mate, business partner and associates is of paramount importance to your progress where recent business matters are concerned. Others are inclined to be critical and you must show your broad side by not jumping to conclusions. Don't get too friendly with social contacts now and keep in harmony with family members. The advice of trusted associates should be followed. Stellar trends indicate that you stand to gain financially during this period.

AQUARIUS — January 21-

February 19

Although you may look back on this period as one of progress, as it certainly may be to a great degree, it is also a period when much misunderstanding may occur in all joint matters. You may have doubts concerning another's loyalty, temporarily. You may also have the necessity of incurring financial debts now, which may not be to your liking, but may be expedient at the moment. Waste no time about these matters; go to the right source when assistance is needed. You are in for preferential treatment where career activity is concerned during this period.

PISCES — February 20-March 20

You may dissolve ties with personal and business associates that don't satisfy mutual needs during this period. This is most likely to be a frustrating and confusing period; many of your sign have developed an entirely different slant on the value you put on love and romance than you used to have. Many will incur obligations of both a romantic nature (possibly to escape boredom) and financial obligations (because of necessity). All turns out successfully as long as you're willing to cooperate.

LYONS CHAPEL BAPTIST

On Sunday, September 17, Lyons Chapel Baptist Church was special guest of the Community Baptist Church of Wichita, Kansas, Rev. William Matthew Jones, pastor.

Community Baptist celebrated their "Homecoming and Annual Choir Day", Saturday, September 16, the musical was dedicated to Lyons Chapel. We feel confident that everyone who attended the effort, truly enjoyed it. Our choir truly enjoyed fellowshiping with Community Baptist for the last three years. We are looking forward to returning next year. If it is God's will.

POST DISTRICT MEETING Continue from Page 5... get together here on this earth, then we can certainly get together in hell.

The box of groceries received by Miss Dina Smith of Sudan, Texa by the Women's Department. The Post District Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Thelma Moore sang under the anointing of the Holy Ghost. Among the many beautiful songs that were sung were "It's A Jesus Affair", "Come On Let's Sing", "Remember Me In Paradise", and "Lift the Savior Up". A special thank you to elder James Scott and wife of Tahoda, elder Roy Lacy and wife of Lorenzo, elder Johnny Evans and wife of Morton, elder K.C. King, Sr. elder R.D. Wesson and wife of Clovis, New Mexico.

A special thank you also to brother Jim Clay who accompanied the services with his expertise drum playing and elder Jimmy Brown's solo "By the Grace".

Our assistant pastor of Power House C.O. Gic, elder Jimmy Hastings worked untiringly each night with the music department. Most of all we thank elder T.L. Washington and Saints Center Church of God in Christ for the accommodations of his beautiful edifice.

Friday night our district missionary, Mrs. Virginia Anderson, with great finesse gave us "Move Your Stuff" Ez. 12:1-7, II Chron. 7:14-16, II Tim. 3:1-7.

There is too much stuff in the hearts of the people today and an accumulation of stuff makes for an avalanche of debris. God wants us to prepare it for moving as He instructed Ezekiel to do.

Saturday night supt. E.L. Hastings climaxed the services with "Expecting to Receive Something" Acts 3:5. This great man of God who is doctrinized, recognized, spiritualized, emotionalized and baptized sent the church up in the glory of God with this great message. Everyday we expect to receive something.

EXPRESSIONS OF THE DISCIPLINED LIFE

- 1 Thessalonians 1:2-10
- 2 We give to God always for you all, constantly mentioning you in our prayers,
- 3 remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.
- 4 For we know, brethren beloved by God, that he has chosen you;
- 5 for our gospel came to you not only in word, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and in full conviction. You know what kind of men we proved to be among you for your sake.
- 6 And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for you received the word in much affliction, with joy inspired by the Holy Spirit;
- 7 so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia.
