BEAUTIFUL BLACK LUBBOCK SISTER

Among the beautiful Black sisters in Lubbock is Racheal Ann Thomas, a native of Wolfforth, Texas. The 19 year-old beauty was caught by a "Digest" camera as she was enjoying June 19th here. She, like many other Blacks, was wondering why there were not any activities here on that day. She is employed by Texas Instruments and enjoys dancing and swimming. (Digest Photo)

"Classes of 1950 - 1959" DUNBAR EX'S HOLD REUNION IN HUB CITY

Hundreds of Dunbar Ex's will be in the city of Lubbock this weekend attending a reunion of the Classes of 1950 through 1959, according to Joan Crawford, general chairperson.

The three day event will be held at the Hilton Inn, beginning Friday, June 29, through Sunday, July 1. Registration will be held from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Friday, with a special program at the dinner at 6 p.m.

"During the special program, we (Dunbar Ex's) will honor some special people," she said. On Saturday morning, beginning at 10:30 a.m., the group will tour their old school, now Ella R. Iles Elementary School. Memorial services are also planned.

Worship services will be held at the Lyons Chapel Baptist Church, Dr. Floyd Perry, Jr., pastor, on Sunday morning.

"We started planning a year ago, and have received complete cooperation from many people," she said. According to Ms. Crawford, Louis Walton, Class of 1954, is probably responsible for the idea of such a reunion.

"We are looking forward to approximately 400 people to be in attendance," she said.

Many of the teachers who were a part of Dunbar High School in those days are expected to be in attendance as well as members of the Parent Teachers Association and the Dunbar Booster Club.

"We will have Dunbar Ex's from all over the country, and we are proud they are coming to this event," said Ms. Crawford. "We are just so happy over the response to this first effort, and who knows what the future will hold for additional programs this one," she concluded.

Professor E. C. Struggs, retired and principal during that time, is quite elated of this effort. On a recent television show, Happenings (KTXT-TV, Channel 5), he said he would not miss this affair for nothing. "If I'm not able to walk, then they will have to roll me in," he smiled. His wife, who was also on the show, too, is glad of this special effort.

SISTERS CELEBRATED JUNETEENTH DAY LEARNING ABOUT BLACK HISTORY

Shown above are Shon and Shan Tennison, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Artemus Ward Tennison, III of 1517 West 9th Street. The young Black sisters are smiling because they had an opportunity to learn more about Black history on Juneteenth Day last week. Both have learned that on this day, Black people were freed in Texas. Shon (at left) told her parents that this day was "June Teen Day." The girls started the day with the Pledge of Allegiance which Shon, age 8, taught Shan, who is age 5.

"Lubbock Branch Involved" NAACP SUBMITS NAMES TO FILL SCHOOL POST

The executive committee of the NAACP Lubbock Branch this week recommended three Black citizens of Lubbock for consideration by the Board of Trustees, Lubbock Independent School District, for appointment to fill the Board vacancy created by the recent death of Charles Waters. Those recommended were Dr. Heenan Johnson, George Scott, Jr., and Mrs. Joan C. Turner.

Dr. Johnson, a dentist, is a longtime Lubbock resident and active civic worker. He was president of the Lubbock Library Board and the Dunbar High School Parent -

Teachers Association, and has served on a number of other boards, including the United Way and the Lubbock Day Care Association Board. He has worked with Boy Scouts of America and is a member of the Rotary Club and Texas Dental Association. He has two children who are graduates of Dunbar High School. Mr. Scott is associate dean of Student Life at Texas Tech University. He had eight years' experience as an administrator and nine years as coach and teacher in the Lubbock Public Schools. Earlier he served as coach and teacher another four years in public schools in Oklahoma. He holds a Masters degree in Educational Administration and has earned 30 hours beyond the Masters degree. Mr. Scott has served on many boards in Lubbock, including

WELCOME DUNBAR EX'S!!

The Lubbock Digest would like to take this space and welcome the many Dunbar High School Ex's who are attending the Class Reunion of 1950 through 1959 as well as those for the Class of 1969. We think it's a great thing when Black brothers and sisters can come together for the same cause. Also, the great images each of you have established in America. This is great and the world should know of this effort.

We would, however, like to encourage both efforts to leave something here that we will not forget. Some type of a resolution would be a beginning. Think about it!

Of course, have fun and the like, but, for goodness sake, keep these things going. This is where it all began for each of you -- Dunbar High School.

OUTREACH BREAKFAST CLUB NEWS

The members of the Outreach Breakfast Club met last Saturday morning at 9 a.m. in the fellowship hall of the New Hope Baptist Church, Rev. A. L. Dunn, pastor.

Devotional scripture was taken from 23rd Psalms. It was brought by Rev. Q. Morris, and followed by Rev. M. Grimes. "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for though art with me, thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

Thought for the morning: "Prayer is not measured by quantity but by quality."

Breakfast was served by our hostesses Mrs. Buelah Winters and Mrs. J. Savage. They were careful in being sure that

by Eddie P. Richardson

BLACK NEWSPAPERS STILL NEEDED!!

After attending the national meeting in Tulsa, Oklahoma of the Black Press of America recently, it was good to see what is really going on in America. This year, along with our many colleagues around the nation, we celebrated the 152nd birthday of the Black Press in the United States.

As we publish the "Lubbock Digest", we can agree with our many colleagues that getting this far in time has not been easy. It has been a chore. One in which we can all relate to.

In the century and half, nearly 3,000 Black newspapers have appeared at one time or another. Most of them no longer exist. However, the handful that do are the backbones of the Black communities around the nation and vital voices for social change and economic development.

There is no question as to the validity of the Black Press, because it has and will always be needed.

One needs only to look at the critical social and human rights issues that have arisen since 1827 to see that Black newspapers have usually been in the forefront of often unpopular fights to give all Americans more dignity, respect, and equality.

In many cases, however, it's been the Black Press which has initiated the fight for racial equality, social equality, and improved housing.

In looking at history, one can easily note that many social issues were largely unequal in past years. Times have changed, of course, and while the problems have been alleviated to some degree, many still exist. Hidden, perhaps, but with almost as much pervasiveness as in the past.

Part of our job, and includes the "Digest", is to continue as Dr. Ben Wright, our cooperative President of BMI, says: "Publishers will continue to make people aware of these issues and, hopefully, be a factor for change that will result in our communities becoming even better places in which to live."

This isn't the time to rest on our laurels then, but, rather, a time to work even harder collectively across the nation serving our readers, advertisers, and our communities and their needs. We intend to do just that for years and years to come; no matter the price. WHY NOT??

JOAN C. WHO??

The "Lubbock Digest", along with the local branch of the NAACP, made recommendations for the position on the Lubbock Independent School Board of Trustees' vacant position because of the untimely death of its president, Charley Waters. The "Lubbock Digest" and the NAACP were in agreement on all candidates recommended and one mentioned, Alfred Cavil.

The recommended names were George Scott, Jr., Dr. Heenan Johnson, and Mrs. Joan C. Turner.

With no disrespect to Mrs. Turner and her credentials, the feelings of this writer and this newspaper is that there is no place like this place, near this place; so this must be the place. This is to say Lubbock is a "dues paying apprentice serving place." Mrs. Turner is a fine woman, but she has not served the apprenticeship or paid the necessary dues here.

We need a person who shares the empathy of the Black community and is sensitive to the total city and all of its' youngsters.

This person must be familiar with local politics, the ends and outs of same. Nuff sed.

MARKET SEMINAR GOOD FOR LUBBOCK

The second annual Market Seminar to be held in our city Monday, July 23, 1979, at the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center, beginning at 9:30 a.m., will be good for Lubbock and surrounding communities. It is past time that things like this become a reality for the residents of Lubbock.

This seminar is geared primarily at the Black community, but it is for all citizens. We all need to know more about who we are, and what we can do to make a better contribution to our nation, state, county, and city.

Three outstanding speakers will be on hand on that day to give us a positive picture of what is going on in the world. For one, Dr. Anthony "Tony" Davis, businessman, publisher and public relations man. Also, Dr. Calvin W. Rolark, Washington, D. C. businessman, publisher, radio personality, and founder of the United Black Fund; and Michael Walker, student-lecturer, world traveler, Dansford Fellowship participant at Princeton University.

This seminar will be one of the top ranked events in Lubbock for all citizens. So think Market Seminar on Monday, July 23, at the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center.

It will be of great benefit to all in attendance, but most important, Lubbock will benefit.

Part I of Four Parts

The Congressional Black Caucus, in an urgent letter last year to the President, stressed the need for a greater appreciation of and sensitivity to the needs and aspirations of the black African nations, especially as these relate to U.S. security, prosperity and peace.

The Caucus letter read in part:

Through his presentations this month to the House International Relations Committee and to the Jaycees National Convention in Atlantic City, Secretary of State Cyrus Vance has done more to outline and clarify the elements of U.S. foreign policy towards Africa than any other spokesman for the Administration. In both instances he impressively reinforced an earlier statement that "we can be neither right nor effective if we treat Africa simply as an arena for East-West competition," and that the proper strategy "emphasizes our strength and encourages an evolution of events that is in both Africa's interest and our own interest."

Among the essential elements of this approach, the Congressional Black Caucus was particularly delighted at the renewal of U.S. commitment to Africa's goal of economic development through increased trade and investment. We were also pleased to note a commitment to the peaceful resolution of disputes through increased support of the United Nations and the Organization of African Unity. Another vital point espoused by Secretary Vance for which we commend the Administration is the respectful reference to the growing spirit of "African nationalism" and its capacity firmly "to resist yielding hard-won independence to outside powers." On several occasions we have contended to you and others the tragic results of confusing communism or Marxism with what is really African nationalism, and we welcome your concurrence.

"Dedicated to Freedom, Justice and Equality"

As PUBLISHERS of this weekly newspaper, we owe to YOU, the reading public, to be factual and fair. You may be critical of some things that are written, but at least you will have the satisfaction of knowing they are truthful and to the point.

People will react to that which is precise, and we will publish their articles as precisely and factually as is humanly possible; and we will also give credit and respect to those who are doing good things for the Lubbock Area and the people. We will be critical of those who are not doing as they have said they would do. And this we think is fair.

So this is our resolution to you: Feel free at any time to call this office for information concerning this newspaper or any other matter that is of concern to you.

This isn't a propaganda sheet made to chastise or vilify. This is a newspaper made to educate and not to agitate.

WHY ARGUE? THE FACTS ARE HERE!

BLACK EMPOWERMENT

By Dr. Nathaniel Wright, Jr.
Human Rights Activist

There is a magnificently instructive story—of crucial significance to all who are planners for or servants of the city—told by the ancient Greek historian Herodotus concerning the Athenian people during the Persian Wars. King Xerxes the Great (519-465 B.C.) and his armies had besieged the Athenian people, enclosing them on three sides. The Athenian people escaped by using their boats and headed by night for a new community which they had been developing in southern Italy.

Then they sent a message to King Xerxes saying in effect that he could have the site of their city. He could have their magnificent buildings and all of their incomparable artifacts. But he could never take or destroy Athens; for we the people are Athens. We are its glory, its life.

The story makes it abundantly clear that, in the minds of at least these ancient and venerable urbanites, the city was not a geographical area or an intricate set of economic, political, social and religious or other systems, but rather their city was the Athenian people themselves.

Into believing something utterly sinister, debilitating and demeaning about who or what we ultimately are. Is a family a system? Is it the house it lives in? Is it the arbitrarily defined land area on which the family's house happens to have been built? Not so. No one could ever convince us of that absurdity.

BLACK POETRY

TALENTED YOUNG MAN

I know a talented young man and his I say without a doubt.
He's wonderful with his hands, projecting even thought sketches out.
He wastes his talents instead and I've tried to draw them out.
He's the master of my cover, Mr. Boyd, I'm talking about.
He could be famous, I believe. The Master gave this gift to him.
His art is extremely appreciated in the hands that have seen them.
He says he's going to quit and he would hurt me if he does.
Because he's black and talented makes him more than Mr. Boyd.
—Faith M. Turner

(Don't give up, Persistence is all that we need to make our God-given talents come to fruition. This is what the black poetess reminds us of.)
Black poets, who may wish exposure to our reading public, may send copies of their poems—by editing and with permission to use—in groups of 12 poems or more to C. May Associates, Box 157, Selkirk, N.Y. 12158. Poetry selected should normally appear within 12 to 20 weeks. Because of staff limitations, no copies are returned.

LIVING WITH OUR DECISION

1 Kings 12:6-11

6 Then King Rehoboam took counsel with the old men, who had stood before Solomon his father while he was yet alive, saying, "How do you advise me to answer this people?"

7 And they said to him, "If you will be a servant to this people today and serve them, and speak good words to them when you answer them, then they will be your servants for ever."

8 But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men who had grown up with him and stood before him.

9 And he said to them, "What do you advise that we answer this people who have said to me, 'Lighten the yoke that your father put upon us?'"

10 And the young men who had grown up with him said to him, "Thus shall you speak to this people who said to you, 'your father made our yoke heavy, but do you lighten it for us': thus shall you say to them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's lions.'"

11 And now, whereas my father laid upon you a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions."

26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, "Now the kingdom will turn back to the house of David; 27 if this people go up to offer sacrifices in the house of the Lord at Jerusalem, then the heart of this people will turn again to their lord, to Rehoboam king of Judah, and they will kill me and return to Rehoboam king of Judah." 28 So the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold. And he said to the people, "You have gone up to Jerusalem long enough. Behold your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt." 29 And he set one in Bethel, and the other he put in Dan. 30 And this thing became a sin, for the people went to the one at Bethel and to the other as far as Dan.

GUSSIE PAYNE

Final rites were held at the Mount Gilead Baptist Church last Thursday afternoon for Mrs. Gussie Payne, a longtime resident of Lubbock, with Rev. A. L. Patrick, pastor, officiating. Interment was held in the City of Lubbock Cemetery under the directions of South Plains Funeral Home.

Mrs. Payne was born October 31, 1920, and the third of seven children of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Pratt of Telephone, Texas.

She moved to Lubbock in 1950 and subsequently married Mr. Charlie Payne in 1950. They had no children. Mr. Payne preceded her in death in April, 1967.

"Gussie", as she was fondly known since she had joined the church at an early age, joined Mount Gilead Baptist Church in 1950 and there she served full time and faithfully even though ill health slowed her attendance until her death.

Mrs. Payne leaves to mourn three brothers, Woodroe Pratt of Lubbock, Pete and Earl Pratt, both of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; a sister, Mrs. Geneva Johnson of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; a stepson, Charles Payne, Jr. of Houston, Texas; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Jessie Mae Barber of Dallas, Texas; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. The Mount Gilead Baptist Church Brotherhood served as active pallbearers. Honorary pallbearers were Deacons of Mount Gilead.
