PRAY FOR PEACE

Let the light of peace warm the hearts of the nations and insure an everlasting peace for all peoples of the world to live together in harmony.

RUBY JAY'S CORNER

Mrs. Evelyn Anderson, sister of Mrs. Clara Colquitt, is home from the hospital and is doing much better at home.

Mrs. Vessie Ball fell last Saturday on the ice. She didn't break any limbs. She only bruised herself a little. She missed church last Sunday.

Many Lubbockites express their Christian sympathy and prayers to Mr. George Scott, Jr. whose mother was funeraled last Saturday in Muskogee, Oklahoma.

We are glad to see Mr. George Francis able to attend his church, New Hope, on last Sunday. He seems to be improving nicely from his recent illness.

It's good to see Mrs. G. H. Davis at church on Sunday. She was shut in all last week.

The Christmas parties are ushering in on Saturday evenings. The Ministers wives held their annual dinner at St. James Baptist Church's fellowship hall. Rev. Kado Lang is pastor and Mrs. Lang is president of Ministers Wives Council. The Pastor's Aid of

New Hope Baptist Church, Mrs. Ruby Washington, president, had their party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Howard last Saturday night.

The New Hope Baptist Church Ushers held their annual party in fellowship hall last Saturday. They reported a wonderful time.

Mrs. R. B. Thompson expressed her gratitude to members and friends of the community last Sunday at New Hope for the wonderful services given in her honor.

Mr. and Mrs. George Francis received a letter from Mrs. Dexter Otis Arnold, chairman of Board of Advisors, Montgomery, Alabama, asking them to buy a 1979 "Outstanding Young Women of America" volume. Their daughter, Mrs. Laverne Collins of Anchorage, Alaska, was chosen as an outstanding young woman of 1979. She earned it through outstanding civic and professional achievements. Congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Francis and your daughter.

Let us not forget to give thanks and praise to the One who died for us all. MERRY CHRISTMAS to all.

You are cordially invited to a candle light service on Sunday at 7 p.m. at New Hope Baptist Church. All of you who have little children, don't forget to light them Christmas Eve at midnight and pray.

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast met last Saturday morning in the home of Mrs. A. Washington. Opening scripture was taken from Psalms 24 and read by Mrs. Dinwiddie. Prayer was offered. Presiding over the meeting was our president, Mrs. Mary Ward. The morning lesson was taught by Rev. Stephen Pierson. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. Thought of the Morning: "Christ is all, and in all." This was a beautiful lesson.

This group would like to thank Rev. Pierson for such an inspiring scripture lesson. A solo was sung by Mrs. P. Dyer. It was "His Eyes Are On The Sparrow."

Breakfast was served, along with love and real good hot food. Are you spiritually or physically hungry? Come by, because we specialize in feeding people. Our guest included Rev. Stephen Pierson and Mrs. Lenora Douglas. You made our day complete. Our sick and shut in list include Mr. Johnnie Walker and Mrs. Dollie Howard.

Prayer request was made. Prayer was offered by several members. The meeting closed with this report until January, 1980.

We wish you peace, love and contentment throughout the new year and years to come.

Mrs. Mary Ward is president; Mrs. C. E. Fair, vice president; Mrs. Claretta Brown, secretary; and Mrs. Dorothy Hood reporter.

POLICE HAPPENINGS AROUND LUBBOCK

"May Your Stockings Runneth Over!!"

CRIMINAL MISCHIEF

The writer of this column would like to take this opportunity and space and wish each of you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Be careful during this time of the year. Take time to secure your various businesses and residences, and help a neighbor if there is something strange happening in the area. Be careful and take care of yourself.

J. D. SLAY, 3416 East 16th Street, reported Lubbock police that while his car was parked at Mr. "C", 811 University Avenue, one day last week, someone unknown did shatter the front glass of the car with an unknown object.

Damage to the vehicle was believed to be $250.

CRIMINAL MISCHIEF

In another criminal mischief act, LILLIE

MAE WHEELER, 2714 East 7th Street, reported to Lubbock police that someone broke the front glass to her car with an unknown object.

She told police that she knows the man who broke out the glass, because he had been giving her trouble before. "This man has been giving me trouble for some time," she said.

She told police that she believes he is the same person who is responsible for burglarizing her home some time ago. Several others in the neighborhood told her about this individual.

Damage to the car was approximately $50.

MOTOR VEHICLE THEFT

RUBY PHENIX, 1827 East 25th Street, reported to Lubbock police that her car stalled on her and husband last Saturday evening. After making several attempts to start the car, without any luck, they left the car parked legally at 1813 East 25th Street.

The next day, however, she found that her car was gone without her permission. Evidently, according to the police report, someone unknown took the car. Mrs. Phenix told police she has called virtually every wrecker place in town, but, to no avail, her car hasn't been found.

Since it's Christmas time, it would be nice if the person or persons who has this car would return it to Mrs. Phenix. It would be a lovely present to her since she is the owner.

CAR BURGLARY

ESTELLE CLEVELAND, 2610 Hickory Avenue, reported to Lubbock police that someone unknown broke out the passenger side window of her car one day last week and gained entry.

Approximately $200 worth of damage was done to the car which was parked at 1701 Parkway Drive.

Once inside, the unknown person took a leather coat and a purse containing valuable papers. The purse and coat were valued at $100.

I would like to have a pair of disco skates and a hungry, hungry hippo game. And clothes and shoes and hats and a pair of boots. And some blue jeans and a vest and a shirt. I want the blue jeans with my name on all of them and the vest.

I want a big, big doll with clothes and some hats and shoes to go with her. I also want some games to play with. I want a new school bag, and an umbrella.

Children love cone-cups

Most youngsters love cup-cakes... they love to eat 'em... they love to bake them. Christmas "cone cups" are fun and a marvelous treat, iced and decorated with bright holiday gumdrops.

Fill flat-bottom ice cream cones half full of cake batter and bake in a slow oven on a cookie sheet. Serve plain or iced, and best of all, there are no crumbly cupcake liners left over. They're also great to have along on a car trip for a snack, and again, no litter!

Muddy Science
HOUSTON—There is no mud in mud. Now that drilling mud has become so complex, it takes a "mud engineer" to explain how to make and use mud. These engineers have perfected the art of mud making and just about made the wasteful gushing of a new oil well a thing of the past, said E.E. "Gene" Clear of Drilling Specialties.

Drilling mud lubricates and cools drill bits, cakes up and prevents well walls from caving in and also carries rock fragments to the surface.

FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION OF LUBBOCK

Why Not?

by Eddie P. Richardson

Looking back over 1979, a lot of things have happened -- some good and some bad. No matter which way we look at it, we should use them as stepping stones to better things. As the old year winds down and the new year approaches, we should start setting positive goals and planning for bigger and brighter aspirations for 1980.

1980, being an election year, Black people must register and most of all VOTE. After you register, if we fail to use our voting muscle in 1980, we can go back to the back of the bus and be satisfied with continued visible racism and non responsive politicians to our needs. The vote collectively together, we can insure Black peoples' stake in the American Dream.

With years end as close to an end as it is, we should stop and pause from politics, community problems, disagreements, and all of the every day woes, worries and problems -- and give thanks to God and be most gracious, most compassionate for all of our blessings in 1979. The Lubbock Digest, owners and staff, would like to take this time out to wish you & yours a most JOYOUS CHRISTMAS AND A VERY HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS 1980. May God's blessings be with you and yours throughout this Holiday Season. This writer personally hope everyone will pause and pray during this holiday season in their own way to their own God and then come back after the holidays charged in the right way and running to do positive things in the New Year of 1980. HAPPY HOLIDAYS!!

As the end of the year of 1979, let's look back as to why we have a Lubbock Digest. Let's go back in history to Rev. Samuel Cornish and John Russwurm, and before their time and see what the white press did to and for Blacks! The first news report of a lynching appeared in Freedom's Journal, the first recognized Black newspaper. Crisis Magazine (NAACP) constantly reported lynchings during the early 1900's at a time when Associated Press and New York newspapers ignored or justified them. In an 1859 article on "The President's Message: Fredrick Douglas took James Buchanan to task. He said Buchanan's "points" with unerring certainty to the South.

"It knows no north, no east, no west." He called Buchanan "the plain tool of pro-slavery propogandist, the subsidiary of southern despotism, a consummate hypocrite."

"The Rams Horn" was started in 1847 in response to attacks on Afro-Americans and activities of the "New York Sun's" (a penny newspaper). The "Sun", in 1846, printed editorials proposing the curbing of Negro Voting Rights in New York state. A Black man, Willis Hodges, wrote a reply which was printed only when he agreed to pay $15.00 and run it as an ad." Even then, the article was modified. When Hodges protested, he was told "The sun shines for all white men and not for colored men. If he wanted the Afro-American cause advocated, he should have found his own paper. He did and the paper got up to 2,500 subscribers (a large number than Garrison's letters known Liberator before it died in 1848). The "New Orleans Tribune" started in 1862 by Dr. J. J. Roudeny and was the first Black owned daily newspaper. It fought for the right to vote for Blacks and was branded a "sick vanity" by a white New Orleans paper. It denounced efforts of whites to drive a wedge between the light-skinned and the dark-skinned Blacks and successfully opposed efforts to define quardroons as "white" a procedure that would have set up a South African type system in the U. S.

Stickability, persistency, and hard work are the most essential ingredients to success. A good example is my friend and my home boy MILTON CAMPBELL, aka "LITTLE MILTON." Milton and I knew each other from early teens. I went into the U. S. Air Force, but Milton stuck to music. In an absence of over twelve years of seeing each other, the first time this writer saw Milton was here in Lubbock in early 60's, after he made "Blind Man". At that time, Milton told me he stayed out there sixteen years. Sometimes hungry, but most of the time, he was broke. It was an instant success, but it finally happened. It could not have happened to a nicer person.

Milton, you made it. He is an example for young people. You can be or do whatever you want to do if you are willing to work hard and pay the price. The last time I saw Milton was in Dallas, four or five years ago in Dallas at the Longhorn Ballroom. Milton is a fine person and a tremendous musician.

See Milton on Saturday evening of this week, along with Betty Wright, at the Cotton Club. I'll see you there.

Since politics enters everything, let's get into a few politics now. This writer made a statement a few weeks past in this column about politicians' actions at minority functions -- arriving late and leaving early after awarding honorary citizenships and making welcoming addresses. My total criticism is aimed at city officials, because when one runs for mayor or city council, they know well that making welcoming addresses and giving honorary citizenships are only a part of their many functions. This goes along with the job, which will also include ribbon cutting and many others. Of course, it's time consuming and, in some cases, even boring, but this what they were elected for as well as the normal mayor and council duties. There has always been better attendance practices by state, county and national officials than city politicians. Maybe it is because they have as many invitations as city officials.

Just recently at the Business Development Center's banquet, when Councilman McAlister made the honorary citizenship award. After the speech, he left! County Judge Rod Shaw and State Representative Froy Salinas, however, were at the banquet, but stayed until the function was over. Both took time to visit with people. I can remember some years ago when the United Black Coalition of Lubbock was booming; Lubbock was preparing for a riot, because some one mistakened K.E.N.D.'s signs the Coalition with the wording "The End Is Coming on June 19th."

The Coalition was having its second annual weekend of awareness, Emancipation of the Mind, that Friday evening. The late State Rep. R. B. "Mr. Mac" McAlister was at the Greater Saint Luke Baptist Church playing "Precious Lord" on the piano and spent all day Saturday with us. Mayor at that time, Dr. Jim Granberry, was also different. He, too, believed in communicating with everyone. He was one of the better public relations mayors Lubbock has had.

THIS WEEK WE EXAMINE

TRIBUTE TO NATIONAL CHARACTER

So often we feel that, as individuals, there is little impact which we can make upon the world about us. But there are many ways to make, as one heroic figure put it, "the stubborn ounces of our weight" felt with a telling effect.

One such way is to write to your Representatives and Senators in the Congress, concerning your support for a Martin Luther King Jr. National Holiday. The importance of such a national observance is that it would be a day when Americans as a whole reflect upon some of the finest, most sublime elements in our national character and ideals. Thus, a Martin Luther King Jr. Holiday would be a tribute and encouragement to us all. Plan to write your own letters today.

Several bills regarding Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. are before the U.S. House of Representatives. One regarding the proposed holiday has approximately 100 co-sponsors. The Senate bill has a wide spectrum of sponsorship and support, from Senator Ted Kennedy to Senator Robert Dole. The President has also endorsed this proposed tribute to the national principles espoused by his fellow-Georgian.

If the bill is to pass, letters both to the White House and to members of the Congress are urgent. If you belong to national or regional religious, civic or other groups, it would greatly multiply the effect of your efforts, if you would encourage mass mailings by individuals from each group to which you belong. This would be a perfect opportunity, for example, for our state Councils of Churches across the nation.

The Martin Luther King holiday bill is a richly deserving cause. It should occasion little controversy for us to muster the greatly needed support which we can bring about.

The other major bill concerning Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. calls for a bust or statue of the civil rights hero to be placed in the U.S. Capitol. The bill has been introduced by Representative Jonathan B. Bingham (D-NY). Representative Bingham noted, in introducing the bill, that of all black Americans who have contributed to the nation's greatness, not one is featured among the 681 works of art in the halls of the Capitol.

Calling this a shame and a disgrace, Representative Bingham says a memorial to Dr. King presents a perfect opportunity to begin to correct this injustice, and to appropriately honor a man who so effectively altered the racial course of our Nation.

Representative Bingham said: "Although Dr. King's violent death is a tragic blot on our recent history, his life is a shining example for us all. For over a decade, his hopes and dreams guided the Nation in the struggle for justice...opportunity, and basic rights. He carried that struggle as far as any man or woman in the country.

"A permanent memorial to Dr. King, in the Capitol, would remind America and the rest of the world over the years to come of the inspiring leadership of this great man." Mr. Bingham also noted: Dr. King began his fight for civil rights in Montgomery, Alabama in 1955. His philosophy was one of changing inequality by non-violence. A firm believer in Christian ideals and Gandhi's principle of peaceful non-violent protest, he set out to fulfill a dream, to give life to the country's highest ideals. He spoke for the present and the future, of "getting to the mountaintop" and "reaching the Promised Land."

In his introductory remarks concerning the bill for a Martin Luther King Jr. holiday on January 15th each year, Representative John Conyers (D-Michigan) noted:

"Nearly eleven years have passed since Dr. King's tragic death in Memphis, yet affection and respect have grown tremendously for his work and ideals. Each passing year millions of Americans recommit themselves to his dream for racial, political, and economic justice in our nation by celebrating his birthday. Thirteen states, as well as most of the major cities across the country, already have declared his birthday a time of formal observance.

"Dr. King's life and work exemplify the striving of Americans for equality, peace in the world, and reconciliation at home. His unshakable faith in human beings, his indomitable courage in public life, his extraordinary steadiness of character and self-discipline have come to be admired and honored by peoples throughout the world. To make Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday a national holiday would be a way to commemorate his life, and at the same time, to enable citizens to reflect upon the high ideals that he lived and gave his life for.

"Each year since Dr. King's assassination, I have introduced a bill in Congress to make his birthday a national day of observance. I hope this year that the Congress will swiftly pass the bill.

"Martin Luther King, Jr. gave his life to improve the lives of us all. National recognition of this hero is long overdue. A national holiday in his honor would not be merely the observance of a single man. It would be recognition of the moral force of his character and the vast imprint that he has left on our history. We need a day for all Americans to pause in honor of his life and contributions to mankind."

Letters in support of the bills may be addressed to your Representatives in care of: Congressional Office Building, Washington, D.C. Senators may be addressed at: Senate Office Bldg., Washington, D.C. The President resides at The White House, 1600 Pennsylvania Ave., Washington, D.C.

Road To Riches Starts At Door
LOS ANGELES—Doorman positions may soon be classified as stepping stones to success.
 So say Youngstown, Ohio's Bill Saluga (doorman at New York's now defunct Bitter End in 1967-68) and friend David Wilkes (doorman at the same Greenwich Village club in 1966-67) from Great Neck, N.Y.
 Wilkes broke Saluga into the job and Wilkes is now general manager of a music publishing firm in New York.
 Saluga learned fast, but it still took him 10 years to become known as Raymond J.

Express Route To College
NEW YORK—If a Union Pacific train chugs through your town, it could provide your express route to college. If you are an Anderson, Borden or Murphy, your name could be your password to a college scholarship. If you happen to be a descendant of a California Indian, you might be able to enter the halls of Ivy.
 These represent only a few of the bewildering, sometimes bizarre, collection of scholar-

WORDS OF LIFE Biblical Inspiration For The Week

"That we henceforth be no more children."
—Ephesians 4:14

1. No Greediness. God does not want us to be like infants, although we are always—God's children. An infant bawls and squawks and takes everything he or she sees as one's own. This may be said to be a natural way of doing things for infants. But when we act this way as adults—and most of us do behave this way far too many times—we call that kind of behavior greediness. God wants us to have "plenty." He does not want any of us to be greedy.

2. No Grumbling. God is good, and God is always doing and preparing for each of us—and for those whom we love—far better things than we desire, deserve or may pray for. If we cannot find good and joy and peace in life around us today, we shall never find it tomorrow or the next day. For God's goodness never fails... and it is with us now.

3. Just Growth. Moving out of infancy means engaging in growth. It means experiencing "growing pains." It involves a continual wrenching of ourselves loose from the chains and rusty bolts which bind us to old self-defeating ways of doing things. Break the chains! Free yourself. Grow in Christ... and soar with and in Him to Victory!

Prayer Poem

According to tradition, a royal ancestor of Jesus, the shepherd-king, David, penned the following prayer poem relating to our need to find maturity in joy in God. The words are from Psalm 103, "Praise the Lord, O My Soul."

Praise the Lord, O my soul
And all that is within me, praise his holy Name.

Praise the Lord, O my soul,
And forget not all his benefits...
Who saveth thy life from destruction,
And crowneth thee with mercy and living-kindness;
Who satisfieth thy mouth
with good things,
Making thee young and
lusty as an eagle...
For look how high the heaven is in comparison of the earth;

So great is his mercy also toward them that fear him...
Yea, like as a father pitieth
his own children,
Even so is the Lord merciful unto them that fear
him...
O speak good of the Lord,
all ye works of his...
Praise thou the Lord, O my soul.

We are told that God keeps in perfect peace those whose minds and hearts are fixed on him. It is in this way that an attitude of pleasantness and growth is fostered, and so also do we grow and mature in Christ.

Sunday School Lesson

The Incarnate Word Among W's

JOHN 1:1-15, 9-14

John 1:1-5

- 1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
- 2 He was in the beginning with God;
- 3 all things were made through him, and without him was not anything made that was made.
- 4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men.
- 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

John 1:9-15

- 9 The true light that enlightens every man was coming into the world.
- 10 He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world knew him not.
- 11 He came to his own home, and his own people received him not.
- 12 But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God;
- 13 who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.
- 14 And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth; we have beheld his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father.

MEMORY SELECTION: The Word became flesh and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth; we have beheld his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father. John 1:14

Media Reviews:

A LONGTIME FAVORITE

(For all persons of all ages)

A review of The Holy Bible (A compilation of the best of the inspired thought about life's purpose and meaning from our Western World tradition. Various priced and published.)

For what many have come to see as a spiritually barren generation, The Holy Bible represents richly rewarding and perhaps also vitally important reading. Some see in the lines of this "collection of many books" a literal scanning of the Creator's mind. Others see in it an artistic and "miracle-working" portrait of the Creator in His dealings with individuals and groups in regard to human fulfillment and the cosmic purpose.

Many black Americans will relish the notion that many of the most familiar Genesis stories are from black or central African life and thought. They may also bask in the fact, now coming to light, that the ancient Jewish people were a dark-skinned race, which would make Jesus and the Blessed Mother in some sense "one of us."

For first-time and would-be serious readers, it is recommended that one read Genesis, St. John's Gospel and then the Epistles of St. Paul. These are easily read and understood. The Epistles are "letters to church people" and are filled with rich spiritual advice for personal growth. The "Love Chapter," I Corinthians 13, and the Epistles of St. John make a quick and substantial delight."

Serving a Bishop at a Yuletide gathering

Entertaining friends and family adds to the many delights of this festive and glorious season! Unusual food or drink not only offers a unique touch to your gathering, but will start the conversational ball rolling as well. A drink called a Bishop, very popular in Northern European countries is colorful and appropriate.

Strongly resembling mulled wine, it is a spicy concoction of heated port wine (or sherry or bordeaux, if that's what's on hand), spiked with cloves and the peel of lemon or orange. The proportions of the ingredients we leave to your individual taste and imagination... Skool!

Wondering if there is any tradition concerned with when a Christmas tree should be dismantled and taken down? January 6th, Epiphany or Twelfth Night, marks the traditional end of the holiday and used to be observed by the burning of the tree and greens.

However there can be a happier end for your tree... one you will enjoy and find rewarding. Setting your tree up outdoors and hanging it with popcorn strings and suet makes a beautiful, natural bird feeder. Think of the fun you'll have observing your lively feathered friends through the months to follow!

An unusual, festive look into the future.

In Czechoslovakia, fortunes are told after dinner on Christmas eve. Melted wax or lead are poured into water and the shapes they form are the signs that foretell the future.

Be Crafty and Clever at Holiday Time with Easy-To-Make Macaroni Jewelry

Wondering what to give your friends that won't put a crimp in your allowance? Macaroni jewelry is easy and inexpensive to make and your pals will love it! You'll need some elbow macaroni, food coloring, and colored yarn.

Decide how many necklaces or bracelets you want to make. Dye the approximate amount of macaroni in dishes partially filled with food colorings mixed with water. Let the macaroni dry over night on waxed paper. String the pieces onto various colored yarns... you might string pink macaroni on green yarn, or blue on yellow. You can even make long chains to trim your tree! Tip the yarn with a piece of tape for easier stringing and knot the ends to finish them.

Yule Legends

French peasants believe that a daughter, born on December 25th, will be wise, witty and virtuous.

Polish children get their holiday gifts from Mother Star, and her companion Father Star, not from Santa Claus!

Flowering Bulbs To Grow In Time for Joyful Gift Giving

Some of the most fragrant, beautiful plants to grow and give are flowering bulbs. They can be forced into winter bloom easily and are available at flower shops, nurseries and often in five and ten cent stores. Paper white narcissus will bloom in 6 to 7 weeks, hyacinths in 10 to 12 weeks, amaryllis in 4 to 6 weeks. Plan to give them just as the flowers are about to open. They are welcome gifts that make a colorful display in any home!

Paper-white Narcissus—Place 4 to 6 bulbs, about 2" apart in a shallow bowl containing colorful pebbles and water. Twist bulbs gently and firmly into pebbles so they stand straight, and are about 1/2" under the top surface of the pebbles. The bowl need not be deep, 4" to 5" will do. Set to root in cool, dark spot for about 4 weeks or until tops have sprouted. Keep water level always to base of bulb. Move to a bright or sunny window sill or shelf. Continue to water. Blossoms though short lasting, are wonderfully fragrant and lovely.

Hyacinths—Follow directions for paper-whites using only two or three bulbs to pot. Hyacinths prefer a slightly cooler place to hibernate while rooting and take a few weeks longer to sprout. Their beautiful, varied color blooms make a handsome centerpiece.

Amaryllis—These large bulbs with their striking lilylike blossoms come in many vivid colors. Plant 1 bulb to a pot filled with average potting soil, leaving one-third of the bulb exposed. Keep in a sunny, bright window, watering sparingly until stem appears. Increase water as bud expands.

Consumers Aid Drink Development
FULLERTON, Calif. — When it was first developed in the 1930's, Hawaiian Punch was only sold as a concentrated symp in the gourmet sections of elegant department stores. When consumers began mixing the syrup with water to make a refreshing beverage, the company recognized the consumer need and developed a ready-to-drink beverage in a can. Today Hawaiian Punch is the largest selling non-carbonated soft drink flavor in the U.S.

Making Old Fashioned, Spicy Gingerbread Men Cookies...

One of the special and most delicious customs at Christmas is snappy, spicy gingerbread men cookies. Since the whole family loves them, why not have the whole family join together in a happy baking spree? Here's our quick 'n' easy recipe:

Gingerbread Cookies:
1 cup packed brown sugar
3 eggs
1 cup margarine or butter, softened
1 1/2 cups molasses
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon baking soda
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
1 teaspoon ground allspice
1 teaspoon ground cloves
1 teaspoon ground ginger
3 cups all-purpose flour plus 5-6 cups (to be used later)
8" gingerbread man cookie cutter

Early in day: In a large bowl with mixer at low speed, beat first 11 ingredients, until just mixed, constantly scraping bowl with rubber spatula. Increasing speed to medium, beat 2 more minutes, scraping occasionally. Using a wooden spoon, stir additional 5 to 6 cups of flour into dough, to make it stiff. Divide dough in half and wrap in plastic wrap. Dough can be used immediately or refrigerated for up to two days.

Preheat oven to 350° F. On a lightly floured surface roll half the dough with a lightly floured rolling pin, until 1/4" thick. With gingerbread man cookie cutter, cut as many cookies as possible. Using a pancake turner, arrange cookies on lightly greased cookie sheet, handling carefully. Bake 12 minutes until cookie edges are firm; loosen cookies from sheet and remove to wire rack to cool. Reroll scraps and using remaining dough, repeat. Using white frosting, prepared or your own home made favorite, and raisins, decorate gingerbread men. Recipe makes about 2 dozen cookies.

O. L. Slaton Students Discuss Economics

Inflation at the gas pump? Inflation in the classroom? Can it be taught to 8th grade social studies students?

Proof is in the offering in Richard Molina's social studies class at Matthews Junior High. Students are learning about the free enterprise system by economic definitions demonstrated by collage. The presentation of the definition is given by the teacher who explains the problem of limited resources vs. unlimited wants.

The collage is made in the classroom by the students based on the economic definitions.

In one instance, the collage is used to demonstrate the source resource of oil from OPEC which sets its own price and directly affects the price of gas at our gas pump.

Students are encouraged to be creative in finding their own ideas and developing them.

Also, the idea involves parent participation. The technique used in the classroom was videotaped for parent viewing at the Matthews Junior High School open house Tuesday evening October 16.

The videotape will be kept for repeated showing to classes at Matthews Junior High and shared with city wide teachers at in-service meetings.

"Letters To Santa"

Dear Santa:

I would like a play horse, guns, wagon, and some fruits for Christmas. I have been a good little boy.

Yours truly,

Edward Phenix
Age 2

Dear Santa:

I would like to have my letter in the Lubbock Digest and my parents are Rev. and Mrs. Kilpatrick, 2420 East 29th Street. I am 11 years old and I would like some roller skates for Christmas this year. I go to Wheatley School and I like it very much. Please write back.

Love,
Kisha

Dear Santa:

I am a little girl age 9. I am an only child. This year, Santa, all I ask for Christmas is to bring peace to the world and food for the hungry children of the world, and the lonely children of the world for someone to love them. And all the sick children, and someone to love them. And all the sick children, and freedom of pain and if you have any toys left in your bag.

I would like a doll, an electronic game called Merline, a guitar, and disco skates. And a few other things. But make sure you get the other children first, especially the ones that are not fortunate as I am. Mommie, daddy and Aunt Darlene loves me. Start soon on around.

Monica Oats

Dear Santa:

Hi! For Christmas I would like a play house, records, Wonder Woman doll, and a play Santa Claus just like you.

Tonia Curry

P. S. A watch too. Tell Mrs. Santa, Hi!

Here's hoping Santa brings you all the things you wish for...including health and happiness.

In the warm afterglow of his visit, Santa brings a merry tale of fun and laughter to the young and young at heart. As his festive tale unfolds, embracing one and all in the loving spirit of Christmas, we add a footnote of thanks for our devoted friends and patrons and wish you

A Very Merry, Merry Christmas
